

FIFTY-EIGHT SEA CRIMES LAID TO ALLIES

Terrorism of British Navy Hinders Every Neutral in Pursuit of Commerce, Says German Review.

TWO CASES CALLED COMMON MURDER

Execution of Fryatt Is Just Punishment for Only One of 58 Such Violators, Says Von Holtzendorf.

(By Review Leased Wire.)

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—The naval warfare of the second year of the war, which envy and a spirit of revenge forced upon Germany and her allies, has passed, the chief impression left by it being increased British naval terrorism and the battle of the Skagerrak," says Admiral von Holtzendorf, chief of the German Staff, in a statement to the Associated Press today, making an account of the material results of the second 12 months of the war from a naval standpoint.

Neutrals Throttled. "The neutral powers in 1916," Admiral von Holtzendorf continued, "were throttled more than in the first year by the sea power of England and hindered in the just pursuit of their commerce, postal rights, etc., by threats of violence. The victory of the German fleet over the British May 31 and June 1, therefore, was in the interest of all the neutrals and all those who are dependent on the freedom of the seas." The Fryatt Matter. The naval year closed with the execution of the British sea captain, Fryatt, the chief topic of discussion. This is not regarded by Germany as an isolated case, but as Germany's answer to what is termed the doctrine of armed merchantmen adopted by Great Britain even before the war and to allow illegalities, of which, according to the German claims, Great Britain has repeatedly been guilty during the war. For this reason an important place in the review furnished the Associated Press on Admiral von Holtzendorf's instructions is taken up in a recapitulation of alleged violations of international law charged against British ships.

58 Violations. "While in the first year of the war," says the statement, "twenty proved violations of the law of nations by enemy merchantmen, (bring upon German submarines, attempt to ram them, etc.), occurred, 38 such cases were reported in the second year. Merchantmen towed by the allies, therefore during the two years violated in the grossest manner the rules of international law no less than 58 times against German submarines. This can be proved up to the hilt.

Common Murder. "The warships of Germany's enemies during the war have violated the law of nations in three particularly extreme cases, namely, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, the Dresden and the Albatross. Two cases, the Baralong and the King Stephen must be characterized not only as violations of the law of nations and a breach of the most ordinary rules of humanity, but as common murder. Countless cases in which British warships have violated international law in their conduct against merchantmen owned by the central powers or neutrals cannot be enumerated."

appeared. Captain Hinsch said he knew the vessel submerged at that time, when a mile inside the three-mile limit.

Followed Coast? He added it would be unwise for him to disclose whether the vessel went up or down the coast before striking out to sea, or whether she steered an easterly course straight out.

Captain Hinsch returned to Baltimore tonight leaving the Timmins in Norfolk with instructions to pick up a tow for Baltimore if one could be secured within a day or two. If no tow is available, the tug, he said, will go back to Baltimore anyhow.

Bremen a Mystery. In response to questions concerning the prospects of the Bremen, sister ship to the Deutschland, he said, "you can depend upon it that if the Bremen was coming in the near future, I would not be returning to Baltimore. Neither would the Timmins. He declined to say when the Bremen was expected.

WAR SUMMARY

Thursday passed in all the theatres without notable gains for any of the belligerents. In the Stokholm region of Russia violent fighting continued between the Russians and the Austro-Germans, while German counter attacks against the British in the Delville wood sector in France, all of which were repulsed.

Battles also took place along the Zereh and Denister rivers in Galicia between the Russians and the Teutons while in the Caucasus region the Russians near Diarbekr carried out a bayonet attack against the Turks which resulted in the capture of a Turkish work and some 300 prisoners and guns.

In the Travanzen Valley of the Austro-Italian theatre, the Italians have made fresh progress against the Austrians. In the Adige valley in the upper Posina region an din the district of Cortina d'Ampezzo, the Austrians are bombarding Italian positions.

FRENCH JURY STILL OUT; NO AGREEMENT EXPECTED IN CASE

Trial of Frank Hillma Started With Selection of Jury. Evidence Will be Introduced in Morning.

TOMBSTONE, Aug. 3.—(Special)—With the O. S. French jury still out there appears little likelihood that any kind of an agreement will be reached. All forecast a disagreement. According to rumor, late this evening, the jury stood seven to five for conviction.

Since the French jury retired the case against Frank Hillman, of Douglas, charged with selling intoxicating liquors, was started. The jury was selected and the evidence will be started in the morning. The balance of the jury panel has been excused until next Monday.

SNIPERS FIRE ON MONTANA GUARDS NEAR DOUGLAS

Many Stray Shots Come from Over Mexico Way, All Harmless. Ice Famine in Douglas Is Reported.

(By Review Leased Wire.) DOUGLAS, Aug. 3.—After a cessation of sniping for two days, Mexicans lying in the brush about two miles west of Agua Prieta and several hundred yards south of the international boundary, are reported to have fired a number of shots at members of the border patrol of the Second Montana Infantry, Tuesday night. This is understood to have been unofficially reported to Brigadier General T. F. Davis, commanding the Arizona district.

Several bullets are said to have come uncomfortably close to members of the guard. Being unable to see the snipers, the guardsmen made no reply.

An ice famine exists along the entire Arizona, New Mexico, Texas border, according to the statement of well informed employes of the local ice company. This condition is attributed to the sudden movement of guardsmen to the border for which none of the border towns was prepared.

The local ice company has been working its plant so that it is now producing fifty per cent more than its capacity. Ice in carload lots had been shipped from El Paso until recently when the El Paso Ice Company notified the management of the local plant that they could ship no more as they were having to bring ice from Fort Worth to supply the trade there.

All of the large mining companies of Sonora are now paying their workmen in Mexican silver, which is re-

CLINTON IMES FINDS PENN'S THICK IS BEST

Well Known Santa Ana Roofing Contractor Praises Famous Tobacco

"PENN'S THICK is the best chewing tobacco I have ever used. Every plug I buy is the same — no stems or foreign substances, always clean. I am glad to recommend PENN'S THICK to any tobacco chewer."

ported by Consul Ives G. Lelevier to be crossing the border here at the rate of twenty five thousand pesos weekly. The silver is said to be shipped from China and India, for many years the two chief boarders of Mexican pesos.

A recent Carranza decree against exportation of coined money will serve to keep this money in the country, and thus establish a reserve, the consul said.

JERSEY CITY IS HALTING MUNITIONS

Police Sent to Resist Railway Bent on Continuing Shipments.

(By Review Leased Wire.) JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 3.—City authorities tonight sent 105 policemen to inspect all trains entering Jersey City for munitions and explosives, because of the refusal of one railroad to stop shipments through the city in accordance with an ordinance made by the city council.

The Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania Erie and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroads agreed not to ship explosives to Jersey City. The Central Railroad of New Jersey, however, served notice that it would hold the city liable for all damages and losses due to the enforcement of the order.

Don't Let Soap Spoil Your Hair

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsumed coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few cunes will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

"WELL, I SHOULD SAY 'GETS-IT' DOES WORK"

"Look at There, If You Don't Think It's Just Wonderful for Corns!"

"Bless my stars, look at it! Land of the living! Why, just look at it! That corn came right off, — just like peeling bananas. Put your finger on my toe, right there, — don't be afraid, — that's it, — feel how smooth the skin is? Well, that's where the corn was. Well, that beats all!" That's the way "Gets-It" works on all corns, every corn, every time. It's the new, simple way of curing corns. You'll say goodbye to all foolish contraptions like bundling bandages, sticky tape, plasters, toe-eating salves, and grave-diggers such as knives, razors and scissors. "Gets-It" stops pain. Applied in 2 seconds. Never fails. Nothing to stick to, hurt or press on the corn.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Bisbee and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Phelps Dodge Mercantile Co.
