

WRAPS AND CHAPEAUX

that come from PARISIAN ATELIERS

A Shoulder Cape Effect is Described with Metallic Braiding

JANE

These Trimmings have Black Velvet Facings

Caught in at the Feet to Give the Fashionable Straight Silhouette

Parisienne like the Black Trimmings

Small Close-Fitting Effects: The Dernier Cri

Simple Designs are for the Debutante

Light Weight Fabrics for Evening Wraps - Shawls of India Cashmere Sacrificed to the Demands of Fashion - Fed Hats to Have Great Vogue - Ultra-Smart Dressers Favor the Big Black Chapeau.

WHEN one knows that one is in the hands of the Parisian atelier, one can be sure of getting the very latest and best of the new fashions. It is not only the matter of Paris, who are taking the lead in the fashion world, but the fact that the Parisian atelier is the only one that can give you the very latest and best of the new fashions. It is not only the matter of Paris, who are taking the lead in the fashion world, but the fact that the Parisian atelier is the only one that can give you the very latest and best of the new fashions.

Causes Evolved From Shawls. The shawl is a garment that has been worn for centuries. It is a garment that is both useful and beautiful. It is a garment that is both useful and beautiful. It is a garment that is both useful and beautiful.

The Chignon Cloud. The chignon cloud is a new fashion that has been introduced by the Parisian atelier. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful.

Brilliant Tones are Preferred. The Parisian atelier has introduced a new fashion that is both useful and beautiful. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful.

A Bewildering Variety of Shapes. The Parisian atelier has introduced a new fashion that is both useful and beautiful. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful.

from Paris, as between the date of her wedding and the date of her wedding. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful. It is a fashion that is both useful and beautiful.

delicious refreshments of maple cream, fruit punch and cake were served by Mrs. John Treu whose well known hospitality always induces guests at her home full measure of cordial enjoyment.

The guests present were, Mesdames, Graf, Edmondson, Mosher, Robinson, Best, Sholes, Hogue, Ormond (Douglas), Misses Anna and Mable Bowden, Myrtle Arbun, Louis Boyd, Marjorie Hogue, Jeanette Sholes, Dorothy Graf, Anne Wallace, Maud Johnson, Florence and Barbara Watkins, Addie Wittig, Leonore Allen, Aitha Seald, Lucy Carroto, Helen Addison, Roberta Sinclair, Anna Robinson, Messrs. Leonard Tomby, Sydney Gordon, Chas. Edmondson, Cyril Goudage, Roland Graf and Max Mosher.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

The decorative scheme was in yellow and white and consisted of delicately cut paper in yellow festoons—strikingly pretty! Tiny yellow chicks as favors and the centerpiece, a golden chariot made from the shell of a grape fruit, with small yellow chickens riding therein, and drawn by little Easter rabbits. Needless to say, the guests were most wonderfully impressed with the grace and charm of the young hostesses and have on the highest praise for their skill in the preparation and serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

The decorative scheme was in yellow and white and consisted of delicately cut paper in yellow festoons—strikingly pretty! Tiny yellow chicks as favors and the centerpiece, a golden chariot made from the shell of a grape fruit, with small yellow chickens riding therein, and drawn by little Easter rabbits. Needless to say, the guests were most wonderfully impressed with the grace and charm of the young hostesses and have on the highest praise for their skill in the preparation and serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

The decorative scheme was in yellow and white and consisted of delicately cut paper in yellow festoons—strikingly pretty! Tiny yellow chicks as favors and the centerpiece, a golden chariot made from the shell of a grape fruit, with small yellow chickens riding therein, and drawn by little Easter rabbits. Needless to say, the guests were most wonderfully impressed with the grace and charm of the young hostesses and have on the highest praise for their skill in the preparation and serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

The decorative scheme was in yellow and white and consisted of delicately cut paper in yellow festoons—strikingly pretty! Tiny yellow chicks as favors and the centerpiece, a golden chariot made from the shell of a grape fruit, with small yellow chickens riding therein, and drawn by little Easter rabbits. Needless to say, the guests were most wonderfully impressed with the grace and charm of the young hostesses and have on the highest praise for their skill in the preparation and serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

The decorative scheme was in yellow and white and consisted of delicately cut paper in yellow festoons—strikingly pretty! Tiny yellow chicks as favors and the centerpiece, a golden chariot made from the shell of a grape fruit, with small yellow chickens riding therein, and drawn by little Easter rabbits. Needless to say, the guests were most wonderfully impressed with the grace and charm of the young hostesses and have on the highest praise for their skill in the preparation and serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

The decorative scheme was in yellow and white and consisted of delicately cut paper in yellow festoons—strikingly pretty! Tiny yellow chicks as favors and the centerpiece, a golden chariot made from the shell of a grape fruit, with small yellow chickens riding therein, and drawn by little Easter rabbits. Needless to say, the guests were most wonderfully impressed with the grace and charm of the young hostesses and have on the highest praise for their skill in the preparation and serving of a luncheon.

Mrs. Geo. E. Krimbill of Alta Vista No. 1 had as her Easter week-end guests Mrs. J. R. Ormond and daughter, Kathryn, of Douglas.

The Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Asa T. Hoy, No. 68 Castle Hill, on Monday, April 4 at 4 p. m. All ladies interested in the historical events of '61-'65 are cordially invited to attend.

Yellow and White Luncheon. The girls in section 3 of the cooking class covered themselves with glory Tuesday afternoon when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Philbrook, the members of the school board and their wives at an unusually delightful luncheon. Delightful in that the girls themselves did all the entertaining; delightful in that the menu was a most excellent one; and further delightful in that the decorations were especially clever. For although the girls are young and in the ninth grade they themselves did all the planning and all the decorating of this, their first luncheon. The menu was as follows: Cream corn soup, Chicken pie, Creamed asparagus, Riced and butter sandwiches, Olives, Potato salad, nuts, cheese wafers, Snow pudding, Gold cake, Coffee.

They would rather preach and sing the gospel than to eat. These Kentucky spirits are finding a cordial welcome in Bisbee and who knows but under their splendid evangelistic leadership a genuine old-fashioned, up-to-date revival might break out in Bisbee. While the Smiths are here the gospel in song and sermon may be heard each evening at the Christian church on school hill.

Church of Christ. (Opposite Central School). 9:45 a. m. Bible school, K. H. Accord, superintendent. All men take a change day off and try the Bible school. Classes for men, women and children. The Baraca class especially invites men. 11 a. m., Sam Inman Smith and his brother Powell A. Smith will conduct the services. It is the formal beginning of what we pray and sincerely hope will be a great evangelistic meeting in Bisbee. Nightly services will be held from now on to the close and all the friends and enemies of Christ are cordially invited to attend every service. Inman Smith will preach and Powell Smith will sing the gospel message at all the services. Men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 3 p. m. Plaza meeting at 6:30 p. m. 7:45 p. m., evening revival services. The Smith brothers have many friends among the Kentucky contingent of the camp. Ask any Kentuckian about Smith and see how enthusiastic he becomes. We welcome men whose acquaintances speak well of them. W. E. SPICER, Minister.

Very Unusual. "He's a queer chap. Rich now, but often talks about the days when he was poor." "And says he was happier then eh?" "No; there's where his oddity comes in. He says he's happier now."

The "C. U. C." High School girl's club met at the Y. W. C. A. club room Wednesday evening and elected the following officers: Miss Emily Wilson—President, Miss Dorothy Rundel—Vice President, Miss Catherine Hoy—Secretary, Miss Addie Wittig—Treasurer.

SOCIETY

The Macabees entertained at what at the home of Mrs. J. A. Verzarth. The unusual feature of the party was the abundance of men—men—men!

The decorations were pretty pink carnations and white cherry blossoms. The refreshments were less and dainty pink cakes.

Mr. Fenring was the fortunate winner of the gentlemen's first prize, a silver ink stand. While Mr. Barrows consoled himself with a pipe, Mrs. Sellars won the ladies' first prize, a gold collar-rose, and Miss Finnegan captured the ladies' consolation of Buster Brown playing cards.

A thoroughly enjoyable party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hood on Wednesday evening. Cards were the entertainment, at which game, Mrs. Patterson won the ladies' first prize of a handsome hand-painted vase. Mr. Buckwalter carried away the gentlemen's honors. The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Buckwalter, and Dr. and Mrs. Biedsoe, Messdames, Pope and Moore, Messers, Brewster and Frank Biedsoe.

Miss Lennert was guest of honor at a dinner party, Thursday night at the New English Kitchen, when the Post Office girls chose this way of showing their appreciation before Miss Lennert left for the East. The fifteen guests sat down at one long table, enjoying a most delicious dinner, and then betook themselves to the Orpheum, where they made up a very merry theatre party.

Tuesday evening the Young Women's Christian Association gave a reception in honor of Miss Christine Hiestreet, the charming Los Angeles girl who comes to assist Miss Jones in the association work.

The pretty home was decorated with lilacs and roses from the yard of the Y. W. C. A. while the recreation room was aglow with ray lights, Indian baskets and Navajo rugs. The guests were entertained with

The O. K. Theater

NEW PICTURES TONIGHT and MATINEE TODAY.