WHISKY SMUGGLING ENCOURAGES OTHER UNLAWFUL TRAFFIC

Treasure Officers Claim Atlantic Coast Trading Worse Than Canadian.

Washington, Aug. 9.—(By The Associated Press).—Whisky smuggling into the United States has reached such proportions that it has brought in its wake a large illegal traffic in other commodities, it was learned Monday at the treasury department. Officials have become so concerned that they are considering a rearrangement of the government's coastal chasing arms.

Finds Many Changes in 23 Years Absence

William Dwyer of Chatterbox, Washington, hadn't been in Great Falls since he left the city 23 years ago, until he arrived for a visit Monday. Mr. Dwyer was sheriff of Cascade county for one term and left here in 1897, immediately after his term of office expired. He became interested in ranching on a large scale in the Spokane country and some years ago retired from the business. He says he decided recently that he wanted to see the city and meet some of his former friends and that is the occasion of his visit. He is stopping at the home of his brother-in-law Frank Proctor of Seventh avenue south. "There are a few old landmarks left," said Mr. Dwyer, "but believe me there has been a great change in the city and it is very pleasing one, too."

TWO GIRL HIKERS ON WAY TO GLACIER, AS SUMMER OUTING

Carry 40 Pound Packs and Do Over 1000 Miles in Month on Road.

There are two young ladies who are not at all disturbed about the increasing high cost of traveling, but they do hope that shoes won't become any more expensive. They are Miss Charlotte Nachtway and Miss Anna Hehn of Dorchester, Wis., and they arrived in Great Falls Sunday morning after having walked nearly all the way from Dorchester, 1,200 miles. They left Dorchester July 7, they said, and had traveled by such easy stages that it didn't seem to them they had actually walked over 1,000 miles. Each girl carried a knapsack weighing about 40 pounds. Some nights they camped out and some nights they spent at hotels in the towns they passed through. They spent two nights camping in the bad lands. Because it was their first trip west they had been especially interested in the roundup they witnessed at Bozeman. One night, they claim, they heard a mountain lion.

They tramped through Yellowstone and were on their way to Glacier park when they stopped in Great Falls to call on their old friends from their home town, Miss Helen Novachek a nurse at the Columbus hospital and her sister Mrs. A. O. Hedmark, 611 Eighth avenue north.

Monday morning at 9:30 they set out from Great Falls which they declared was one of the most attractive cities they had ever seen. After exploring Glacier park to their hearts content they expect to start home. Because their schools open early in September they will not be able to walk all the way back to Dorchester. But they intend to walk so far as they can eastward and yet be back by the time school opens. Asbestos thread can be spun so fine it takes about 32,000 feet to weigh a pound.

BIG FALLS PICNIC FOR Y-G BEE LINE DELEGATES, DANDY

Dinner and Entertainment Prove Most Enjoyable; Noted Comedy Star There.

As the concluding feature of a busy day for the delegates to the Yellowstone-Glacier Bee Line association, the entertainment committee of the Great Falls Commercial club staged a program at the Big Falls of the Missouri river Monday evening that proved as pleasant as the day had been busy. The opening number was the picnic dinner which was served under the expert management of W. A. Bertke, manager of the Great Falls Gas company and there were numerous other diversions ending with general dancing to music by an orchestra. One of the big hits of the evening was the dancing of Beryl and Shirley Green, a couple of little tots, while another was the singing of the Overseas quartet composed of Harper Jones, Julius Hilgard, Jack Floyd and R. M. Mackerson. Featured as the star of the evening's entertainment was the appearance in song of R. C. Montgomery of the long popular musical comedy and vaudeville team of Montgomery and Stone, the other member being the late Fred Stone. The visiting women were the guests at a luncheon Monday at noon at the Park hotel.

21 MEN ENLIST HERE FOR NAVY

Last Week's Record Best in History of Local Recruiting Office.

The largest number of naval recruits were signed up here last week of any week since the local recruiting station was established in 1913. Twenty-one enlistments were made in this district which is greater by three than enlistments for any previous week, even during the war, when enlistments were so numerous.

According to W. F. Wolf, officer in charge of the local station, recruiting has shown a marked improvement not only at this station but throughout the United States since the pay was increased and the opening of the trade schools to recruits. Formerly these schools were only open to men with sea service and some were only open to men who had completed a full enlistment and re-enlisted with an honorable discharge.

Young men who have had two years high school education or its equivalent may be enlisted in the United States navy for a course of instruction at the Navy electrical school. There are two of these schools, one at Mare Island, Cal., and the other at Hampton Roads, Va. The length of the course is designed as nine months, there being 32 separate weeks of instruction. Recruits are still being sent to the radio school, knowledge of telegraphy being unnecessary for entrance.

EXPRESS EMPLOYEES RECEIVE INCREASE OF MONTHLY WAGES

Railway Labor Board Grants 80,000 Men From $35 to $51 More Salary.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Eighty thousand American Railroad Express company employees will be awarded increased wages in a decision to be handed down Tuesday by the railway labor board.

All employees, except 2,500 shipmen benefited by 13 cent increase granted July 29 in the $80,000,000 railway workers award, will be affected. The increase, it was learned, is to be a flat basis to all classes of employees. While it was indicated that the award will not be all asked, it was stated that the amount would exceed that granted to the great majority of the railroad workers, the board maintaining that the express employees were not so well paid.

The amounts asked ranged from $35 to $51 per month.

SUFFRAGE APPROVAL BY NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE LIKELY

Special Session Will Have Governor's Message in Favor on Thursday.

Raleigh, Aug. 9.—While the North Carolina legislature will meet in special session today to consider taxation reforms and the suffrage amendment, it appeared Monday that suffrage would not come up until late in the week.

At the governor's office it is said he would submit the suffrage amendment probably Thursday together with a message advocating ratification. Preliminary polls of the legislators are said to indicate a close fight on ratification with odds in favor of the suffragists in the senate and slightly against them in the house.

37TH STATE DESERVED

Washington, Aug. 9.—Whatever the outcome of the fight to bring about suffrage ratification by the Tennessee legislature, the campaign to obtain its adoption by the North Carolina legislature, which meets Tuesday will be pushed by the National Woman's party. If Tennessee ratifies leaders of the woman's party said, an attempt will be made to obtain ratification in North Carolina "to protect ratification against all legal attacks by securing the 37th state."

DALLAS BUILDINGS FALL INJURING 7 PERSONS

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 9.—Seven persons were injured, two seriously, in the collapse of two buildings on Main Street undergoing repairs, Monday. The collapse came without warning but a score of persons escaped injury.

Husbands

This is the wonderful picture which authorities consider one of the three best photodramas that the art of the screen has ever produced. Simple in plot—the story of a neglected wife—"BLIND HUSBANDS" is the most absolutely gripping photoplay you have ever seen—with a tremendous surprise at the end that will make you gasp. With its scenes laid in the Alps, "BLIND HUSBANDS" rises to heights of drama as overpowering as its towering peaks. If you miss this picture you will miss one crowded hour of photoplay entertainment—a picture that you'll never forget
