EASTERN MARKETS YESTERDAY

(By L. J. Overlock)

BOSTON, May 4.—Continuation of liquidation forced general list to new low levels in both markets. A slight rally occurred in New York near the close, which was irregular, with slight changes from last prices yesterday. Copper shares sold off sharply for all the active issues. C and A sold off to 49, Lake to 39, Range to 37, North Butte to 26 3/4 and Grandy to 32. A rush to sell and scarcity of buying orders caused wide fluctuations, and this, coupled with catching of stop-loss orders, gave the market an exceptionally weak tone. The general list has had a sharp recession the past few days, and should be due for some recovery.

Selfishness Universal.

A Kansas City judge announces as an original discovery that selfishness is the chief cause of divorce. Of course it is. It is also the cause of most of the other troubles of humanity. Eliminate selfishness from the nature of man and the millennium would be with us.
