TARIFF

President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton in the North American Review gives a scholar's analytical view of the tariff legislation.

He goes to the root of the matter when he says the Republican party is old at the business of tariff making and has established a business constituency.

Those who conduct it extend their clientele from generation to generation, to make sure they have clients enough.

President Wilson goes on to say, "The relation of favor-dispensers and partisans or followers cannot be avoided."

The chief difficulty in the way of tariff reform, and of all reforms, is to compel the gainers by existing conditions to realize their gains are ill-gotten.

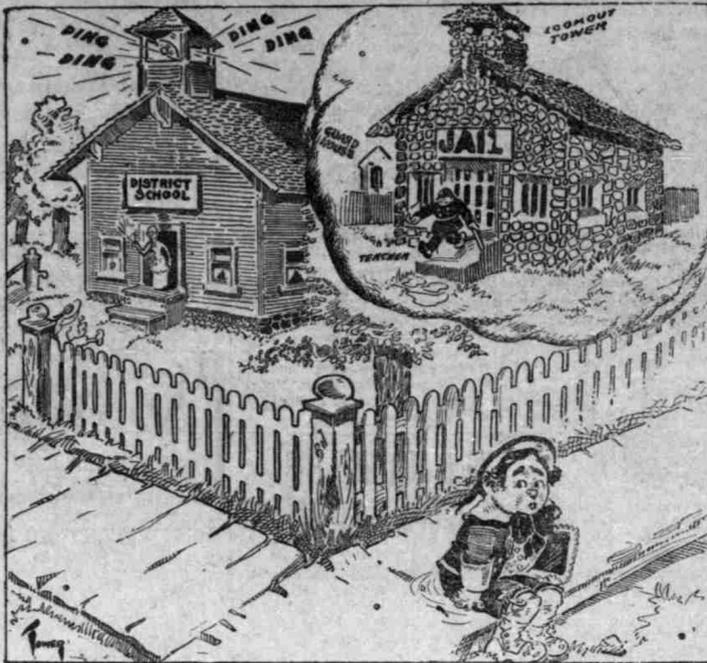

Cotton is selling so high through Dixie nowadays that the farmers are actually contemplating twenty-horse power automobiles.

GET READY FOR BETTER TIMES

While Cochise county has not been entirely unmolested during the last two years of business stagnation and consequent lack of prosperity, still our people and especially those of Bisbee and Douglas have had much to be thankful for because conditions have been no worse.

Work was completed on the new gas plant at Nogales last week and the border city from this time on will enjoy this modern luxury.

of development work in many of the mines which have been idle for a long time, but which give promise of good things in the future.

All authorities on copper seem to agree now that the price of the red metal will not reach a lower price than the one now prevailing and that the outlook is good for better copper prices in the near future.

He goes to the root of the matter when he says the Republican party is old at the business of tariff making and has established a business constituency.

With a good demand for copper there will be hardly any limit to the prosperity in Cochise county.

Miss Canada shows a disposition to nag a little over the question of the North Pole's ownership.

The "good roads" idea is one that will have an accelerated growth, because when one town gets good roads it makes an imperative reason right then why its rival should.

Mountain climbers and explorers looking for more worlds to conquer might start right out with their instruments and observe to what altitude the price of meat is going.

A Chicago man killed his wife and himself rather than work—so he said. Still, it may have been rather than stay in Chicago.

Young Willie K. Vanderbilt appears to be a chip off the old block, as far as affinities are concerned.

France is to have a slow race for aeroplanes. That's an unsportsmanlike way of ruling out America.

If they nag Dr. Cook much more he will go down and snake that old South Pole, too.

New York needn't brag about that celebration. The rest of the country paid for it.

one of the "organization" organs should hurry up and make the announcement that the party selected by Governor Sloan to meet and escort President Taft to Phoenix, "had the approval of Hoval A. Smith."

Caught in Passing

Concerning that trip which Joe Martinell took to Douglas and where he bought a horse and buggy to return to Bisbee because he missed the last train, his friends are telling something about that night ride home that Joe is trying to severely keep in the background.

Joe says he got in at 11 p. m. His friends tell a different tale, something like this:

When Martinell purchased the horse and buggy in Douglas, he wasn't quite convinced that he would be able to "come home in the dark."

Well, they started, but somehow didn't seem to be going right. Finally, they lost the trail altogether, and after nosing about in an attempt to find it, found that they had been traveling in a semicircle and were bringing up in the vicinity of the Mexican border instead of going north.

When Nick Berg, the Finlander charged with carrying concealed weapons, comes up or trial before Justice Murphy of Lowell today, there will be about a score of witnesses sworn to testify against him.

All are Finlanders whom Berg, at the point of a gun, ran out of a Flau boarding house in Upper Lowell with their night clothes on.

Conductor James Moulton was able yesterday for the first time in thirteen months, to return to his duties on the E. P. & S. W. He has been confined to the hospital as the result of a nervous breakdown.

Moulton, who is well known on the line as a genial, jolly knight of the rails, will have charge of trains 3 and 4, and his many friends will be glad to see him back in uniform once more.

WORLD SERIES IS ATTRACTING INTEREST

The world's series of games have been creating a stir that one would not think possible in Bisbee, so far away from the seat of war.

When the result of the sixth game became known yesterday afternoon, there was loud cheering at baseball headquarters by members of the team and those pulling for the American League champions, and all are confident "Wild Bill" Donovan, who will undoubtedly be sent to the mound today, can win a world's championship just as easily as he won the pennant last year by shutting out the Chicago Sox with two hits in the last and deciding game of the year.

Wednesday a number of Pittsburgh supporters and backers cleaned up a neat bunch of coin. E. G. Strickler was there, extremely jubilant Wednesday night.

YALE MEN GO TO EL PASO TODAY

So far as is known, Drs. Bridge and Cutler, of the Copper Queen medical staff, will be the only Yale men who will go from Bisbee to El Paso to participate in the reception which will be given President Taft by the Yale alumnae of the Southwest.

Several are going from Douglas and a number from Sonora will also make the trip. A number of Bisbee men who are Yale graduates and who contemplated being present, have found that on account of the press of business they will be unable to get away.

However, outside of the Yale alumnae, Bisbee will be well represented, more so than was at first thought. Large numbers of reservations were made yesterday, and more are expected to be made today.

PROMINENT OFFICIALS WILL GREET DIAZ

To be present as representatives of Sonora's leading city, Presidente E. R. Arnold, Dr. Barosso, Judge Carrillo and Pablo Rubio, the latter Comissario of Cananea, passed through Bisbee last evening en route for El Paso.

They will compose part of the official party which will greet President Diaz on his arrival in Ciudad Juarez tomorrow and will play a more or less prominent part in the festivities attendant upon the meeting of the presidents of the two greatest republics in the world.
