Grover is soon to have the silver moon electroplated so that it will hereafter give forth a sheeny light.

The democrats and populists combined on a citizens ticket in Denver at the late election and carried a great many of the offices.

Judge Baker has decided that the immigration commissioner law is unconstitutional. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

A grocer in New York is trying to collect a bill of $3 40 from Grover Cleveland for cheese supplied him in his New York residence. If he succeeds there is yet a chance for the return of prosperity.

The Los Angeles Herald proposes the names of John Griffin Carlisle and William C. Whitney for president and vice-president on the democratic ticket next year. What a lovely pair to draw to!

The MOHAVE COUNTY MINER, published at Kingman, with Anson H. Smith and M. A. Sawyer as editors, has entered the fourteenth year of its existence. The MINER is among the brightest and newest weeklies that come to our exchange table. On December 1st it will come out with six pages, its former size. Yuma Sentinel.

Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, is said to have in process of incubation a proposition to lay before congress (no pun) to unite the Mississippi river and the great lakes; to build a boulevard across the continent from Atlantic to Pacific ocean. Quay may be a villain, a ward healer and all that, but of such are the men who have made our great cities. Boss Tweed was a tough old sinner, but New York City was improved to a greater extent under his administration than in all the years since he passed away.

William Arnett, who was sentenced to five years in Yuma for the killing of a man in Gold Basin four years ago, was pardoned by Gov. Hughes a few days ago, his time having expired. As he stepped from the prison he was arrested for the murder of Sam Dittenhoffer, in Coconino county, in 1892, near the Navajo reservation. He will be taken to Flagstaff, where he will be tried next month. His true name is Thomas Collins.

A story is going the rounds of the press about the voyage of Lieut. Davis and party in the Grand Canyon. They tell how their boat had to be lowered into the canyon with ropes thousands of feet. Now, the fact of the matter is that their boat was hauled to the river over a good road from Peach Springs and shoved from the wagon into the water, and had they known as much about navigation as they did about the evolution of the jag they would have made the run to Needles in safety.

As an evidence of the way news items are garbled by the territorial press we cite the following:

"Charles Sherman has struck an immense body of rich ore in an old claim on the west side of Sherman peak, says the Tombstone Prospector. At a depth of eight or ten feet he has encountered nuggets of rich silver. The pay streak is about ten inches wide. He already has a nice little stake on the dump, and if the streak remains for ten feet further he will be able to take in the next centennial."—Phoenix Gazette.

This item appeared in the MINER of two weeks ago and was clipped by the Prospector without credit. And right here we will say that the Prospector gives less credit to exchanges than any paper in Arizona. It clips the items and a reader of the paper would naturally think the event related had occurred in Tombstone or Cochise county, when it possibly occurred four hundred miles away. Bro. Hattich, either kill your exchange editor or turn him over to the tender mercies of an outraged newspaper fraternity.

Health Broken

Bad Cough—Weak and Thin—After the Grip

Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and Now Feels Well.

Mr. J. C. McCabe, of Chama, New Mexico, is a well known locomotive engineer. He is a member of the Sierra Blanca, Div. No. 209, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. His occupation being such as to expose him in all kinds of weather, he was an easy prey for the grip, followed by a severe cough. He fell off in strength and weight as well as in flesh, and in fact was feeling miserable. He took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and what it has done for him is told in his own words:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Last November I was seized with the grip and for some time lay around with a severe cough. I was unable to follow my occupation, that of locomotive engineer. I was prevailed upon to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since taking the medicine, I have gained in weight and I also Feel Splendid. Out of one-half dozen bottles, I have taken four, and it has benefited me greatly. I can highly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. Several of my neighbors are now taking the medicine and speak favorably of it." J. C. McCABE, Chama, N. M.

Hood's Pills are hand-made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.
