GOING TO PHOENIX.

Large numbers of people from the Warren District are expected to leave for Phoenix during the next day or two to attend the state fair. Several automobile parties will leave this morning and several started yesterday with the same destination in view.

VULCANIZING.

The Cochise Motor Co. has remodeled their vulcanizing department and placed it in charge of a first class vulcanizer from Los Angeles, who will personally attend to all work. They will make a specialty of casing and tube work. Their prices are right, be sure and get their prices before going elsewhere. Absolutely the best work in the district.—Advertisement.

KOLB AND DILL.

"Three Pals," with Kolb and Dill, will be the feature extraordinary this evening at the Orpheum theatre. This team of comedians only made their bow to the film public in the last several months, through the medium of the Mutual Film Company. The manner in which their first release was received left no doubt in the minds of the producers that the Californians were "going" big. The photoplay this evening is said to be the best yet shown by that inimitable pair.

K. OF C. DANCE.

All K. of C.'s and their friends are invited to attend the opening dance Tuesday night at K. of C. Hall.—Adv.

LECTURE AT ODD FELLOWS HALL

Prof. J. A. White, psychologist, healer and seer, will lecture on psychology and present and future movements of the European crisis and the Mexican situation, at Odd Fellows Hall Sunday evening, November 12. He will also give demonstrations of healing and answer any question from the audience, no matter what it pertains to. Admission 50c. 342 Advertisement.

OFF TO STATE FAIR.

Another motoring party left Bisbee yesterday to attend the state fair at Phoenix, composing of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKee, Miss Rosa Heije and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Humphries. From Phoenix they will continue on to the Grand Canyon.

Look for future date of Professor White's lecture.—Advertisement.

ATTENDED CIRCUS.

Harry Kendall and wife, Miss Edna Nevins, Miss Mary Barton, Vern Kendall and William White formed a party of Tombstone folks that attended the circus in this city last evening.

BREAKS HIS ARM.

Charles Malcomb, a well known miner of Bisbee, while cranking his Ford automobile on Friday, sustained a broken arm when the starting apparatus kicked back. Though very painful the injury may be expected to heal in a short time.

Dr. Sara Higdon of Globe has opened an office in Mrs. Muirhead's Castle Rock rooms, on Main Street, Bisbee, giving High Frequency and Violet Ray treatments. Also Dr. Higdon makes a specialty of nervous diseases. John T. Saunders, assistant.

GOES TO PHOENIX.

Ed. Massey, deputy mine inspector for this region of Arizona, left yesterday morning for Phoenix to confer with G. H. Bolln, who was re-elected to the position by the people of the state. Massey expects to be absent several days. He may decide to take in the state fair for a couple of days, thereafter.

MARRIED IN TOMBSTONE.

Miss Clair O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen E. Murphy of Tombstone, who was a former resident of Bisbee was married in Tombstone yesterday morning to Joseph A. Chester of Yuma. The couple will be at home to their friends at Yuma after December 11th. Mr. Chester is a trusted employee of the Wells Fargo Company at Yuma.

PAT CLEARY WELL AGAIN.

Pat Cleary of the Guarantee Paint Co., is now able to be about again after being run over by an auto on Main street last Saturday. He is now able to take care of all the paintings, paper-hanging and sign writing the same as ever. As usual, he will now supply his customers with the best men in the business. Phone him 720.

TOMBSTONE'S CONSTABLE.

Harry Macy, Republican candidate for constable in Tombstone, was elected, according to word from the county seat. Macy is well known to practically all of the old timers of the county. Guy Welch, under sheriff, was elected mayor of the town and the council selected is Democratic in politics. George Bravin was unopposed for city marshal.

MORE BILLIARD EXHIBITIONS.

Wallace of Wallace's Brunswick-Balke billiard parlors is planning another billiard exhibition in the near future, between Dean Demarest, who performed here Tuesday night, and Barlow, another expert from other parts, who played here last year. Probably they will meet the last of this month. Mike Davis is another star Wallace may bring here to match against Barlow. Barlow played Barnes and Kitzmiller here a year ago. The exhibition Tuesday night by Demarest drew a crowded house and proved a most interesting attraction.

IN TOMBSTONE.

Judge M. C. High, justice of the peace of Bisbee precinct, was a business visitor in Tombstone yesterday. So also was George Ludwig, chairman of the Republican county central committee. Both returned to the city last evening.

BENEFIT DANCE.

The Upper Lowell Volunteer Fire Department will give a benefit dance at the Upper Lowell Club House on Saturday evening, November 25th. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Volunteer Fire Department. Admission $1.00. Ladies free. Best of music.

LITTLE MISS HAPPINESS.

"Little Miss Happiness," which appeared at the Royal last night and which will be repeated at the Main street showhouse this afternoon and evening, is one of the best Fox releases ever seen in Bisbee. It is free from the "vampire" theme that sometimes characterizes the Fox films and its leading people are great in every way.
