VOL. VII BISBEE, ARIZONA, SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 3, 1905. NO. 323

VIEW OF THE CZAR ON WAR

As Indicated by His Ambassador in Conference With Roosevelt Holds Small Promise for Peace Negotiations at This Time

WANT NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.
St. Petersburg, June 2.—The Russian press this morning is still advocating, even more vigorously than ever, the summoning of a national assembly for the purpose of considering the present duty of Russia as to the ending or the continuance of the conflict with Japan.
Even the reactionary Soviet is joining in the general chorus.
In view of current rumors it is most significant that the papers which are more or less in the confidence of the government unanimously take the position that the representatives of people should decide the question of peace or war.
CONSULTING ROOSEVELT.
Washington, June 2.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador to the United States, has made an appointment with President Roosevelt for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.
It is understood that they will discuss the entire eastern situation in the light of recent developments.
JEMTCHUG WAS SUNK.
A Tokio dispatch says: Admiral Shimamura, on board cruiser Lwate, reports that "during the battle of May 27th at 3:07 p. m. the cruiser Lwate vigorously attacked the protected cruiser Jemtchug at a distance of 3,000 meters. The Jemtchug sank in one minute." The loss of the Jemtchug is therefore confirmed.
Tokio, June 2.—Admiral Togo, telegraphing yesterday, says: "The ships sent northward to search for Russian ships returned yesterday. The cruisers Lwate and Yakumo and other vessels sent southward returned today. Neither of these expeditions discovered any Russian vessels."

Washington, June 2.—In a conference at the White House this afternoon with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, the President expressed the honest wish that Russia would forthwith conclude peace with Japan. Prolonging of the war, he said, he did not believe would result in victory for the Russian arms, and could only serve to increase Japan's demands and render more difficult the drafting of a treaty of peace which the Czar as well as the Mikado could sign.
The President spoke, he said, as the friend of Russia no less than of Japan, and on behalf, not of the Washington government, but in the interests of all humanity. Until his words have reached Tsarskoe Selo and have been communicated to Emperor Nicholas in the friendly spirit in which they were uttered, the effect can not be estimated.
The Ambassador was deeply touched by the sincere cordiality of his reception and the frank and friendly manner in which the President spoke. He could not see, however, that there was anything in the present situation, unfortunate as it undoubtedly was for his government, which necessitated Russia's suing for peace. As to territorial losses, he pointed out that China, and not Russia, had been the loser, for even Port Arthur was held only under lease. On the seas Russia had nothing more to lose, he said.
It was the ambassador's firm opinion that this was not the psychological moment in which to discuss peace with Japan.
Whatever might be the ultimate decision of his government he took the ground that Russia could lose nothing either by waiting or by continuing the war on land. There was hope yet of victory for the Russian arms, and, in any event, Russia had not yet lost one foot of territory, nor was the Russian frontier endangered.

The ambassador pointed out that there was not the slightest official intimation from any source as to Japan's probable terms, and that demands as stated unofficially, were altogether impossible. If Japan's terms should prove anything like as severe as they have been reported, it was the ambassador's opinion that Russia could advantageously continue the war indefinitely and eventually win victory on land.
St. Petersburg, June 2.—Feeling in the admiralty against Rear Admiral Nebogotoff continues to run high, the majority of the naval authorities being deaf to the appeals of a few who insist that the admiral's action in surrendering his warships should not be condemned until the circumstances become fully known.
The majority say they could forgive anything but surrender, and point to the precedent set in the case of the Russian warship Raphael, which in 1829, during the Russo-Turkish war, struck its colors to three Turkish ships which surrounded it.
Nicholas I meted out terrible punishment to the officers and crew of the Raphael, ordering that all of them should be shot after their exchange, and directing that if the ship should be recaptured its infamous history should be blotted out by the total destruction of the vessel.

TROUBLE WITH INDIANS

Because of Tribal Tax Collections in Territory

Muskogee, I. T., June 2.—Practically every white business house in Muskogee, and perhaps throughout the Indian Territory, may be closed by tomorrow for refusal to pay the tribal tax. No tax has been paid for three years pending the decision of the court.
Business houses declare they will not pay the tax, and the Indian police say they will nail up the doors of all but National banks or business houses owned by Indians.
The situation is the result of recent decision by the courts that the tribal tax might legally be fixed and collected by the various tribes upon whose grounds settlers might come to engage in business or industrial pursuits.
FIRST NATIONAL OF LANSYMSMITH DECIDE TO CLOSE DOORS
Washington, June 2.—The president of the First National bank of Lansysmith, Wisconsin, has advised the comptroller of the currency that the directors of the bank have voted unanimously to close its doors temporarily.
Resources and liabilities of the bank at the last report were $82,000, with deposits of $92,600.
COSSACKS STONED.
Lodz, June 2.—There was a renewal of rioting here today. A crowd of people stoned a detachment of Cossacks and the latter fired on the crowd killing two persons and wounding several others.
WEALTHY MAN DEAD.
South Boro, Mass., June 2.—Montgomery Sears, the wealthiest taxpayer in the city of Boston and one of the wealthiest men in New England, died at his summer home here today, aged 51. He was well known in Philadelphia.

RIO GRANDE IS RISING

The Flood Situation Steadily Growing Worse

El Paso, Tex., June 2.—The Rio Grande flood situation grows worse each day. The water is several feet higher north of here, and several hundred yards of the Santa Fe railroad track have washed out between here and Albuquerque.
Trains are being diverted over the Southern Pacific from here to Deming, N. M. The town of Lamesa is several feet deep in water, but no lives have yet been lost. All the people of the town had a chance to escape. The town of Anthony was completely washed away, but no lives lost.
The river now threatens to change its course five miles below El Paso, and further great damage may result.

WARSHIPS ARE SEEN

THREE ARE HEADED FOR GULF OF LINGAYEN, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Manila, June 2.—Three warships were sighted at two o'clock and three more at three o'clock this afternoon steaming slowly and headed for the Gulf of Lingayen. The ships are of different types and are painted a lead color.
The gulf of Lingayen is on the west coast of Luzon and about seventy-five miles north of Manila bay.

ENTERPRISE TO BE SOLD.

Col. Wilson Forecloses on Phoenix Newspaper Publication.

Phoenix, June 2.—The Phoenix Enterprise will be offered for sale at public auction June 12, in front of the Enterprise office, on First Avenue. The sale will be conducted by Frank King, special agent of Col. J. F. Wilson, who holds a mortgage for $5000 against the plant, with Mulford Windsor as payor. The mortgage became due April 1, but it is said that neither principal nor interest at any time have been paid.
Some difficulty arose today between Mr. Windsor and Business Manager Arnold, whom Col. Wilson placed in charge of the plant after the mortgage was foreclosed yesterday. Mr. Windsor, it is stated, refused to yield possession today, and performed his usual duties, while Mr. Arnold looked after the business end.
The editor claims that the foreclosure of the mortgage is not legal because no court transaction was had, but it is said that, according to the terms of the document, no such proceeding is necessary. Mr. King, who is a deputy sheriff, is not acting in his official capacity, but was employed by Col. Wilson because he is an experienced newspaper man.

DEMURRER OVERRULED.

Tucson, June 2.—In the case of Albert Steinfeld vs. Ezra Bartlett, the demurrer of the defendant to the plaintiff's complaint was overruled by Judge Campbell. The demurrer was argued some weeks ago at length by Hierford & Hazzard, representing the defendant, and Judge Charles Blenman, representing the plaintiff.

Kibbey Talks on Situation

Tucson, June 2.—Governor Joseph H. Kibbey arrived this morning from Phoenix. He came here to deliver the commencement address at the graduating exercises of the University of Arizona. The governor will return this evening to the Capital City.
"There is a feeling of buoyancy throughout the entire territory," remarked the governor this morning at the Santa Rita. "Everything is coming along in first-class shape, and prosperity is on every side."
The governor is greatly pleased over the Phoenix convention of last Saturday. "It was a unique convention," he said in discussing it. "There was no strife, no rivalry, no oratorical fireworks. Everything was harmonious. All were united for a common good cause. The delegates gathered to transact business, and this they did without any extended oratory or any great hulloaboo. Much good will certainly result from that gathering."
"Governor, do you think the suggestion to petition congress to allow the territory to continue under its present form of government for the next decade a good one?" was asked.
"That is probably the most practical solution," was the governor's reply. "However a petition will be unnecessary. Congress, I think, will be content without a petition to let Arizona alone, if Arizonans will have it that way."
"Of course, if an agitation for statehood is kept up, congress may possibly step in and make Arizona a state, linked up with New Mexico. The representatives of the eastern states look askance at any proposition to disturb the present equilibrium obtaining between the east and the west. They are loath to give the west any more

HUSSON WINS THE MATCH

On Forfeit That Quick Was Compelled to Make by Injury

Chicago, June 2.—Indictments connected with the teamsters' strike have been voted by the grand jury, and will be returned in Judge Barnes' court tomorrow. The names of the men indicted could not be ascertained this afternoon.
It was reported, however, that bills would not be voted in connection with the charge made by President Shea that he was offered $10,000 to call a strike against Sears, Roebuck & Co. It was found that the statutes of limitation barred any indictments. The evidence given was largely of a hearsay character.

IS HURT SERIOUSLY IN

Second Bout of Gymnasium Match Last Night—Challenges Issued

The much talked of match between Husson, of Bisbee, and Quick, of Colorado, took place last evening at the gymnasium. Quick forfeited to Husson because of an injury received during the second bout.
It took Husson 20.19 to secure the first fall, and it is doubtful if he would have fulfilled his promise to throw Quick three times in an hour of actual wrestling. Husson weighed in at 148 and Quick at 130 pounds. Time and time again it looked as though Husson would score, but Quick managed to keep his shoulders from the mat. All holds were to go in the match but cross-collars and thumbs.
After the bout had gone twenty-nine minutes, Jim Hooper, second for Quick, forfeited the second fall to Husson on account of a rupture sustained. After the allowed five minutes were up, Sid Varney, who was referee, announced that Quick was unable to continue, and the match was awarded to Husson. Quick's condition is said to be serious.
The preliminaries were very good and kept the crowd in good humor until the big fellows appeared. The first bout was between Hodge and Lockmiller, Cornish style. Hodge was much heavier than Lockmiller, and threw him without much trouble. He secured the first fall in 2.6, and the second in 2.9.
The next match was between Rasmussen, the champion lightweight of Bisbee, and Roy Reason. Rasmussen was much the heavier. He threw Reason in 2.24. Reason then got in the game, and put Rasmussen's shoulders to the floor after four minutes of exciting wrestling. The last fall was secured by Rasmussen in 37 seconds.
A good sized crowd was present and was greatly disappointed that the contest between Husson and Quick was not finished.
Reason last night announced challenge to any one in Bisbee to wrestle catch-as-can for $25 a side at 118 pounds.
Al Hendrick, the well known wrestler from Las Vegas, also issued a challenge last night to wrestle anyone in Arizona between 150 and 200 pounds, for a side bet of $100.

RESIGNATIONS ARE IN

MAYOR OF PHILADELPHIA IS WINNING BATTLE WITH THE "ORGANIZATION."

Philadelphia, June 2.—The grand jury made report this afternoon of work to date, and then took adjournment until Tuesday next. Ten cases dismissed and two indictments brought were reported. The indictments are against John Upshaw, charged with the murder of a colored girl at Bisbee, and against W. H. Taylor. Two counts are brought against the latter. He is charged with grand larceny, based on the theft of cattle from the ranch of Peter Johnson.
Among the cases ignored was that of Albert Rhodes, of Bisbee, who was charged with forgery. The alleged offense was committed against the Copper Queen store, where Rhodes purchased a bill of goods amounting to $5.55, and signed the name of another man to an order for the amount. It was demonstrated that Rhodes drew the order on the other man because he had a bet with him by the terms of which the winner was to have $5 worth of merchandise at the expense of the other at the store, but it was held that the manner in which Rhodes secured payment of the bet made him a forger. He was therefore sent to the grand jury, with the result of discharge.
The Mexicans named Palomares, who were sent from Bisbee charged with murderous assault upon Rube Reed, a negro of Bisbee, were arraigned in court today and entered a plea of not guilty. The time of their hearing will be set by the court upon opening in the morning.
The court today devoted the balance of its time to the hearing of civil cases. In that of Ezra Coons vs. the C. & A. Mining Co., brought up on demurrer, the demurrer was sustained and Coons will be obliged to file a new complaint. He is suing the company for $25,000 because of injuries sustained in a fall into an open shaft near Lowell which he was on his way home. Dean Lamb he was on Charles Garwood, sent from Wilcox charged with horse stealing, were discharged by the grand jury, because it was found the horse had been stolen in New Mexico. They were immediately taken in charge by Deputy Sheriff McGrath, of Lordsburg, and have agreed to return to New Mexico without extradition papers. While here today McGrath stated that he had received $500 as reward from the Southern Pacific and Wells-Fargo for killing the Gates brothers, hold-up men, in an encounter at Lordsburg several months ago following hold up by the men of a saloon at that town. The men were afterwards positively identified by detectives of the railroad and express company as the Gates brothers, who gave them trouble in California last year.

EQUITABLE AFFAIRS IN

Worse Snarl Than Ever—Frick Resigns

New York, June 2.—Disputed claims of victory by conflicting factions in the Equitable Life Assurance society and an apparent readjustment of the interests marked meetings of the directors of the society held today for the purpose of passing on the report of the committee of seven, of which H. C. Frick is chairman.
The only positive results of the meeting of which official announcements were made, were rejection of report of the Frick committee by a large majority; the resignation of Mr. Frick, Mr. Bliss and Mr. Harrison from the board of directors, and the passage of the following resolutions:
First—That the chairman of the board be cloaked with plenary powers over all departments and affairs of the society.
Second—That a nominating committee consisting of D. O. Mills, John A. Stewart, A. J. Cassatt, Jefferson Coolidge, August Belmont, J. P. Morgan and Robert T. Lincoln be requested to report at a meeting of the board to be called on Wednesday next a candidate for chairman.

WANTS TARIFF REVISED.

Wisconsin Congressman Says Strong Sentiment for Modification Exists.

Milwaukee, June 2.—Congressman E. S. Miller, who was in Milwaukee today, said he felt confident that before the death of the Fifty-ninth Congress something would be done with the tariff. Mr. Miller said there was undoubtedly a strong sentiment in the Middle West and Northwest for revision. While not himself a radical revisionist, Mr. Miller said he knew of several items which should be given attention, shipbuilding for one thing being hampered by the present price of steel.
