Citizenship School is Planned by Board For Aliens of City

A night school of citizenship and English for new Americans will be opened in one of the public schools, Superintendent S. D. Largent announced Tuesday if 12 persons make application. So far there have been only three or four inquiries. Mr. Largent said. The school will be in the junior high or any other school building which may be more convenient to the majority of the persons attending. The school is planned especially for those who are taking out their naturalization papers.

Splash of Hot Metal Burns Smelter Hand

Matt Martinich, former deputy on the force of Sheriff J. P. Burns and now employed at the B. & M. smelter, was severely burned by molten metal Tuesday morning in the smelter's refining department. According to accounts, Mr. Martinich was struck on the chest by a splash of hot metal and received painful burns about the upper part of his body. At the Columbus hospital it was reported that the patient's injuries were not considered extremely serious.

MEETING WILL FIX HEALTH WEEK DATE

Three Great Falls Representatives Are at Conference in Butte Today.

Miss Harriet Carrier of the Red Cross, Dr. Aloysius Dolan of the Cascade county Public Health service, and A. J. Trodick of the Rotary club are the Great Falls representatives at the state public health meeting which is taking place today (Wednesday) at the Placer hotel in Helena.
 All health organizations, commercial and civic organizations in the state were asked to send representatives to this meeting to work out a plan for a state health week in Montana in accordance with the health weeks planned in all parts of the country. The first week in December has been tentatively chosen, but Montana may postpone here.
 The object of this health week will be to bring to the attention of parents the health of the children, the correction of defects and disease prevention.
