BRIEF CITY NEWS

At the Copper Queen.
The following arrivals have registered at the Copper Queen Hotel yesterday:

Chain Gang Addition.
Two Mexicans were before his honor, Justice McDonald, yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly. No sufficient excuse could they make for being inebriated the night previously. They were given nine days in the chain gang under enforced sobriety.

A Slight Accident.
A slight accident occurred to Alex Jacobson in the mine yesterday morning. In lifting a heavy rock into a hole above his head the rock fell back, striking him in the forearm and making a cut about two inches in length. Dr. Dysart dressed the injury.

Scanlon to Be Tried.
Tom Scanlon will have his preliminary trial at 2 o'clock today in Justice Brown's court. He has been charged with stealing a sum of money from Pete O'Brien, who claims to have placed $500 in Scanlon's keeping, who in turn appropriated over $300.

Democratic Convention.
The place of holding the Democratic convention has not yet been decided, but arrangements are being made, and probably the Tammany Hall will be secured. The convention will be held Monday night.

Billy Swan Arrested.
Constable Casad arrested Billy Swan, a bartender at Azurite, yesterday upon a complaint sworn to by M. Darlington, who charges Swan with assaulting him on Main street. The prosecution for the assault could not be learned but it is stated that Swan appeared before Justice McDonald and plead not guilty to the charge, and his trial was set for today at 3 o'clock.

Discharged from Custody.
Frank Smith was tried yesterday morning in Justice McDonald's court for an assault on Maquilla Queros, a denizen of Chihuahua hill. The evidence brought out the fact that Smith, who is a gentleman of color, had done nothing more than to eject the senorita from a restaurant on O. K. street. He was discharged from custody.

Injured at the Smelter.
Oscar Anderson met with a painful accident at the smelter yesterday morning by being struck on the head. He received a severe scalp wound, which was dressed by Dr. Dysart, three stitches being necessary to close the wound. The cut was a couple of inches long.

New Law Firm.
Mr. Ross, an attorney from Jerome, who has lately arrived in Bisbee, has associated himself with Attorney Neal in law practice. The firm will occupy a suite of rooms in the new Schmidt building, in Brewery Gulch. Mr. Ross has been in Arizona for over eighteen years, and is thoroughly familiar with the jurisprudence of the Territory.

A Good Strike.
A new find is reported in the Easter Sunday mine below town. Geo. Hanger has on exhibition a piece of gold ore taken from the new workings in the main shaft. Free gold can be plainly seen, and with the use of a glass innumerable flakes are brought to view. The Easter Sunday people are evidently near the ore chute for which they are sinking.

Visiting in Tombstone.
Mrs. G. J. McCabe will return to Tombstone this morning, and will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilcox. Mrs. McCabe's health has not been good for the past several months, and she seeks a rest from her duties in the local post office, with the hope that her health will be benefited. Two new assistants have been placed in the post office.

Ready for Business.
Drs. Baum and Godfrey are domiciled in their new quarters, and are now ready to receive their friends. They have furnished attractive apartments in the building formerly occupied by Clark's Assay office above the Presbyterian church. Their high professional ability insures them a lucrative practice.

"Shamus O'Brien" Scores a Success

COMPANY PREVAILED UPON TO GIVE THREE MORE PERFORMANCES.

The Erwin Blunkall company appeared at the Bisbee Opera House last evening for the first time, and made an instant hit. This is without a doubt the best dramatic stock company that has ever appeared in this city every member being a thorough artist. The play was the great Irish comedy, "Shamus O'Brien," and the humorous situations kept the audience in a roar of laughter. The leading roles were in the hands of Lillian Atwood, one of the best known stock actresses in the country, and who was the original "Sappho" in the first company to tour in that piece; and of Erwin Blunkall, who was for two seasons leading man for Julia Marlowe. Both are artists of an ability rarely found in a stock company.

So great was the success of this company last evening, that Managers Masahan and Cook have prevailed on Mr. Blunkall to cancel his other dates for this week and give the people the pleasure of three more performances by this excellent company.

Tonight's bill will be the modernized comedy, "David Garrick," with the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" as a prologue. Friday night Dumas' masterpiece, "Camille," will be produced by special request, with Lillian Atwood in the title role.

There will be no performance Saturday, but the engagement will close with the sensational melodrama, "Capt. Impudence." No one should miss this opportunity to see these great plays.

Two Small Fires Call Out Firemen

BLAZE AT LITTLE CASINO SALOON AND ANOTHER AT THE BLAIR HOUSE.

What came near resulting in a serious conflagration was happily avoided yesterday morning on Main street, when Ed Prentz hurled a blazing gasoline stove into the alley between the Little Casino Saloon and the Opera Cafe.

The fire started in a room above the Little Casino saloon, and had it obtained headway Main street would have been in ashes. No damage was done by the blaze.

At six o'clock last evening the ringing of the fire bell again called the fire laddies, this time to respond to a blaze in the Blair House. Their services were not needed, as the fire was soon extinguished.

The fire started in the stove pipe from the kitchen, and burned only the soot inside the pipe. At one time the blaze was quite serious, but a couple of buckets of water poured down the pipe from the roof quickly put the fire out.

A large crowd soon gathered at the fire, and for a time there was great consternation among the inmates of the house in their endeavor to get their effects together.

Offender From Don Luis.

Ruben Gray was fined $15 in Justice Brown's court yesterday for disturbing the peace and quiet of Don Luis on the day previous. When arrested by Deputy Sheriff Paine, Ruben was drunk and wanted to fight everyone with whom he came in contact. To relieve him from the anxiety the officer put him in jail. When brought before Justice Brown the offender plead guilty, and offered the excuse that he was too drunk to know what he was doing.

Cananea Quiet.

C. W. Davis, manager of the Club Cafe and company boarding house at Cananea, was in Bisbee yesterday. Mr. Davis states that Cananea is somewhat quiet at present, and quite a force of miners have been let out lately. W. C. Greene is expected in Cananea on the fifth of the present month, and it can then confidently be expected that Cananea will take on the old time appearance.

There are 107,848 dressmakers employed by firms in London. The highest wages obtainable, except in the case of about a dozen heads of departments, are eighteen shillings a week.

Goldsmith's house in Wine Office court, London, has been labeled by the authorities as a 'dangerous structure.'

Shoes Without Shams.

"What's the use of running the vamp clear to the end of the toe, when the tip covers it up? No one will know the difference," says a manufacturer.

"Let me put cheaper insoles in the shoes instead of leather, the people will never know it," says another.

Well, wouldn't that be foolish? yet it is done in nearly every store. Cutting off the vamps is a sham. A sole with leather on the top, what you see, and canvas underneath, what you don't see, is a sham—a makeshift.

And we are selling shoes, not shams. Our shoes must be what they appear on the face—no better no worse. People don't want to buy a pig in a poke, nor a prize package, they want what they pay for—

The best shoes their money will buy.

The Walk-Over, $3.50.

Is for men who have $3.50 to put in their shoes. It not only equals any $3.50 shoe made, but equals any $4 shoe.

The Walk-Over $4.00

For Men

is the $5 shoe in most stores, and comes in all kinds of leather made.

The F.B. & N. Reliable $3

FOR MEN

is equal to the average $5.50 shoes—in many ways better. Why do we put our name on these so conspicuously? Because they stand for the purpose of the store to sell goods that are just a little bit better than any one else sells.

Among the New Dress Goods.

[Main Floor.]

Are some of the daintiest little Dresden designs imaginable—buds and vines and tiny blossoms on creamy white grounds.

Others come with Persian and Dresden designs on champagne grounds, and besides the pretty polka-dotted things there are very odd, unusual designs—one with little snatches of bright plaid set in diamond effect. We are selling them already for spring frocks, light house gowns and shirt waists. 50 and 65 cents yard.

TODAY

we place on sale a new lot of fine 50c mercerized vestings; we hurried them out of their wrappings Saturday night, and piled them high on a counter under strong light where women can see how bright and beautiful they are. All white grounds with little white figures holding a woven-speck of color. If washed carefully none of these colors will run. We tried them first ourselves.

The right weight for Women's Shirt Waists.

Other new white goods in very choice and confided styles at prices ranging from 15c to 25c yard suitable for children's frocks and women's waists will be placed on sale tomorrow.

New Stylisih Walking Skirts.

The bug bear of the tailor used to be the walking skirts. Fine tailors failed at it, yet walking skirts most of all, need clever heads to cut and plan and tailor them. So we specialized on this part of the work. We've tailored whose chief study is walking-skirt styles. An art in itself. The least expensive skirt in the lot shares it and the new ones are charming.

$6.50

Stylish plaid Walking Skirts, in gray and colors, hairlines in blue and black, graduated designs form across hips and back; good flare a foot.

$10.00

Five fine styles at this price, in chevot, mixed tweed and worsted some are trimmed with stitched pointed yokes; others are trimmed with straps and bands of self-material and buttons.
