

HAY IS FETED

Guest of Honor at Ball in New York City
 New York, Jan. 17.—Secretary of State John Hay was the guest of honor tonight at the seventeenth annual dinner of the Ohio society given in the grand ball room of the Waldorf. The banquet to which the title "Diplomatic" was given was in recognition of the presence of representatives of all the great powers and was most brilliant.
 Additional interest was given by the presence of the ladies of several embassies, and the wives of numerous distinguished officials of the national and state government who filled the boxes of the ball room.
