Phedoco Corsets

A Splendid Foundation for the New Spring Gown

The woman is perhaps thinking of the new spring gown but should bear in mind at the same time that the corset being the foundation over which the gown must fit, should be of the latest style suitable for the new spring styles.

We can especially recommend the Phedoco corset as embodying all of those characteristics which the new corset should have. First of all, a woman thinks of her health and comfort, and then of style. The corset must be flexible without looseness; sustaining without rigidity, moulding without compressing; and above all, that it be so natural as to be scarcely perceptible under ones gown. All of these requirements are met in this splendid corset; to be had in different models for all figures at from $1.25 to $4.00.
