Thomas H. Ince Presents CHARLES RAY in "A Village Sleuth"

A Paramount Picture

Folks thought he was only a hired man, but—sh-h-h-h—he was a detective!
Really! Even better than Nick Carter Disguises, revolver, bull's eye lantern, n' everything.
And when that rich man disappeared, and a big jewel thief baffled them smart city sleuths, and queer things happened in that Home for Nervous Women—sh-h-h-h-h! Jest you watch Sherlock Wells!

A picture with all the charm and heart appeal that made Charles Ray the best loved actor on the screen. And more laughs than the "hick" sleuth's pup had fleas!

Very Encouraging is the Start Made By Shelby Schools

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Shelby, Sept. 14.—The Shelby public school has started under very encouraging conditions. Fifteen teachers are employed, seven of them in high school. The high school enrollment bids fair to reach 65 or 70. The new high school building is accommodating the high school students and also those in the seventh and eighth grades. These grade students will enter many of the high school activities, and will participate in much of the high school life.
A good playground is being prepared for the grade children. Mr. Morin will be playground supervisor. Every boy and girl in high school and the upper grades is required to take gym work and athletics, while Mrs. Michels and Miss Blake will conduct the girls' gymnastics.

Very Encouraging is the Start Made By Shelby Schools

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Butte, Sept. 14.—The public schools of Butte employ 310 teachers, and have begun the fall term without any vacancies except in the manual training department in the Emerson and Whittier schools. That vacancy has been caused by the death of Charles Schroeder in charge of that department. Butte pays teachers higher salaries than any other town in the state, and higher than the average city of the same size in other states. The salaries here range from $1,200 to $2,400 a year, while some of the school principals receive more than this maximum.

Silver Bow County's Cash Balance Drops Toward Danger Point.

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Butte, Sept. 14.—There is a balance in the county treasury of Silver Bow of $144,211 for all purposes, according to the August report of the county treasurer. Of this amount $80,000 is derived from personal taxes, and is not available for county purposes until the prorata is made in November between the school fund and the state. In August there was received $334,395 for taxes and $121,253 for licenses, while there was paid out $51,117.40. The total balance on hand at the close of last month was $218,226.75, of which $211,826.78 was in banks and $10,929.97 in cash in the office. Of this amount $144,211.21 is in county funds, and the balance belongs to trust and agency funds.

Will Take an Appeal Prlja Reinstatement to the Higher Court

Special to The Daily Tribune.
Butte, Sept. 14.—A writ of mandamus issued by Judge Edwin Lamb of the district court directs Mayor Stodden to reinstate Philip Prlja as a traffic sergeant of the Butte police force, a position Prlja held until May 2, 1919. At that time Prlja was dropped from the police rolls by order of the mayor when the former was convicted of an alleged assault upon Mike Burzan for which Prlja was sentenced by Judge Lynch to serve from 1 1/2 to 3 years in the state prison. Later Prlja was granted a full pardon, and never was taken to Deer Lodge. The city contended that conviction of a felony was sufficient for dismissal. Judge Lamb in deciding for Prlja held that the city erred by not giving him a trial before the police commission, as is required under the metropolitan system by which Butte's police force is operated.

Prlja has declared that when restored to the police force he will begin suit for salary for the entire time he has been kept out of the service, which will amount, he says, to approximately $3,000. Chief Murphy says, however, that Prlja will not be vested with police authority until he, the chief, has been officially notified of his reinstatement. Announcement from the office of the city attorney is to the effect that the city will take an appeal to the supreme court.

WOMEN WILL SEND QUESTIONNAIRE TO STATE CANDIDATES

County Nominees, Too, Will be Asked to State Their Stands on Issues.

Every state and every Cascade county candidate for public office will receive a questionnaire from the City Federation of Women's organizations in Great Falls asking him to state definitely his attitude on certain matters that are before the public. The returned questionnaires from the candidates with their statements will then be read before all the women's organizations in the city without discussion and without comment. The getting out of these questionnaires will be the City Federation's contribution to work of the Cascade County League of Women Voters.
At the meeting of the city federation held Tuesday evening at the Young Men's Christian association the questions to be included in the questionnaires were discussed. They will include the attitude of the candidates on the irrigation bonds; on the university bonds; the good roads measure; what the candidates have done for the betterment of the conditions of women and children in their localities; whether they favor the primary or the convention methods.
Mrs. I. N. Walker, Mrs. R. L. Igle and Mrs. L. A. Jenkin were appointed by the president, Mrs. James Gooch, to draw up the questionnaires and send them out to the candidates.
Lester Cole of the Montana Farmer and an alumnus of the University of Montana spoke to the women on the necessity of the passage of the bond issues to preserve the university to the state.
Mrs. Patrick Angland moved that the City Federation use its efforts during winter months toward the securing of a community play house for the city. Mrs. Angland and Mrs. Walker were appointed a committee on looking into the possibilities of a playhouse for Great Falls.
The attention of the women was called to the fact that the clerks in certain of the stores in the city are not provided with seats according to the state laws.

"The Courage of Marge O'Doone"

By JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD
A Companion Picture to "The River's End" And "Back To God's Country"

It's the Call of the North and everyone should answer it

Hard to Forget
—the bloody fight between two grizzly bears.
—the haunted hut of Tavish.
—the search of Marge in the Wilderness—their meeting.
—the gruelling battle between two men in a bear-pit.
—the wolf-dog outlaw, Baree.
—Marge and David's fight when caught in the Nest.
—the strange meeting far from civilization.
—the Grandeur, beauty, thrill and adventure of it all.

Wonderful
This exclamation was the unanimous expression of yesterday's crowds—
"The Courage --OF-- Marge O'Doone"
is a better picture than the "River's End" was what others said.
