KING TELLS MEN TO STAND BY THEIR GUNS

Elsewhere in Battleground Europe, French and Italians are Gaining, While Teutons Overrun Galicia.

(By Review Leased Wire.)
ATHENS, via London, Nov. 2.—King Constantine issued orders this morning to the royalist troops to prevent the advance of revolutionist forces at all costs.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—After months of strife between the adherents of former Premier Venizelos and adherents of King Constantine over the question of Greece's stand in the war, a revolution of considerable proportions has broken out in the region southwest of Saloniki.

On the fighting front important successions have been attained by the French in the capture of Fort Vaux, northeast of Verdun; by the Italians in their pressure in the Gorizia and Carso regions through which they are trying to reach Trieste and by the Germans in Volhynia, near Witonetz, where Russian positions were stormed and captured and 22 officers and 1508 men were made prisoners.

The Transylvania theatre is witnessing a continuance of the advance of the Austro-Germans south of the Rotherthrum pass, while in the Jial valley the Rumanians are keeping up their pursuit of the Teutons.

There is still no news concerning the operations in Dobridja, except the statement that the Russo-Rumanian advance guards are reconnoitering and that Constantia has been shelled from the sea, but without success.

In Macedonia, fighting continues in the bend of the Cerna river region, with small success for the Serbs. On the remainder of the front, bombardments are in progress.

East of Gorizia and on the Carso plateau near Vallona, the Italians, after violent artillery preparations, attacked the Austrian line and, despite the resistance of the Austrians, captured in the former sector, the eastern slopes of Tivoli and San Marco and heights east of Sober. On the Carso plateau several wooded hills were taken and an advance of two thirds of a mile was made to the east of Segit. During the fighting 4,731 Austrians were made prisoner and six guns, numerous machine guns and other war material were captured.

MORE CARRANZISTAS ARE SENT AFTER VILLA

EL PASO, Nov. 2.—Mexican consul Soriano Bravo announced that he had received a message tonight from General Trevino saying that General Murguia had arrived with reinforcements at Jimenez to join the campaign against Villa. The message, he said, made no reference to Parral or to any movements by Villa bandits in that section.

MARINA ISSUE IS STILL HANGING FIRE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Conclusive evidence as to whether Germany violated her pledge to the United States in sinking, apparently without warning, the British freighter Marina with the loss of six American lives, is not expected by the state department before the latter part of next week. Secretary Lansing tonight said information was coming in slowly and that at least a week was expected to elapse before full evidence would be at hand.

T. R. IS EAGER TO SAVE U. S. FROM RUIN

Tells Toledo He Just Must Speak Out the Passions Within Him for Hughes—Is Strong for "Reform."

(By Review Leased Wire.)
TOLEDO, O., Nov. 2.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, in a speech here today, told one of the largest crowds that ever gathered in a Toledo public hall that he came here to "give the reasons for the faith that is in him."

"I am here in no partisan sense," declared the speaker. "I am appealing to all good citizens to save the country from ruin."
"I believe in certain reforms," he said, "but before we can work reforms within the nation we have got to be sure that we have got a nation."
"There is another principle that we cannot too jealously guard and that is that we see to it that our public servants mean what they say and keep their promises after election."
"We must protect ourselves from men who say one thing at one time and another thing at another time, and do none of the things none of the time."

Still Abusing Wilson.
"President Wilson has unexampled switching facilities. The first duty of any government is to protect the lives of its people. Mr. Wilson has said that he is too proud to fight. I saw the other day by a Wilson paper that he said there may be circumstances when he would fight and things he is willing to fight for."
"Mr. Wilson says he is going to do some fine things in the future. Do it now, Mr. Wilson, or keep still."

FRENCH CHILDREN OFF TO GREET HOPELESSLY WOUNDED PAPAS WHEN THEY ARRIVE FROM GERMAN PRISON CAMPS

These little French children are on their way to meet their hopelessly wounded fathers. The brave soldiers whom they will welcome were captured months ago by the Germans, and since they can never fight again they are being exchanged for captured German soldiers, who are also crippled for life. This is one of the really pitiful sights of the war.

20 PINCHED ON BOOTLEGGING CHARGE

Two Women Among Those Arrested in Bisbee, Lowell and Douglas on Information Held by Attorney Ross.

In a raid which was started yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock by officers of Sheriff Wheeler's force, in Douglas, Lowell and Bisbee, twenty alleged violators of the prohibition amendment were arrested and charged in each case with selling intoxicating liquor. It is understood that the officers are still after several for whom warrants have been issued.

Work was started on these cases about October 1 by County Attorney John F. Ross. Detectives were put to work and that resulted in the filing by the county attorney, of twenty seven informations against twenty nine defendants. This occurred Thursday. It resulted in a court order for warrants of arrest against twenty seven people in the county. In a number of cases the defendants were known only as John or John Doe and the sheriff's office encountered considerable difficulty in arresting the proper persons.

According to the county attorney, he has sufficient evidence to file seventy five cases against the defendants, and it is said the evidence is as strong, or even stronger, than was required in the previous raids which have resulted in convictions for the county.

NINE AMERICANS FALL PREY TO BANDITS IN PARRAL

Town Defended by Herrera Is Reported Fallen to Villa, Who Also Is in Possession of Santa Rosalia.

(By Review Leased Wire.)
EL PASO, Nov. 2.—American mining men who have interests in Parral which was reported from Chihuahua City to have been taken by Villa troops on Tuesday, are much concerned over the fate of the nine Americans known to be in Parral. This concern was increased tonight by the news from Chihuahua City that the bandits who held up the Mexican Central passenger train Monday evening at Laguna station assaulted Dr. Steven Hafner, a German subject because they thought he was an American. This, they say, is an indication of what might happen to the nine Americans in the Parral mining district.

Parral Falls
Mining men and freighters here who are thoroughly familiar with the country in the vicinity of Parral say that Villa probably moved on Parral from Santa Rosalia following the Conchos River to Pilar de Concho, a distance of 45 miles from Santa Rosalia and then marched south 45 miles against Parral, entering the town from the north, which is the most accessible way, they say.

These mining men declare that the report of Villa's capture of the town verifies the report that Villa and his command had been in possession of Santa Rosalia, as it was announced that he would move on Parral from Santa Rosalia.

Villa is said to have a grudge against General Luis Herrera, the Carranza commander in Parral, and to have declared that when he captured Parral he intended to kill Herrera with his own hands.

The report of Villa's capture of Parral was received here by government agents tonight and forwarded to Washington.

BENSON SEES STARVATION WITH U. S. FOODS EXPORTED

HUTCHINSON, Nov. 2.—Allan L. Benson, socialist candidate for president, in an address here tonight, predicted suffering and even starvation this winter unless the exportation of food stuffs to Europe was stopped.

The meeting here was presided over by William Barnes, former Republican state chairman.
Mr. Hughes spoke at Onelda, Amsterdam, Schenectady and Troy on his way here. The addresses at Onelda and Amsterdam were five minute talks. The speech at Schenectady was before an audience that had waited his arrival for more than an hour.

WALL STREET GOVERNMENT AIRED BY WILSON

President Points Out Folly of Government by Few, in Luncheon of Business Men in New York City.

SAYS THEY CONSULT HIM IN WRONG SPIRIT

Wants Business to Remove Impression of Laborers that They Are Being Exploited. Is Cheered Often.

(By Review Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—President Wilson, addressing a gathering of business men from all parts of the country at a luncheon here today, declared that "the men who constitute what we have agreed to call 'Wall Street,' have a subtle genius for promulgating seemingly immaterial changes" when called into consultation concerning the affairs of the country "which would eventually lead to the defeat of the main objects of the existing period."

Wants New Co-operation
"Do you wonder," said the President, "that I do not call them into consultation and yet I tell you again that they will be welcome the moment they come to co-operate, and they will not be welcome until then?"

The President assured his audience that the business interests of the country had been safeguarded under his administration and would continue to be if he were reelected.

Among the guests at the luncheon to greet the President were James W. Gerard, American ambassador to Germany; Governor Fielder of New Jersey; John M. Riehl, president of the national Democratic club; Jacob H. Schiff, Secretary of the Treasury; McAdoo, United States Senator; Hughes of New Jersey and James of Kentucky; Chairman Vance McCormick of the Democratic national committee and Colonel Edward M. House.

The appearance of Mrs. Wilson and the other women of the presidential party, like that of the President, was the occasion of much applause. As Mr. Wilson took his seat one of the diners shouted:

"Three cheers for Wilson, the progressive!" Instantly the crowd was in an uproar hurling their napkins into the air and cheering again.

In his speech to business men the President said in part:

Human Side of Business
"We are living in a very serious period of the world's history and therefore it seems to me especially incumbent upon us that we should, so far as possible, search every question to the heart. And when I think of searching the business question to the heart, it seems to me that there are some very large reckonings which have too often been left out of the count. When you think of the ultimate foundations of business you must know that you find them in the conditions of national life and that the particular conditions upon which successful vital business depends are the conditions which touch the daily life of the common mass of people of the country.

"Business is not a matter of organizing genius. Business is not wholly a matter of financial instinct. Business does not altogether consist of seeing the opportunity and trying to avail yourself of it. It consists in having the source of strength to draw from; and the only source of strength for business, as for government, is to have it founded on the whole people.

Remember Whole People
"The roots of business, my fellow citizens, lie deep in the hearts and breasts and daily lives of people who crowd about us every day on the street and on the countryside. Exploitation Must Go
"And the thing that has disturbed the thought of a great many men in recent years in this country is that the general body of the people have got the impression that they are being drawn upon, in order that others might prosper and they get the crumbs from the table. Spirit of Progress
"The whole law of life for business (Continued on Page Five.)
