 Monday Musicales, Y. W. C. A., Nov. 20.

One of the prettiest entertainments given for a bride-to-be was a shower given by Mrs. William Pruitte Sims, to honor Miss Cornelia Ellinwood at the Sims home Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were decorated in large chrysanthemums. The entertainment was centered upon recipes. After the arrival of the guests, a huge pie, with a pie server resting by its side was brought, and on cutting, the hotbreed found it was of paper, and its contents, favorite recipes, which were rolled, and tied with gold ribbons.

After an enjoyable social hour, tea was served, with Mrs. J. P. Williams presiding, and Mrs. E. J. Flanagan assisting. Thirty guests enjoyed Mrs. Sims hospitality. This is the first of a number of brilliant affairs planned in honor of Miss Ellinwood during the coming weeks.

Mrs. Fred Sutter will be hostess to a bridge tea at her home in Warren on Tuesday. Bridge will be at two and tea at four o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Shine will entertain with a dancing party in honor of their niece, Miss Shine, of New York, on Tuesday, Nov. 14, at the Country Club.

The Monday Musicales Club met at the Y. W. C. A. on Monday afternoon, and after the roll call, Mrs. Cain was placed in charge of the meeting, and a very pretty program was rendered. The guest of honor was Mrs. Holmquist, who gave two solos, which were greatly appreciated. The choruses rehearsed and plans were further for a musicale to be given by the club in the near future.

At the home of Mrs. G. W. Allen in Tombstone Canyon, the Twentieth Century Club gave a silver tea, the benefits going toward purchasing a piano. The rooms were decorated in club colors of pink and green, carnations being the flowers used. Mesdames Sims and Williamson gave several duets which were enjoyed by the guests. The main feature of the afternoon's entertainment was an Odd Character, who came in the costume of the past century, and entertained the guests with stories of the past age, and also brought her knitting along for the soldiers. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames C. W. Ruth, C. W. Allen, H. C. Cochran and Willis Jones. They served the guests with sandwiches, cake, tea, bon-bons and coffee. Miss Carlotta Moyer presided. The club has planned many social affairs for the coming months.

The High school alumni entertained with a Yama Yama dance at the High school on Friday evening. At nine o'clock the Grand March formed with Mr. and Mrs. Tonkin, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Flanagan leading. The costumes were for the most part unique, and there were some handsome ones among the crowd. The Veale orchestra provided the music. Sixty couples enjoyed the dancing.

The Twentieth Century club will meet in business session at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday, Nov. 14.

The Baptist Aid met at the church on Tuesday afternoon, and passed the afternoon in sewing. Light refreshments were served. The next meeting is set for Nov. 16.

Mrs. Clark entertained the meth-

HER HOME NO LONGER CHILDLESS

Operation not Necessary after Taking the Great Medicine for Women.

Miller's Falls, Mass.—"Doctors said I had displacement very badly and I would have to have an operation. I had a soreness in both sides and a pulling sensation in my right side. I could not do much work the pain was so bad. I was also troubled with irregularity and other weaknesses. My blood was poor. We had been married four years and had no children.

After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I became well and strong and was saved from the operation. We are now the parents of a big baby girl and I praise your remedies to others and give you permission to publish my letter."—Mrs. JOSEPH GUILBAULT, JR., Bridge Street, Miller's Falls, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is famous for restoring women to normal health and strength. When this is done wives no longer despair of having children. A woman should be reluctant to submit to a surgical operation until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. If you have a case that needs special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

dist Aid at her home Thursday afternoon. After the regular business meeting, at which arrangements were made for a food sale which will be held on Tuesday before Thanksgiving, the guests enjoyed a social hour. Sandwiches, cake and tea were served to thirty guests.

Mrs. Fisher entertained the St. John's Guild at her home Thursday afternoon. The guests passed the afternoon in sewing and conversation and were served with tea, cake and coffee. Those present were Mesdames Hubbard, Gollwitzer, Benson, Hurst, Johns, Lynn, Brown, Hurst, Sutton, Tully, Patton, Davis, Bennett, Kellogg, Rundle, O'Malley, Burgess and the hostess.

Captain Terry, of the District of Columbia guards, and Mrs. Terry were visitors in Bisbee last week.

The wedding of Miss Katherine Thompson to Mr. Ernest Crocker, at the Episcopal Church Wednesday morning at 9:15 o'clock, marked the consummation of the interest felt by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Crocker since the announcing of the engagement, two months ago. The church was decorated with potted plants, and the bridal party, composed of Miss Carlotta Moyer, Mrs. J. L. Herrick, Miss Dorothy Gregg, Miss Benita Garcia, Miss Grace Keith and the maid of honor, Miss Jane Adams, and the best man, Mr. Ben S. Chase. Rev. Dr. Brewster read the impressive ceremony, and immediately after, the bride and groom left on a motor trip for the Grand Canyon. They will be at home to their friends in Warren after three weeks.

Miss Thompson is one of the most charming young women of Bisbee coming to the District about a year ago, since which she has been with the Y. W. C. A. as the director of the cafeteria, and made a host of friends during her residence in the District.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Fitzgerald have returned from an extended visit in the east, to their home in Warren.

The Rebekas entertained their friends with a dancing party at the I. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The carnival held Thursday and Friday nights at the association was an entirely successful. On the last evening there was an auction sale, and the Camp Fire Girls received several dollars, the proceeds from the sale.

The folk dancing class held its first meeting Wednesday under the direction of Miss Dorothy Gregg, with the children's class in the afternoon, and the young woman's class in the evening.

November 12-19 is Fellowship Week the world over in the Young Woman's Christian Association and this association is observing in part the program planned by the World's Committee. The following are the events of Fellowship week:

Sunday, Nov. 12, "World's Fellowship," presented by the different ministers from their pulpits.

Monday, Nov. 13, subject for the day, "Bear Ye One Another's Burdens." No special meeting will be held but prayers of all the association members are asked for their representatives in Tokio.

Tuesday, Nov. 14, board meeting subject, "South America."

Wednesday, Nov. 15, union meeting at the Y. W. C. A., subject, "The United States and its relations to other countries." The service will be conducted by pastors of the city.

Thursday, young woman's meeting, subject, "The Association of the Orient."

Friday, meeting for all girls at 4:30, conducted by Miss Sandel of the Y. W. C. A. at Douglas.

Saturday, concert of prayer for nations at war. No special meeting.

Sunday, Vesper Hour, social and anniversary day.

"Going Through Bisbee Shops I Noticed That--"

The Phelps Dodge store is having a sale of pretty silks and there are a number of pretty patterns as well as good bargains in the lot. They especially make pretty shifts, and a number of the heavy and expensive Persian and Peacock silks, just the thing for the pretty Christmas bags are selling at half price, as well as affetas, both Dresden and solid colors, crepe de chine and novelty silks. Cone-shaped pockets are used on the suits, and street dresses.

Green velvet makes an attractive street coat, when trimmed with fur. Mustard velvet forms the basis of the new evening gown—its trimmings are turquoise.

There is such a lovely assortment of package embroidery designs in the shops and one is sure to find just the thing for Christmas gifts.

Popular gifts for holidays are the bridge sets—a cover and four napkins. These can be had at the shops in packages, with thread enough to complete, in both simple, but effective designs, and elaborate embroideries.

A bit of pink ribbon marks the waist line of a robin's-egg blue and silver evening gown.

Coat dresses are the garment of the day. Serge is tremendously popular for street costumes, but is difficult to obtain in good qualities.

A narrow court train, not very long, is the last word for evening gowns. It gives little trouble, as it is not fastened below the waist, and will hang across the arm well.

White hats are increasing in popularity. The vogue for gold and silver hats, perhaps with a little touch of fur or velvet, is possibly the greatest of the year. The hats are used for many and various purposes, from a street hat, afternoon wear, to a dinner or evening bonnet. The Fair gave its first display of these hats Friday, and here are a number of beauties in the lot, some with just enough trim to become, and little enough to be comfortable for a dancing hat. They are mostly silver and gold, but there are a number of colors woven in the ace, though the hat is still metal.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and headache.

Yours for beautiful hair,
Herpicide Mary

Jet is a popular adornment for Misses this fall.
 Dull black taffeta and crepe de chine is correct for mourning wear.
 Laces are beginning to be worn again for blouses.
 Filigree beads of Chinese designs are popular necklace novelties.
 Broadcloth, velour, serge, Bolivia cloth and jersey are being made into stunning street hats.
 The French poke is in style again and is touched with a fold of maline, or a narrow ribbon which hangs off the brim.
 Burgundy, plum and prune are favored for street wear.
 Rakish hats with large crush crowns are smart for the young miss.
 Cashmere finds itself considerably used for hats, collars and cuffs.
 The Jockey hat makes up beautifully in lace, with a velvet crown and a little fur rose which gives the required touch of fur.

Broadcloth collars and cuffs will add such a smart touch to the street gown or the severe suit.

A round melon or barrel muff leads in furs, while the broad scarf is veiling with the skin for popularity in neckpieces.

Silver suitcases embroidery is used for trimming tulle gowns.
 Separate skirts are being featured by Dame Fashion to wear with the new Russian and basque blouses.
 Shoulder throws of oetriche are very much in vogue.
 A dancing hat of tulle, of lace, and silk roses is almost indispensable.
 Buttons are made of both self and contrasting materials.
 Russian blouses and "Chemise" gowns of Georgette are attractive, particularly when made over colored slips.
