

ED. WILLIAMS, Editor.

MINERAL PARK, NOVEMBER 18, 1884.

EDITORIAL NOTICE.

To the readers of the Miner—Mr. Hyde, the regular editor of this paper, having temporarily retired from the chair, to be absent from the office for four or five weeks, the duties of the position will, during his absence, be performed by the undersigned.

During the time we remain in charge the Miner will continue to be Republican in politics.

Respectfully,
ED. WILLIAMS.

The Result.

From the best information which we have been able to obtain, we conclude that Grover Cleveland has been elected President of the United States. If this be the case it becomes the duty of every American citizen to lay aside party prejudice and personal feeling, and honestly unite in sustaining him in the administration of the government. We are this to ourselves as the peace and glory of our common country rests in our cheerful recognition of the will of the majority. Let the count of the vote of the State of New York, be fairly made, and, with the guards which each party have placed over the count it cannot be otherwise than correct, and when it decides the issue, let all doubt be buried and all petty, suspicious bitterness be cast aside. Pending on election we are as a people naturally partisans, after the election we should be Americans. A presidential election is not a contest for men, but a conflict of opinion and the selection of one man in preference to another does not indicate that the man selected is either better or worse than the one rejected; but simply indicates that the mass of the people of the United States favor the particular policy of government of which the successful candidate is the exponent. This has exhibited itself in every election which we have had and we do not believe that there has ever been a bad man placed in the presidential seat. The people at large rarely make a mistake, and at all times the government has been safe, no matter who was at its head; as safe with Taylor who of all the presidents selected was perhaps by education and previous training the least fitted of the number for the position, as with Jefferson, who, we think possessed the proper qualification for the office in a higher degree than any other man who has ever filled the chair. The president is but the pilot of the ship of state, every deck hand knows the channel and he dare not, can not run her on a sand bar.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

THE KENTUCKY QUEEN.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 11.—Maud S. proved herself a greater mare than ever her late owner, Mr. William H. Vanderbilt, or her present owner, Robert Bonner, ever thought she was. Hiram Woodruff, the old time trainer of trotting horses, laid it down as iron clad that you could never have a fast mile after frost had struck the ground. Last week ice formed probably and took the elasticity out of the ground. The day was bright for November, but the expert does not look for muscles to be flexible when Indian summer comes. There was a large gathering of the very best people of the blue grass region at the fair grounds. On the track at half past 11 o'clock Maud came out behind the Queen and gave her a warning up mile in 2:27. The judges and timers were Major H. C. McDowell, Colonel R. West and W. H. Wilson. In the opposite stand Mr. Bonner had his watch, flanked on both sides by Gen. J. Robinson, Mr. L. Broadhead, Mr. Richard Anderson Hamilton Busby. The conditions under which the performance was made, were written in the record book. Maud S. will start to beat her own record of 2:09, and should she beat the record, "Woodburn Farm" where she was bred, will commemorate the achievement by awarding to her through the Kentucky trotting horse breeders' association a cap with the time made by her engraved thereon. Bar jogged around the track, went to the head of the stretch, came down and nodded for the word. The great mare did not make a single mistake. The time of the first quarter was made in 32, and of the half mile 1:04, the three quarter pole was reached in 1:37, and here Mr. Bowerman joined her with a runner hitched to a stick. The finish was strong and the judges stopped their watches at 2:09. The majority of the outside watches made the time 2:09. When the queen returned to the stable for Blair to weigh the scene was indescribable. The crowd filled the quarter stretch and cheered until their throats were husky. It was the greatest performance of the kind ever witnessed in the world. Kentuckians shouted as only Kentuckians can.

A KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN.

Cincinnati, Nov. 11.—Official returns from the Ninth Kentucky congressional district show the election of W. H. Wadsworth, republican, by a majority of 102.

A DEMOCRATIC RESOLUTION.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 12.—Among the resolutions adopted at a grand democratic meeting last night was the following: Resolved, That we will welcome the day when there will be no "solid south" and no "solid north," but a solid union as it was eighty years ago, and when all American citizens, white, black, native and adopted, at home and abroad, shall stand equally before the law and be protected by our country's flag.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Secretary McPherson says, according to his figures, subject to correction, but not likely to be changed, the democrats will have 183 members in the next house, republicans 141, and greenbackers 1 (Waller). This gives the democrats a majority of 41 over all. The republicans gain 22 over their present representation. The democrats lost 17 and greenbackers or independents lost 4.

A FATAL ENCOUNTER WITH INDIANS.

New Orleans, Nov. 11.—The Times-Democrat's Ft. Smith, Ark., special says: Deputy Marshal Menhoun has just returned from Indian Territory where he had a fatal encounter with the Indians who attacked his party and rescued thirty United States prisoners, who he had under arrest, en route to Ft. Smith. Two of the attacking Indians were killed and several wounded. Two of the Marshal's posse were seriously wounded. Nineteen prisoners were brought in by the marshal and his deputies.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York, Nov. 13.—The New York Herald, in its summary of the vote of New York state by counties as far as ascertained by official count, gives Cleveland a plurality of 1,254 votes in case the six counties, however, where the canvassers have adjourned owing to some technicality and where pluralities may be changed unofficial figures are given. The votes for Butler and St. John are as follows: St. John 22,789, Butler 12, 549. In the counties already canvassed there are no material changes in the majorities since yesterday. Blaine has gained one vote in Columbia and two in St. Lawrence county, and lost two in Schuyler, making his net gain one vote. Cleveland has gained six votes in Kings and lost ten in Oneida county, making his net loss four. This reduces Cleveland's plurality five votes, making it now 1,254. Only three counties have not finished the official count—Franklin, Greene and New York.
