THE BRAVE AT HOME

The maid who binds her warrior's sash With smile that well her pain dissembles.
The while beneath her drooping lash One starry tear drop hangs and trembles, Though Heaven alone records the tear, And fame shall never know her story,
Her heart has shed a drop as dear As e'er bedewed the field of glory!

The wife who girds her husband's sword,
Mid little ones who weep or wonder,
And bravely speaks the cheering word, What though her heart be rent asunder, Doomed nightly in her dreams to hear The bolts of death around him rattle, Hath shed as sacred blood as e'er Was poured upon the field of battle!

The mother who conceals her grief While to her breast her son she presses, Then breathes a few brave words and brief,
Kissing the patriot brave she blesses,
With no one but her secret God To know the pain that weighs upon her,
Sheds libly blood as e'er the sod Received on freedom's field of honor!

TEA GOWN BRINGS SUMMER COMFORT

This gown of gold and green with an iridescent bath chiffon tea coat combined make a tea gown of regal beauty. Its comfort on these hot summer days is unbounded.

developed in the daintiest shade of Japanese crepe is collarless, and bell-sleeved. A border of silk embroidery lend a distinctive finishing touch.

For separate waists, white and flesh color will carry along into the fall, with the dark colors gaining ground as the demand increases for waists to match the new fall tailored suits.

There is nothing quite so practical for the young girl as the Peter Thomson frock which is made of white galatea with red linen trimming and white braiding.

A striking costume of burgundy red brocade has a novel cape that falls gracefully over the left arm. The design is intricate, but full of suggestion.

Severely plain in its effect is a tailored suit of peacock-blue duvetyne banded with skunk. Tailors built on the general lines of this model will be exceedingly smart for winter.

A meshon frock of jersey material of tan color and embroidered in oriental shades made a very pretty afternoon frock.

An afternoon gown of velvet-dotted chiffon with panels of velvet, in which the skirt is draped under at the hem, makes a stunning creation.

For the cool evenings the August sweater is just the thing. So they have woven themselves into the lightest, finest, most lacy of Angora stitches and have almost succeeded in getting into the transparent ranks themselves, so soft and sheer, in colors trimmed in white.

Some shop windows are entirely given over to a display of a new green shade which is very refreshing and soft, and is a distinct contrast to the vivid rose and red shades which pre-valled in the earlier part of the season.

A pretty wedding which took place in Wilcox, Arizona, at the home of J. W. Angle was that of Frank C.
Homestead of Bowie, and Miss Lena E.
Milner of Lorain, Ohio, the attractive sister of Dana T. Milner. The marriage took place last Sunday noon. The bride party left Bowie in the morning, motoring to Wilcox in Mr. Mil-ner's car. In the party were Miss Milner's father, J. Milner, Jr., and Mrs.
Dana T. Milner, their daughter, Alma, small son John Dana, Mr. Homestead

Officers Entertain.
Officers of the First Arizona Infantry were hosts at the Country Club, Friday night to members of the club and friends of the regiment at what proved to be one of the most brilliant social functions this year. The club was decorated with American flags and other patriotic emblems. Three score men and women from Bisbee, Warren, Lowell and Douglas attended the ball and danced until the wee' sma' hours of the morning. There was a military touch to the affair that made the patriots who attended feel just a little more patriotic. Early in the evening dinner was served to sixty-eight at the club. The dance will probably be the last big function of the year which the officers of the regiment will have the opportunity of attending, as the First Arizona may receive orders to entrain at any time for Camp Kearny, Linda Vista, California, to begin intensive training for service in France. The officers of the regiment, and their families, have played a prominent part in the social affairs of the Warren District and their departure will be deeply regretted by their hundreds of friends.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OF WARREN MINING DISTRICT

Thomas Nelson, assistant secretary of the Douglas association, is very anxious to have the party return the perfectly good gun he loaned on the day of the "Wobbly Drive." Should this party read this notice he will confer a great favor by returning said gun to the local "Y."

"It Was a Mulligan."

C. C. Mitchell's wife is out of town, and he got together a bunch of the boys, who are "hoosters" for the "Y" —Erwin, Cooke, McFarlan, Ziprik, Atkinson, Madson (and by the way, these young men were all drafted and are going to France), and took them up to his house last Sunday for a good old sociable "At the Front" time.
Cooke and Mitchell did the cooking and we must give them credit for doing the job up in grand style. Mr.
Mitchell, of course, understood just how to make a good mulligan, as he put in three years in the Fourth U. S.
Cavalry, chasing Indians over the deserts of Arizona, some years ago. His troop was stationed at Fort Lowell, just nine miles from Tucson. Mitchell says he fixed this country in shape so that these younger men could come here and live in peace. There were no "Wobblies" here then—there was no room for them.

It was agreed by all that it was the best meal of its kind they had ever eaten. McFarlan has not been able to work a shift since. The bunch were entertained by Mr. Mitchell's stories of army life—the hard part of it, and the pleasant part. He says army life is just like civilian life—just what a man makes it. If he obeys orders and tries to live up to them, everything is lovely; but if he continually disobeys orders, he can make it very disagreeable for himself and others. Mitchell did not say how his conduct was—anyway, he did not come out a captain.
There were resolutions passed to the effect that the same old bunch should meet at the same place and have the same dish after the boys return from whipping Germany.

A scene worth while was that Friday, when several hundred men, prospective soldier boys, assembled at the Y to be examined for army service. It took not only the big lobby where County Recorder Krebs was located, but one of the educational rooms on the second floor, where the boys waited "in state," anxious to take their turn with the doctors and examining board in the big banquet room next door. The most remarkable thing about the whole scene was the sadness expressed on the faces of many who were turned down for physical defects—every fellow appeared ready and willing to go "somewhere in France" in behalf of the old U. S. A.

To any fellow having misgivings about the war, especially those who are drafted, we would suggest reading the article in the current month's Atlantic Monthly, entitled, "The Diary of a Coward." The article is wrongly christened, but it may portray your feelings. It will be found on the reading room tables.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Sunday night movie at 8 o'clock. The following films will be shown on the screen: Judith of Holophernes, Beautiful May Valley, and Portugal. Something different from the usual movie, but both educational and interesting.

Following are the new memberships and renewals for the past week: Frank Blakely, Jas. V. Barnett, J. J.
Barnett, A. A. Barnett, Jr.; Earnest Bennett, Lee Craddock, Leroy C. De Arnold, Tony Seelun, Elmer Garber, Sidney Halversen, C. W. Hammond, A. H. Haley, Wm. H. Juergens, Milton Morris, W. R. Marston, Everett Merritt, Jos. Nikodem, Tom Pollock, W.
D. Periman, Sullivan Turner, A. E.
Upton, Frank Ward, Henry Watkins, J. H. Dermody, W. M. Hadsell, C. C.
Julian, W. W. Minhinnick, H. C. Smith,
B. S. Washburn.

Boys' Department
The tournaments are in full swing now. All entrants are requested to play off their preliminaries before Saturday night, to avoid the confusion after school starts. Remember, there is a fine Blue Ribbon for the winner of each tournament.

Our gymnasium classes at 4 o'clock each evening are receiving new recruits. Last Wednesday, 26 "kids," full of pep, were out and by Saturday of next week we expect to have 50 out.
Baseball games and marching seem to be the main attractions.

Several of our younger members are missing since the recent outburst of Jupiter Pluvius. It is hoped that they will be picked up and returned.

The only new members enrolled this week are: Lyle Herrick and Gilbert Lorenz.

Some of the older members are requested to ask one of the secretaries all about the big banquet coming off soon. The purpose is to organize a club among the high school boys.

The boys' department is producing some real patriotic boys, according to the work some of them are doing. Eight of the boys have joined the navy. One is out on the "ranch" raising a hundred-acre crop with the help of his "dad." Some of the others still in Bisbee are raising gardens.

Where under the canopy can a boy secure more returns for the money invested in a membership than the boys' department right here in the Warren district. The membership fee is only $3 per year for boys from 10 to 14 and $5 for those 15 to 18. Most of the Y's charge not only for the membership but for towels as well. The investment, from a financial standpoint alone, nets about 110 per cent. Think it over.

er social activities in connection with the Y, left for El Paso, where he intends to join the U. S. Navy, provided he passes his second examination there. The best wishes of the association go with him.

C. A. Thompson, from Hanford, Cal., is a new arrival in Bisbee and a new Y member. Thompson says Bisbee and the Y swimming pool look good to him. He is employed in the dry goods department at the Phelps Dodge store and will make Bisbee his home.

The bowling season is opening early this year, the alleys are in first class condition, and we intend to keep them so. We have a good many fairly good bowlers among the young men who have recently come to the city, and with practice they will make first-class bowlers.

W. D. Periman, formerly of Jacoby Brothers, of Los Angeles, is a new arrival in Bisbee, also a new Y member.
Periman is employed in the dry goods department of the Phelps Dodge store.
He, like many others, says the big Y lobby and Bisbee in general looks good to him, and he expects to make Bisbee his home.

Tony Eselun, better known in the athletic world as "Tony Ajax," the famous Pacific coast wrestler, is a new arrival in the camp. Tony worked out the other night with some of the local boys and he is evidently in as good trim as he ever was. Tony will probably be one of the star attractions at the next Stag Social, which will be a big event at the Y in the near future.

Mrs. A. B. Richardson and son, A.
B. Jr., returned to the district a few days ago, after a prolonged visit to the coast and the former home of the general secretary at Pocatello, Idaho.
Needless to chronicle the fact that Secretary Richardson is wearing the smile that never fades.

The Y sustains another loss in the departure of Office Assistant Secretary Gustav Ziprik, for his home at Middletown, Conn., where he has responded to Uncle Sam's call to army service. "Zip," as he was familiarly known by his hundreds of friends in the Warren district, has been in the employ of the association since last November, and was well liked and respected by the entire membership, and will be greatly missed because of his sunshiny disposition and spirit of helpfulness.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Sunday night movie at 8
