

METAL MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Lead steady spot $7.10@7.25. Zinc steady spot East St. Louis delivery $7.00@7.10. Bar silver foreign .64%. Copper quiet, spot and futures .137@.14.

VOL. 26—NO. 286

BISBEE, ARIZONA, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 1, 1922

COPPER PRICES

Average month of October.....13722
Average month of October.....13622
Average week ending 11-1-22.....13562
Average week ending 11-22-22.....13641
Close week ending 11-22-22.....13650

Price Five Cents

TIGER PAYS TRIBUTE TO LINCOLN'S MEMORY

Jury Acquits Accused of Enge Slaying

EFFORTS MADE TO IMPLICATE BURGE FAILURE

Jury Returns Verdict of Not Guilty After More than 20 Hours' Deliberation

TRIAL LASTED 7 DAYS

Young Sons of Accused Rush to 'Take Daddy Back to Louisiana' on Verdict

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Nov. 30.—Thomas W. Burge, on trial for the murder of Iver Enge, former orchard keeper of Phoenix, was found not guilty by a jury in the Yavapai county superior court late today, after more than 20 hours' deliberation.

Burge's acquittal followed a trial lasting seven days, during which William E. Acker, already under sentence of death for the same offense, took the stand against Burge as a prosecution witness.

Iver Enge was found unconscious June 12, last, in a ravine near a lonely road eight miles south of Prescott. He had been beaten with a heavy instrument and stabbed with a knife. He died in Prescott a month later.

Investigations disclosed that he left Prescott in his automobile June 11, accompanied by two men.

Burge, arrested later at Yuma, Ariz., and Acker, traced to Los Angeles, were alleged to have been the two men in the automobile and to have committed the assault which resulted in Enge's death.

Acker, who was tried first, was convicted and sentenced to hang tomorrow, but his case was appealed to the state supreme court and he was granted a stay of execution.

Burge, taking the stand in his own defense, admitted that he had traveled with Acker in Enge's automobile after the alleged assault but denied any knowledge of the crime. He told of his whereabouts on June 11 and his testimony was corroborated by a second witness.

Acker, testifying against the advice of his own attorneys, declared that Burge accompanied him to the scene of the alleged crime. The prosecution asked him no questions concerning the actual assault.

The case went to the jury at 8:30 o'clock last night. At noon today

British Minister's Recall Constitutes Break in Relations

LAUSANNE, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Spokesmen for the British delegation here declare that the recall of British minister Lindley from Athens with his entire embassy staff constitutes a break in diplomatic relations.

The only British official left in the Greek capital is C. H. Bentick, who, it is explained, remains as a member of the financial commission, and not as a diplomat.

Weather Report

ARIZONA: Fair Friday, somewhat warmer; Saturday fair.
COLORADO: Generally fair Friday, somewhat colder east portion; Saturday fair, rising temperature.
NEW MEXICO: Fair Friday, colder extreme east portion; Saturday fair.
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA: Cloudy and probably showers.
WEST TEXAS: Friday fair, colder; Saturday fair.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT

Readings made at 7 o'clock last night for the preceding 24 hours:
Lowest temperature 34. Highest 51.
Precipitation 10 inches. Total this year 18.88 inches.
Direction of wind NW. Weather changeable.
Lowest temperature this month 27. Highest 76.
Precipitation to this date last year 16.77 inches.

Dobbin Is Qualified for Any Swimming Championship Title

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—A Boston horse, whose usual task is to draw a newspaper delivery wagon qualified as a long distance swimmer when it was rescued from the Charles river late today after spending 36 hours in the water. The horse was still swimming when found, but later went to an animal hospital to recover from a bad chill. The horse had run away early Wednesday morning and dived through a drawbridge over the Charles river. The harbor police searched for the animal in vain.

Late today a watchman saw the horse swim out from under a pier and make for the open sea. A stern chase in a dory followed and the swimmer was roped and towed to shore.

POPE JOINS IN U. S. FESTIVAL

Receives Students of American College and Addresses Them on Thanksgiving

ROME, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—For the first time in the history of the Catholic church, the pope joined in an American national festival when he insisted this evening upon receiving the students of the American College and addressed them on the topic of Thanksgiving day.

The students, numbering 180, were accompanied to the audience chamber by Cardinal Biletti and by the rector and vice-rector of the college.

In his address, the pope said: "National Thanksgiving. It is a noble idea on the part of your people—choosing the day for prayer. Men who lack prayer lack one of the essentials of life. Your country has indeed been blessed by Almighty God."

In accepting an offering of 1200 lire from the students and their superiors, he thanked them "for the help you have given me for the suffering Russians, mown down by pestilence, famine and misery."

The pope said that, through the American students, he wished to congratulate the entire American people and express his gratitude for the generosity they had shown on every occasion of need. In his address, the pontiff said:

"It is consoling to see the heads of nations fixing days for the people to pray to and thank God for blessings received. Nations doing this cannot but prosper materially and spiritually. I am with you, with your people on the day of thanksgiving. We are praying together."

Veteran Member of House Reported Ill

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Representative James R. Mann of Illinois, veteran Republican member and former floor leader of his party in the house, was said tonight to be seriously ill of pneumonia at his home here. He was taken ill last Thursday.

Mr. Mann was stricken with a chill and it was believed at first that he had an attack of pleurisy but later it was realized that pneumonia had developed, both lungs being affected. He is sixty-four years of age.

GOVERNMENT PREPARING CIVIL SUITS TO RECOVER HUGE SUMS ALLEGED TO BE OVERCHARGES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Additional civil suits involving $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 which the government hopes to recover for alleged overcharges and waste in connection with the construction of certain army cantonments during the war, are being prepared by the department of justice and, it was understood today probably will be filed within 10 days.

The first of the department's civil suits against war camp contractors were filed last week, and it was under-

HARVEY SPEAKS UPON BRITISH-U. S. RELATIONS

Outlines Six Points as Good Formula for National Policy of United States

'OUGHT TO BE CORDIAL'

Declares Uncle Sam Believes in Helping Those Nations Who Are Helping Selves

MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—George Harvey, the American ambassador, speaking as the guest of honor at a Thanksgiving dinner of the Anglo-American society tonight outlined in six points what he considered a good formula for the national policy of the United States. The points as given by Mr. Harvey were:

First, to foster the strength of the republic by just legislation and economy at home.

Second, to preserve to the nations of the world the blessings of peace.

Third, to strive to cultivate and maintain a concert of Europe.

Fourth, to avoid needless and entangling engagements.

Fifth, to acknowledge the equal rights of all nations.

Sixth, the foreign policy of the United States should always be inspired by love of freedom.

Mr. Harvey, who responded to the toast "cordial relations," said a very few words would comprise a comprehensively adequate response.

"The relations between Great Britain and the United States both between governments and peoples, ought to be cordial, and they are," he said. "They should continue to be cordial, and they shall. What more need be said? The toast has been proposed and the response has been given. Argument is unnecessary."

(Continued on Page Five)

GOVERNOR WILL NOT INTERVENE

Woman's 'Confession' Fails to Save Mahoney From Death Penalty on Gallows

SEATTLE, Nov. 30.—After considering written statements by James A. Mahoney and his sister, Mrs. Dolores Johnson, each "confessing" that the writer had slain Mahoney's wife, Mrs. Kate Morris Mahoney, acting governor William J. Coyle, tonight finally refused to interfere with the hanging of Mahoney tomorrow.

Mr. Coyle said Warden Pace, of the state penitentiary at Walla Walla where Mahoney is to be hanged at daybreak, had reported to him over the telephone that Mahoney had made a confession of the crime which Mrs. Johnson purported to confess.

Lee Johnston, attorney for Mahoney, tonight made a vain effort to sell to the Seattle Post-Intelligencer for $2000 a manuscript that he said was a confession by his client. This is believed to be the confession on which Mr. Pace based his report to Mr. Coyle.

GOVERNMENT PREPARING CIVIL SUITS TO RECOVER HUGE SUMS ALLEGED TO BE OVERCHARGES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Additional civil suits involving $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 which the government hopes to recover for alleged overcharges and waste in connection with the construction of certain army cantonments during the war, are being prepared by the department of justice and, it was understood today probably will be filed within 10 days.

The first of the department's civil suits against war camp contractors were filed last week, and it was understood then that they were forerunners of other actions. It also was indicated that criminal proceedings were possible.

The actions brought last week involved the construction of Camps Upton, Sherman, Jackson and Funston and sought the recovery from the involved constructing companies of more than $20,000,000. Cantonments built during the war cost the government $208,000,000 and it is said Attorney General Daugherty hopes to recover between $60,000,000 and $80,000,000 as over charges.

Captured Bandit Is Fooled When Loot Was Divided

PUEBLO, Colo., Nov. 30.—One of the two bandits who yesterday held up and robbed the cashier and assistant cashier of the Costilla county bank at San Acacio, Colo., locking the two employees in the vault and escaped with more than three thousand dollars, was captured just across the New Mexico-Colorado state line, according to advices to the Pueblo chief of police. The bandit, whose name was given as Charles Jordan, said the posse was so close upon them that escape together was impossible. In dividing the money Jordan took what he believed was half, but when he was captured it was found he had 270 one dollar bills, only a small portion of the loot.

U. S. PROTESTS GO UNHEEDED

Greek Executions Cause Sensation in Sofia Where 24 Ministers Await Trial

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The summary execution of the former members of the Greek cabinet caused a sensation here, where 24 former government ministers are awaiting sentence or trial under similar charges.

Eleven of the prisoners were members of the Radoslavoff cabinet, which brought Bulgaria into the war on the side of Germany, and the other 13 belonged to previous ministries who are charged with responsibility for Bulgaria's participation in the Balkan wars. It is feared the radical agrarians will demand the death penalty. The American and allied ministers in Sofia have appealed to the government without result for the release of the members of the Gueshoff, Malinoff and Todoroff cabinets, which included four graduates of the American college in Constantinople. These men were charged with "having made insufficient diplomatic preparations for the war of 1912."

Under the placisette of November 19, last, the Bulgarian people voted to try them by a special court consisting of war-wounded and widows. King Boris interceded in their behalf but the government ignored his appeal.

It is believed Great Britain and other countries will sever diplomatic relations with Bulgaria if the former officials are executed.

(Continued on Page Five)

HOUSE VETERAN MEMBER PASSES

Representative Mann, of Ill., Dies at His Home After Brief Illness

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Representative James R. Mann of Illinois died at his home here tonight after a brief illness.

Mr. Mann, who had served for a quarter of a century as a member of the house, was stricken a week ago, first with a chill. Pneumonia developed his condition became desperate, and the end came at 11:15 o'clock.

With him at the end were Mrs. Mann and the physician. It was said that although he had recently passed two restless nights, his condition did not definitely develop for the worse until 1 o'clock this afternoon. He rallied slightly at 6 o'clock but again suffered a relapse and sank rapidly.

No plans were made for the funeral tonight but it was said that the sergeant of arms of the house would be communicated with tomorrow to assist in making the arrangements. It is understood that a funeral service in Chicago is in contemplation and that Mr. Mann will be buried there beside his son, who died four years ago. He is survived only by the widow.

He was born in New York in 1870, was graduated from Yale in 1892, was married to Elsie Stillman, daughter of the late capitalist. In 1898 Mr. Rockefeller became treasurer of the Standard Oil company of New York, which office he resigned in 1911 to go into banking and other financial enterprises.

Declares Must Play in Important Role

PARIS, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—A French high commissioner in the Pacific is indispensable, Leon Archimbaud, reporter of the budget for the colonies, declared in a report which he has just communicated to the chamber of deputies. The Pacific particularly since the Washington conference has become the economic center of the world he says, and France must play an important part by the side of Great Britain, United States and Japan.

MAKE HEADWAY ON PLANS FOR FARMERS' LOANS

Senators Confer With Harding on Financial Relief Measure Proposed

SHALL UTILIZE BOARD

President Gives His General Approval to Plans at Outlined at Conference

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The new administration program for immediate financial relief to farmers was formulated and practically perfected today at a conference between President Harding, Secretary Wallace and 12 Republican senators headed by Senator Watson of Indiana. It will be put before congress at once and pressed with the full force of the administration.

Broadly, the plans bring together in one administration measure, the approved portion of various relief measures already pending in congress and contains also provisions to make the intended relief available to the small farmers as well as to the large cattle raisers and grain growers.

The conference was arranged by Senator Watson who has been making an active survey of the question of relief. It was preceded by a series of conferences between Secretary Wallace and department of agriculture experts. Today President Harding kept his Thanksgiving dinner waiting while he heard the perfected program outline and gave his general approval.

The plan proposes to utilize the federal farm loan board as the agency through which relief is to be given. The details of the financing have been practically worked out. The general

(Continued on Page Five)

HOUSE VETERAN MEMBER PASSES

Representative Mann, of Ill., Dies at His Home After Brief Illness

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Representative James R. Mann of Illinois died at his home here tonight after a brief illness.

Mr. Mann, who had served for a quarter of a century as a member of the house, was stricken a week ago, first with a chill. Pneumonia developed his condition became desperate, and the end came at 11:15 o'clock.

With him at the end were Mrs. Mann and the physician. It was said that although he had recently passed two restless nights, his condition did not definitely develop for the worse until 1 o'clock this afternoon. He rallied slightly at 6 o'clock but again suffered a relapse and sank rapidly.

No plans were made for the funeral tonight but it was said that the sergeant of arms of the house would be communicated with tomorrow to assist in making the arrangements. It is understood that a funeral service in Chicago is in contemplation and that Mr. Mann will be buried there beside his son, who died four years ago. He is survived only by the widow.

MARSHAL FOCH IS HELD UP AS MODEL BY U. S. AMBASSADOR IN PARIS SPEECH TO EX-SOLDIERS

PARIS, Nov. 30.—The American ambassador, Myron T. Herrick, at the Thanksgiving dinner of the American Legion tonight urged all the members to take Marshal Foch as their model through life.

"If you take him as your model you will never go astray from the field of public duty and personal sacrifice so nobly set forth in the preamble of your constitution," said the ambassador.

"I know the fine things which the Legion has set out to accomplish. I

Steamer Runs Into Terrific Gale and Score Injured

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Swept forward by a 120 mile an hour gale waves which swept over the bridge and threw spray over the funnels forced through port holes and doors of the steamship President Wilson Tuesday, and brought injury to a score of her passengers and crew. Captain Robert Stuerpich, commander of the vessel in today from Trieste, said the storm was the most furious in his experience.

The storm began last Monday, but did not attain its greatest fury until Tuesday morning. A big wave stove in port lights, wrecked a glass of two inch thickness in the bridge injuring Captain Ettore Zar, former commander and battered down a door leading to the main salon. It swept a half score passengers before it, flinging them down the vessel's grand staircase. Commander G. B. Bernardelli, royal Italian navy and Miss Clare Mary Frank, of Washington, received severe injuries.

FIGHT ON BILL IS JUST BEGUN

Democrats Prepared to Resume Filibuster on Dyer Anti-Lynching Measure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Senate Democrats, refreshed by the holiday rest, announced tonight they were fully prepared to resume tomorrow their filibuster against the Dyer anti-lynching bill. Republican leaders indicated that the majority was equally prepared to continue its fight in behalf of the measure. The only question, accordingly seemed to be whether the filibuster would be broken by the end of the extra session.

Whether the adjournment would be taken tomorrow night by both houses or whether the extra session so far as the senate is concerned would lapse into the regular session Monday noon was a matter about which leaders tonight had made no decision. House leaders were understood to be preparing a resolution for sine die adjournment of both houses tomorrow night and Republican leaders in the senate indicated such a proposal would be acceptable to them. Democratic senators said they had in store a number of moves designed to prevent the senate taking up the anti-lynching bill. Senator Harrison of Mississippi, one of the Democratic floor leaders in the filibuster said he and his colleagues had just begun to fight.

"Tuesday when we started the filibuster, the Republicans succeeded after four hours, in getting the journal of the previous day approved," he added. "Yesterday the Republicans were unable to get even this much done and they will be doing well tomorrow even to get started on the journal of Wednesday's session."

Last of U. S. Troops on Rhine May Soon Be Home, Is Report

COBLENZ, Nov. 30.—Notwithstanding the fact that no official information to the effect has been received here, a rumor that the American troops on the Rhine are soon going home was again circulated today.

While anxiously awaiting definite news, the soldiers did not allow their anxiety to interfere with their celebration of Thanksgiving. Races, two football games and a boxing match, together with the usual holiday dinners figured in the day's program.

know how much you have already accomplished in difficult days. I wish you God-speed on your journey and when you arrive at unmarked cross roads, and doubt should arise as to the right direction to take, ask yourselves which path would Marshal Foch follow and the answer will clear your doubts or strengthen your decision."

Marshal Foch was present when the ambassador delivered his eulogy. The Legion dinner and dance were attended by several hundred ex-service men and a large number from the American colony.

FRANCE'S AGED WAR STATESMAN BARES HEAD TO MARTYRED DEAD

Lincoln, 'One of Greatest Men Who Ever Lived,' Is Motif of Laudation

PUTS WREATH ON TOMB

Dedicates Another Wreath to Dead Soldier, Among First to Land in France

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 30.—Georges Clemenceau bared his aged head at the tomb of Abraham Lincoln today and paid tribute to him as "one of the greatest men that ever lived."

"After the very appropriate and moving words I have heard, I hardly dare say more," he said. "Don't believe I came here to try to consecrate such a memory."

Quoting from Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, he said he hoped, in the words of Lincoln, rather to be consecrated, that what remained to him of his life might be devoted to the service of mankind.

"I came in souvenir of the valiant men who fell on the fields of France in the same cause for which he was murdered, that we are going to try to go in the path of freedom," said Clemenceau. "Here I am, a private citizen. No more than any other who has tried to do his duty, hoping to be not like Lincoln, but to be so near like him as I can."

"Let us say no more. Here before one of the greatest men that ever lived, all my heart goes out to America and the great man she produced."

Before he spoke, bareheaded in the cold mist beneath the leaden skies that overhung Oakridge cemetery, the Tiger entered the marble hall beneath the tall, plain Lincoln shaft, and laid a wreath on the sarcophagus beneath which the martyred Lincoln lay.

He said no word, stood motionless for a moment, laid the wreath and walked silently out. At the end of his speech, Clemenceau was asked by former United States Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, master of ceremonies, to dedicate another wreath as his tribute to a dead soldier of the Rainbow division which first went to France.

"This is my tribute to the American

(Continued on Page Five)

Watchman Dies in Endeavor to Save Papers From Blaze

COLEMAN, Alberta, Nov. 30.—One man is missing and property damage estimated at $3,000,000 resulted from a fire which destroyed the power house of the International Coal and Coke company here early today.

The power house supplied Coleman with water and light and these services having been suspended indefinitely.

William Machin, night engineer is missing. He left the building when it was considered unsafe to remain longer, but later, although warned not to do so, he re-entered to procure some papers, and has not been seen since.

Prince Andrew Will Be Court-Martialed

ATHENS, Nov. 30.—The following statement was issued today: "General Dousmanis, former chief of the general staff and General Valetas, former chief of staff in Asia Minor, have been arrested, and a warrant has been issued for the arrest of General Papoulas, former commander in chief of the army in Asia Minor."

"The trial of Prince Andrew, (brother of former King Constantine), who commanded an army corps at the time of the Sakaria operations, begins next week."

BUDDIES ATTENTION!

All members of the American Legion in the district are requested to be at the legion's home tomorrow night (Friday) at 8 o'clock. An excellent musical program and plenty of good eats is the order of the day.