MANY CONGRESSMEN SAW THE FERTILE EVERGLADES

Met by the Lauderdale Board of Trade and Cordially Received by People—Visitors Enthusiastic Over the Vision of Wealth Growing on Rich Drained Lands FROM MIAMI METROPOLIS, JAN 26, 1912

In spite of the Honorable Frank Clark, congressman from this district, the congressmen who visited this section yesterday went into the Everglades, six miles upon miles of vegetables growing in drained fields, met happy and contented people, and went away praising the great reclamation project as one of the wonders of the age.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning the congressional party left Miami for Fort Lauderdale. Arriving there, they were greeted by practically all the people most enthusiastically, with a band, and boats were provided to take them up to the Everglades.

The party went to the experimental farm, about seven miles up, and visited and inspected the prosperous farms along the canal, meeting the growers and seeing an actual demonstration of what can be accomplished through drainage. The congressmen expressed themselves as amazed by the stupendous and successful project, and said they could hardly believe their eyes. They expressed themselves freely along these lines.

But Congressman Clark and about ten of the party, in one boat, did not reach the Everglades. They only went among the swamps, and only a portion of the trip. Mr. Clark, it seems, had an engagement for dinner at the Fladler mansion at Palm Beach at 4 p.m., and was afraid he would miss it. Accordingly, his boat turned back before reaching the Everglades, and he made attempts to get the others back without completing the journey.

While the Clark party were cranking back to Fort Lauderdale, however, the balance of the party continued up the canal and saw the real conditions in the Everglades, leaving the swamps for the inspection of the congressman from this district, who has never yet seen the Everglades.

ARRESTS MADE IN

identity of the men charged with being accomplices of the McNamaras and Orrie McManigal in dynamite plots embracing almost a hundred explosions which began in Massachusetts in 1905 and scattered over the country for six years which also resulted in the wrecking of the Los Angeles Times building and an attempt to blow up President Taft's special train near Santa Barbara, California last October. Fourteen of these indictments require $10,000 bond and forty $5,000 bond making the aggregate bond required, $340,000.

Proclaim Their Innocence
Some of those who the government was unable to find today are reported to have disappeared through fear of inability to furnish a bond. It is intimated the Iron Workers' association will be unable to furnish bonds for all of its indicted members. Ernest G. W. Hasey, former business agent at Indianapolis of the Iron Workers union and Edward Clark former agent of the Cincinnati union who were brought here after their arrest in Cincinnati were unable to obtain bail and taken to jail. When Clark appealed to Secretary Hockin for aid, Hockin advised him the international could do nothing for him and advised him to look to the local union. Hockin said it would be impossible for the international to take on the burden of supplying bail for the many men arrested.

Immediately upon the arrest of Ryan he addressed a statement to the union men of the country calling upon them to believe in his innocence and the innocence of his codefendants.

United States Miller intimated tonight that the grand jury may be reconvened after arraignment. He said all the implicated were not sought just at the beginning.

The indictment on which all of the men were arrested was made public tonight. It charges all fifty-four with conspiracy to violate the statutes forbidding the carrying of explosives on passenger trains, details 47 transportation charges as overt acts and names McManigal, the McNamaras and Hockin in each act but does not specify the part taken by the other defendants. All of the defendants are named in each of the 32 indictments according to Miller sentences may be imposed for each of the offenses. It is the contention of the government that each of the defendants entered fully in each of the conspiracy cases although his active participation may have been one of transportation only.

There are 14 indictments charging unconsummated acts of conspiracy. Another of 24 counts charges all the defendants with being principals in the transportation of nitro-glycerine.

Brief Local Items

A Valentine State Baby.
Yesterday morning shortly after the admission of Arizona into the union a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Phillips, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts of Higgins Hill. The baby is the first child in Bisbee after the state's admission to the union and its recurring anniversary or birthday will have a double

NEW OFFICERS AT TOMBSTONE

Oath Taken by All Except Two and Two Appointments Only Are Made

MACLAY IS CLERK

TOMBSTONE, Feb. 14 (Special)—This old and historic city was crowned today, the new and the old, the incoming and departing being in the county seat, besides many appointments for the various appointments that are at the disposal of the incoming officials. The old board of supervisors held their final meeting and the new board held its first meeting and it was here that the only appointments announced during the day were made. R. S. McClay of Douglas was selected as clerk of the board and A. C. Karger of Lowell was made deputy. Thus although Douglas had no member on the board, the smelter city is represented in that body by the clerk.

It was late before any of the new county officials took their oaths of office, the reason not being readily explained. It came train time and some of the visitors departed. Recorder-elect Owen Murphy had business which required his presence in Lowell and returned home without assuming office today, he and Ed. Hughes the assessor being the only two of the officials who did not take their oaths this afternoon.

It is expected that a number of appointments will be announced tomorrow. Interest attaches in several instances to these appointments, especially to court interpreter but last night Judge Sutter stated that he had made no appointments today.

Country Club Dance.

The Warren district country club will give a dance this evening at the club house, signaling the completion of the improvements in the club building. Each member of the club is privileged to invite a friend. The music will be by Brennan's orchestra. Cars will leave Bisbee for the club house at 8 and 8:30 this evening.

True Simplicity.

For Jeffersonian simplicity Bisbee in celebrating was not to be outdone by Phoenix. True Governor Haul walked to his inauguration at the capital city but then in Bisbee Will Solomon rode a burro and rode it almost into the Copper Queen Hotel.

Firemen's Ball.

The volunteer firemen's association gave its annual ball last night. The details of the affair were arranged by a special committee that made an effort to make this ball on the eve of statehood, the superior of all predecessors, and the verdict of all those who were the guests of the firemen say that they succeeded.

Virginian Pleases Well.

The largest audience of the local theatrical season was in attendance at the Orpheum last night to see the Virginian which proved to be an affair truly worthy of the reputation that it received. The play which is well known as it has been on the boards for several seasons was unusually well staged and acted, all of the members of the cast being exceptionally good in their parts.

Flags Displayed.

Flags were displayed from every flag pole in the city yesterday. From a certain point down town several large national banners could be seen flying in the wind. All of the street cars carried small banners as did the delivery wagons and transfer wagons. In Henkel's show window was a large red star on a large American flag and other show windows were decorated with flags and bunting on a scale little less ornate and extensive than on the last July 4.

"The Valentine State."
While newspapers have been conducting contests to decide upon a name for the state of Arizona, conditions have hit upon a name that will probably stick. In the ordinary course of events the proclamation was issued on Valentine Day and Arizona will be known as the Valentine state. The new state was so referred to by J. E. Morrison in his speech to the school children yesterday afternoon, hundreds of post cards bearing the inscription, "The Valentine State admitted to the union on February, 14 The last but not the least," were distributed by the Review and there were many mailed to every corner of the United States.

The Douglas Daily International is for sale at Bell & Bledsoe's Drug Store and at Coughran's Cigar stand on Brewery Gulch.
