Now That It's Here What Are You Doing About It?

During the war—you, we—and the other fellow, all wished a hundred times for "before the war values"—for the prices and costs of the days gone by.

Now that those things have actually happened and reconstruction is here—WHAT are you doing about it?

Are you doing your part and buying at the low prices you are so longed for—or are you letting George do it?

If you are putting it on George's shoulders you are making things worse instead of better in furthering and lightening the load of reconstruction by not buying your daily needs and necessities.

As you expect the other fellow to do his share—so does he expect it of you.

This store is doing it's part. We are going without a dime's worth of profit, and doing it cheerfully, without regret or complaint in an endeavor to assist you to properly play "your part."

So don't be frightened at the low prices quoted by ourselves and other stores—there is a rock bottom to everything—and that bottom is now reached. You'll not get things any cheaper by waiting until February 1st or May 6th, for wholesale costs, govern retail prices, and wholesale prices are not seriously lowered.

Do your part. Come in today and see how well you'll look in a suit or an overcoat on which we or the other merchant does not make one red cent of profit.

$35 to $45 and $55 to $70

Are the figures that commend your respect and action—Today!

DECLINE IN PRICES AND UNEMPLOYMENT FEATURE DECEMBER

Federal Reserve Board Says Member Banks Report Liquidation of Loans.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Further declines in prices coupled with increased unemployment accompanied the country's sustained progress in business readjustment during December, according to the monthly review of general business and financial conditions issued Sunday night by the federal reserve board.

The price declines during the month was placed at 8 1/2 per cent by the board, which added the observation that the decrease in prices was mainly confined to commodities which had shown a decline previously rather than an extension of price cutting to other industries.

Farmers Hit Most. The decline was reported as most marked in agricultural products, textiles, hides, leather and iron and steel products, while coal, petroleum, gasoline, paper, brick and cement remained largely unaffected. Some reductions were reported in the open market in the latter group of commodities, the board said, but contract prices appeared to be at the same level as in earlier months.

Reduced business activity, the board stated, cut operations in many lines from 40 per cent to 75 per cent of normal and brought accompanying unemployment.

Blame Demand Shrinkage. The shrinkage of demand, the board reported, also was responsible for cuts running as high as 25 per cent in some lines.

Banking power, on the other hand, was well maintained, the board asserted. Normal credit accommodation extended to legitimate business, the reserve ratio growing stronger and inter-reserve borrowing in part being liquidated. With liquidation of loans at the member banks beginning the board forecast better conditions.

Grain receipts fell off somewhat in the Minneapolis district. Flour production improved and prices generally declined.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 2.—A 10 to 20 per cent reduction of wages, affecting all classes of employees at the Sparrows Point plant of the Bethlehem Steel Co., was announced Saturday night. The decrease is effective January 16 and is said by company officials to be due to "business conditions and a decrease in prices of steel products." The company employs in normal times 5,000 to 6,000 men, although the working force has been reduced somewhat in the last six weeks.

LANGER TO BEGIN CAMPAIGN AGAINST N. P. L. OFFICIALS

Lynn J. Frazier Embarks on Third Term as Governor of North Dakota.

Bismarck, N. D., Jan. 2.—Chief Justice A. M. Christianson, of the North Dakota supreme court, Monday noon will administer the oath of office to Lynn J. Frazier, who then will begin his third term as governor. The governor is endorsed by the Nonpartisan league and six of the remaining 10 important offices in the state are headed by candidates with league backing.

While the league holds most of the important state offices and will have control of the senate in the state legislature, which convenes Tuesday, the independents claim a majority of from three to six votes in the house.

William Langer, who retired Saturday as attorney general of the state, will begin a speaking tour of North Dakota soon to carry on an active campaign against Nonpartisan league officials, but not against the league itself, and against all "reactionaries," he announced Sunday, in an open letter to members of the legislature.

In his letter Langer says: "A loyal citizen of the state should desire nothing more than an amalgamation between the honest citizens of the Nonpartisan league and honest citizens of the Independents."

Co-Operative Store of Treasury Workers Has Proven Failure

Washington, Jan. 2.—The Co-operative Store established more than a year ago by 6,200 employees of the treasury department to decrease living costs, will not open for business Monday its affairs having been turned over to a committee for liquidation. Failure of the enterprise to receive full cooperation of its members and to compete with local chain stores in the sale of many commodities, particularly canned goods, is given as the reason for the closing.

Approximately 1,700 of the employees who invested $5 each to found the store, withdrew before the liquidation process began, but the remaining 4,500 members are said to have slight prospect of saving their initial investment.

Receiver for Morris Brothers, Inc., Says Excess Liabilities Reduced by $400,000.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 2.—W. D. Whitcomb, temporary receiver for Morris Brothers, Inc., the bond house of Portland, San Francisco, Seattle and Tacoma, which failed to open last Monday, announced Sunday that he had just discovered additional assets of the concern of from $120,000 to $150,000 and that this discovery reduced the excess liabilities of the house thus far to $400,000.

The newly discovered assets, Whitcomb said, consisted of cash in two banks to the credit of Morris Brothers, Inc., which were holding the money to safeguard loans which they had made to the bondhouse, but which were also secured by collateral. The banks agreed today, Whitcomb said, to turn over the cash as soon as legal formalities could be perfected.

ALL WESTERN OIL UNDER CONTROL OF STANDARD, CHARGE

Federal Trade Board Says Company Has Monopoly in Inter-mountain West.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The Standard Oil company, through long time contracts, has a monopoly in the production, transportation and marketing of petroleum and petroleum products throughout the entire Rocky mountain section, declares a report sent to congress by the federal trade commission and made public Sunday by the commission.

Complaint of unsatisfactory conditions resulted in an inquiry into the petroleum situation in the Salt Creek, Wyoming, field the report says, and the investigation later was broadened to include the entire region.

"There is greater concentration in the control of the production of crude petroleum in the Wyoming oil fields than in any other field in the United States," says the report, which adds that the only other crude oil production in the states is comparatively small production in Colorado.

Taking up the refining situation, the report says the Midwest Refining company, the Utah Refining company, and other Standard Oil refineries own and operate 90 per cent of the refining capacities operating on crude Wyoming petroleum. In respect to marketing, the report asserts that Standard Oil marketing companies bought 90 per cent of the refined petroleum products of Wyoming in 1919.
