TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR PIRATES MAKE THEM MODEL BASEBALL TEAM

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—(Special) Manager Fred Clarke, of the Pirates, is a great stickler for form, and insists that his men lead very model lives, at least during training season. He has just issued a table of ten commandments for the team which are all "Don'ts." Here they are:

- 1—Don't smoke cigarettes. If you must use tobacco select a good Pittsburgh stogie or a pipe.
- 2—Don't drink. Alcoholic stimulants used in moderation may do little harm; they can do no good, and they are dangerous. Better be a teetotaler.
- 3—Don't keep late hours. "Early to bed and early to rise" is still a good maxim.
- 4—Don't gamble. Worrying about an ace-fall that was beaten last night or wondering how the horses are running while play is in progress are alike distracting.
- 5—Don't be a grouch. Cheerfulness is a very desirable quality in any of enthusiasm so far as the public is concerned.

It is with the San Francisco journey that this article has mainly to do. So far, in the line of elimination bouts, we have had Frank Klaus and Sailer Petrovsky; Klaus and Jack Dillon.

Klaus came to us heralded as the most promising middleweight in sight, with the possible exception of Eddie McGoorty, and he has proven a good deal of a disappointment. In his first encounter he was not equal to the task of stopping the fellow who wears a blue jacket's uniform between his matches and who knows more about the dog watch than he does about the technique of fighting. In the next affair he gained the decision through superior condition, but apart from his tendencies toward perpetual motion, uncovered nothing to leave a lasting impression in the minds of those who watched him work.

It is said now that there is some hitch over the bringing together of Klaus and McGoorty. They may box later in the year, but if the bout falls through all together, so far as San Francisco is concerned, no disappointment will be felt around here.

The local fight followers know nothing about McGoorty, but if he is merely a rival of Klaus—and the term rival carries the usual suggestion of something approaching equality—it is felt that McGoorty can be no great shakes.

California patrons of boxing feel rather glum over the outlook of the middleweights. With a cessation of activity among the lightweights, with the featherweight problem nearly worked out, and with the heavyweights situation all heads and tails on account of the malign influence of one Jack Johnson, it was felt that the middles could keep the ball rolling and supply good entertainment. But judging from what has happened so far, the middleweights are a poor lot.

"What would Stanley Ketchel have done to your Dillon and Klaus?" asked one man coming away from Coffey's arena.

"Or what would Papke have done to them when he was fighting well, or Hugo Kelly when in his prime?" remarked another. "Of course if one recalls the boxers of even a year ago, he is accused of living in the past, but why should there be such a falling away of the fighters when the world is progressing by leaps and bounds in every other direction?"

The middleweight division is certainly in an anaemic condition and it needs an infusion of new blood—good hot fighting blood at that. That there will be a Klaus-McGoorty match is inevitable and it may be that Klaus will show better form than he has yet done, but in the meantime there is a suspicion that Mike Gibbons is the youngster who is likely to inject a little ginger into the middleweight purllism.

Word has been received here that Gibbons, finding himself growing heavier, is going to toss his chapman into the middleweight class and dare McGoorty or the next best man to boot it. And, with no knowledge of Gibbons apart from what he has accomplished with the welters, there is more speculation in the west as to what would happen if McGoorty and Gibbons get together than attaches to the contemplation of the Klaus-McGoorty clash.

It is said that some foreigners will happen along presently. Dave Smith the Australian champion, is expected, and George Carpenter, the Frenchman, has threatened to invade America. But there is doubt as to whether Smith or Carpenter are bona fide middleweights.

If they can conform to the 155 pound standard, they should be given a royal welcome, for even the most optimistic must admit that the middleweight class is in a moribund condition just at present.

body—a hallplayer in particular. Sharp answers and displays of temper on the field interfere with successful team work and often cause enmities.

- 6—Don't procrastinate. If anything interferes with reporting on time cut it out. Tardiness sets a bad example.
- 7—Don't be a backbiter. If you have an idea that the club is not being conducted properly tell the manager about it. If your suggestions are good he'll appreciate them.
- 8—Don't be a quitter. If you are getting a bad break in the luck, brace yourself and fight all the harder.
- 9—Don't sulk. If you've been called down the chances are that you deserved it, and you'll gain nothing by showing your teeth.
- 10—Don't ball the umpire. Baseball law gives him the advantage over you at all times, so that it does not pay to oppose him. The captain will attend to all the necessary kicking.

Middleweight Elimination Tournaments Are Failures

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The so-called elimination tournaments are a delusion and a snare. Like desert trails they lead nowhere in particular. The best in store for anyone who follows them is a glimpse of a mirage or something equally unstable and misleading.

In the memory of man, about the only elimination tourney that held the even tenor of its way and produced a practical result was the one inaugurated at Los Angeles for the purpose of developing a challenger for Abe Attell.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone—The Great Kidney Remedy Never Disappoints

A few years ago I was troubled with a complication of kidney and stomach ailments and although I tried two or three different doctors, I was unable to obtain a cure. Having heard a great deal about Swamp-Root, I decided to give it a trial and purchased a one-dollar bottle of Mr. Alexander, the druggist. From the beginning I could notice a change for the better and after taking eight bottles of your medicine, I felt entirely cured and have not had any trouble since.

Had I began using Swamp-Root sooner, I would have been a few hundred dollars to the good and saved myself a lot of suffering.

You may use my testimonial any time you wish. Yours very truly,
CHARLES E. HARRIS,
460 Sixth St., Marion, Iowa.

I certify that Charles E. Harris signed the above testimonial in my presence, being first duly sworn to the truth thereof, this 12th day of July, 1909.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention The Bisbee Daily Review. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

"WHY SMITH LEFT HOME" HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

The Tribe of Smiths Left the Family Hearth to Play Baseball—There Are 54 in the National Game.

Can you stop the Smiths? No—not in baseball, anyway. What is a league without a Smith? What would the great game be without the Smiths who have come and gone in baseball uniforms?

It is doubtful if there were ever so many Smiths in the game as was the case during 1911. There was a battalion of them. Smiths in every position and Smiths left over. Look at the Smiths and count 'em up—The valiant sons of Old Man Smith, who third based on the Ararat league and was the only fellow of the time who could hit Cy Young;

National league—Four Smiths: The Brooklyn third baseman, the St. Louis utility man, the Cincinnati pitcher and the Chicago pitcher.

American league—One Smith: The Cleveland catcher.

American Association—One Smith: the catcher for Minneapolis.

Western league—One Smith: The pitcher for Lincoln.

Eastern league—Three Smiths: The pitcher for Newark, one second-basing for Newark and one shortstop for Toronto.

New York State league—One Smith: second base at Troy.

Michigan state—One Smith: Second base for Holland.

Appalachian—Three Smiths: Utility man at Cleveland, pitcher for Asheville, second base for Bristol.

Nebraska—Five Smiths: Pitchers at Kearney, Seward and Fremont, second base at York, short stop at Grand Island.

Western Canada—One Smith: Second base at Brandon.

Central Kansas—One Smith: Pitcher for Concordia.

Tri-State—Two Smiths: Pitcher and third baseman at York.

Virginia—One Smith: Catcher of Danville.

South Michigan—Three Smiths: Outfielders at Adrian and Battle Creek, pitcher at Flint.

Wisconsin-Illinois—Three Smiths: Catcher at Madison, outfielder at Green Bay, second base at Rockford.

Three I—Two Smiths: First base at Decatur, pitcher at Davenport.

Carolina—Two Smiths: Pitcher at Spartanburg, third baseman at Greenville.

Cotton States—Two Smiths: Pitcher at Greenwood, right field at Hattiesburg.

Pacific coast—Two Smiths: Catcher for Los Angeles, right field for San

ENGAGEMENT ENDS TONIGHT

Tonight is the last appearance of Mr. James A. Reilly at the Royal theater. The people of Bisbee have been agreeably surprised in Mr. Reilly, who has proven himself one of the most versatile entertainers that has graced the local boards. For some time, and will welcome a return engagement in the near future. Mr. Reilly will change his entire act to night, which will include some of his favorite roles and poems from James Whitcomb Riley.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.
