STRUGGLE FOR WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP OPENS IN BOSTON AT 2 P. M. TODAY

Rumanians Routed Over Fifty Mile Front, Flee In Wild Disorder Back Over Line

BETTING FAVORS BOSTON RED SOX 10 TO 7 WITH LITTLE BROOKLYN MONEY IN SIGHT; CITY CROWDED

Thousands of Fans From All Over Country Overrun "The Hub" City, Sleeping on Billiard Tables, in Mad Desire to Witness Opening Classic—Marquard to Hurl for Brooklyn, Leonard for Boston Red Sox.

BOSTON, Oct. 6.—This city awaits the opening of the 1916 classic tomorrow between the Brooklyn Nationals and the Boston Americans with the confidence that comes from faith in its playing representatives and the unbroken string of victories in past contests.

Bets Favor Red Sox

This confidence is reflected in every portion of Boston as well as throughout New England. In baseball debate and wagering it crops out time and again. While the betting tonight is 10 to 7 on Boston with but little Brooklyn money in sight, the average supporter of the Boston Americans is far from expecting a walkover.

Eyes of Nation On Game

The series which opens at Braves Field tomorrow is far from being a sectional affair, however, from the standpoint of interest. Notwithstanding that the contending teams are eastern clubs, the interest in the coming struggle for the world's championship is national and this is clearly demonstrated by the gathering of the spectators for the two games that will be played here tomorrow and Monday.

Thousands Throng City

Every hotel in the city is thronged with baseball followers who are willing to endure inconveniences, provided they are assured a place to sleep and eat. A glance at the registers shows that the fans have journeyed from the south, far west, central and Atlantic states to witness the play.

Weather Ideal

The weather man has promised his finest brand of weather for the opening game, his prediction calling for an ideal mid-autumn day and with little if any wind. Hundreds of men and boys gathered outside the wall of the park for an all night vigil, under brilliant moonlight and in a warm atmosphere that made overcoats and heavy wraps unnecessary.

The gates leading to the unreserved sections of the stands and bleachers will be opened early tomorrow morning and it was apparent that these sections would be filled hours before the game begins at 2 p. m.

Record Breaking Crowd

With the exception of a few uncalculated for allotments, every reserved seat was sold out tonight and these will be snapped up immediately when they are put on sale at the box office tomorrow morning. So great has been the demand for seats that not many are offered for sale by speculators. President J. J. Lannin of the Boston club stated that he had been forced to buy back at a premium, some tickets that he needed for personal friends who had applied and could not be refused at the last minute.

Speculators Profit

Those speculators who were fortunate enough to secure even a pair of seats reaped a profit of more than 100 percent upon their investment on their mere announcement that they had seats for sale.

Final Touch Done

There was the usual preliminary activity of players and officials during the day and the few minor details left unfinished at the national commission meeting in New York last Tuesday were cleared away. Soon after president Ben Johnson of the American League and John Tenner of the National League arrived from New York the positions of the umpires for the opening game were assigned and the announcement made that infield rules of the two leagues would be observed under American League regulations when the clubs were playing at the

HERE IS PROBABLE LINEUP FOR TODAY.

All indications point to a battle of left handed pitchers in the opening game, for it appears to be settled that Manager Robinson will send Marquard to the mound for Brooklyn, while Manager Carrigan will rely on Leonard to uphold the honors of the American league champions. If Leonard will not be in the Brooklyn lineup and the probable batting order will be as follows: Brooklyn. Johnson, rf; Doubert, 1b; Meyers, cf; Wheat, lf; Cutshaw, 2b; Morey, 2b; Olson, ss; Meyers, c; Marquard, p. Boston. Hooper, rf; Janverin, 2b; Walker, cf; Hoblitzell, 1b; Lewis, rf; Gardner, 3b; Scott, ss; Carrigan, c; Leonard, p.

World Series By Play May Not Be Given By Review

Although the Review has made every effort to secure a direct wire report of the world series games, opening today, giving each play as it is made, it is possible wire trouble between here and Denver may prevent the paper giving this service. Final word is expected by the Review some time this morning.

MEXICO PORTRAYED IN AWFUL PICTURE BY SENATOR FALL

Wilson Arraigned In Bitterest Fashion by New Mexican in New York—Carranza, He Says, Is Losing Control.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—In a prepared speech, entitled "The Truth About Mexico," United States Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, at a Republican meeting here tonight denounced President Wilson's policy toward the neighboring republic. Carranza Failing He declared that "every American who really knows anything of the true conditions in Mexico, knows that Carranza's absolutism despite Wil-

WILL BIG ED PFEFFER, DODGERS' STAR, BE ANOTHER WORLD'S SERIES SLAB HURD?

Ed Pfeffer, the Brooklyn Dodgers' best pitching bet, has more class physically than any other pitcher in the league and a big part of his speed this season may be attributed to his great physique. Pfeffer is not the brainiest pitcher in the game, but he knows thoroughly how to use all of his mechanical ability. He has lots of stuff and the strength to use it often.

Kidnapper Is Foiled And Shot By Captive

(By Review Leased Wire.) STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 6.—An attempt to secure $15,000 ransom by kidnapping R. M. Perry manager of the Moffitt Coal mine at Oak Creek, Wednesday night, was frustrated late today, when Perry at an opportune moment seized a revolver from one of his captors and shot him dead, according to J. C. Frye, sheriff, who, with Perry and a posse, began pursuit of others of the band. One of the kidnapers was arrested and taken to jail at Steamboat Springs, where he refused to divulge his name.

While awaiting a reply from a demand for the ransom sent Perry's father, S. M. Perry, in Denver, the younger Perry was kept under guard in a canyon in Twenty Mile Park, midway between Coal Creek and Steamboat Springs.

Slays Captor According to reports here Perry managed to free himself from the ropes with which he was tied and procured the revolver from his guard and killed him. Perry made his way to a ranch house from which he telephoned. The message was garbled, however, and its source could not be determined before communication failed. Sheriff J. F. Frye organized a posse and is said to have found Perry unharmed in Twenty Mile Park. One of the kidnapers was said to have been captured there and taken to Steamboat Springs.

Posse In Pursuit S. M. Perry, father of the kidnapped man, started with detectives on a special train upon receipt of the threat, carrying with him, it was said, the money demanded. How many were in the band of kidnapers has not been learned here. Although two were accounted for, the sheriff's posse continued until dark tonight to scour the mountainous country.

Labor Erred In Forcing 8-Hour Law, Says Taft

Former President, in Talk at Indianapolis, Also Informs Wilson Supported Bill for Political Profit.

(By Review Leased Wire.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 6.—The eight hour law recently enacted by Congress was attacked by William H. Taft tonight when he addressed thousands of persons at the Coliseum, discussing the development of the constitutional government of the state. Mr. Taft's speech was a part of the county day program in connection with Indiana's centennial celebration and while non-political gave him an opportunity to find flaws in the government's course of action without naming persons and parties specifically.

Mr. Taft declared that the law forbids the formation of combinations for oppression, but he said, there has been devised in this country a tendency in high quarters to disregard constitutional limitations and to overlook certain classes of acts provided a political advantage could be gained. He regarded the eight hour law as such and said:

"This is the most noteworthy instance of a group whose labor was necessary that society may live, refusing to perform its function in the social life."

PEACE TALK NOT BELIEVED BY U. S.

Washington Firmly Doubts Gerard Is Coming On Such Mission—Many Think Military Peace Alone Will Do.

(By Review Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Ranking officials of the state department said today they had no information to indicate that Ambassador Gerard is bringing home a request from Germany that the United States intercede to end the European war, and are not inclined to believe the stories. Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, declared he knew positively that it was untrue.

While the department does not believe Mr. Gerard would accept so important a mission without notifying his government, it is realized that available means of communication between Washington and Berlin are very hazardous where the delicate subjects are involved. The ambassador, it is felt, might be especially reluctant to attempt to communicate with the department with a matter as important as this owing to the risk that his messages might fall into unauthorized hands.

Officials at the department today said that only a specific request for mediation by one of the belligerents would bring about any effort by this country to effect a European peace. In the absence of Secretary Lansing, who is ill at his home, high officials of the department said even if a direct offer were to come from one side doubt was expressed whether a willingness to receive mediation would have to come from both sides before any step would be taken.

There is a growing conviction that a military peace brought about would be the probable outcome of the war.

FRENCH GAIN WEE BIT

BALKAN ARMY CRUSHED BY PURSUING TEUTONS

Advance Into Transylvania Is Turned Into Fearful Defeat For Newest Ally by General Von Falkenhayne.

BUCHAREST ADMITS CRUSHING DEFEAT

Russians and Teutons Also Hurl Great Forces at Each Other in Fearful Slaughter in Battle Before Lemberg.

(By Review Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Turning against Rumanians who had been advancing steadily in eastern Transylvania, Austro-Hungarian and German troops have defeated the invaders decisively along a fifty mile front. North of Fogaras and at the junction of the Homered and Alt rivers, the Rumanians are in retreat, pursued by Teutonic troops.

The successful repulse of the invaders on the southern end of the line was at the hands of General von Falkenhayne, former chief of the German general staff, and who only last week routed the Rumanians around Hermannstadt and drove them back to their own frontier.

2000 Captured

North of Repe the Austro-Hungarian recaptured positions and took more than 2000 prisoners. Bucharest admits that the Rumanian troops in eastern Transylvania have been crushed before the advance of the Teutons in the region of the Fogaras.

In Dobruja heavy fighting continues with Bucharest recording progress for the Russians and Rumanians in the center and on the left wing.

Russians Capture 500

While General Brusiloff apparently has ceased, at least for the moment his attacks against the Austro-German lines in Volhynia, west of Lutsk, he continues to his assaults with great intensity against the positions of the Teutonic allies guarding the approaches to Petrozouk in the taking of positions south of Berezany and the capture of 500 prisoners.

Teutons Take 1500

Berlin, however, declares that all Russian attacks in Galicia have been repulsed and that the Austro-Germans have taken 1200 prisoners.

In Macedonia the armies of the entente allies continue to advance. The British troops that crossed the Struma River northeast of Saloniki have taken the town of Nevozen which was evacuated by the defenders. South of Monstir, Serbia, violent fighting is reported by Paris.

Guns Boom On Somme

The artillery continues active on the Somme front in France, according to reports from the war offices of all the belligerents.

A delayed report from Constantinople tells of the route of troops northwest of Hamdan, Persia. Tribesmen in Ispehan, says Constantinople, have risen in revolt and driven the Russians from the city. Petrograd on the other hand, reports progress for the Russians west and southwest of Trebizond, in Armenia.
