 We now have Peabody butter in stock and will carry it regularly through the summer. Its quality is well known.
 GADDIS & PERRY.

The 4th of July committees are getting right down to work.

The dance last night at Lake Hall was an enjoyable affair and was well attended.

Supt. E. G. McDermitt of the White Hills company, was in Kingman for a short time this week.

The pavilion will be 75x100 feet. This will give plenty of room and everybody can dance. It will be erected on the south side of the railroad, corner of Front and Fourth streets.

The Kingman base ball club will meet at the ball grounds tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock for practice. Every member of the club should be on the grounds at the appointed time.

The infant child of Judge and Mrs. J. E. Perry died this morning of cholera-infantum. The funeral of the little one will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock from the family residence.

B. F. Langford, one of the owners of the Nighthawk mine, arrived in Kingman Monday morning from Lodi. He returned home Thursday night after transacting considerable business.

W. A. Laswell has bought George Bowers' livery stable and will hereafter conduct the business of that institution. Mr. Laswell is a popular and bustling young man and will make a success of his new undertaking.

M. J. Kennedy, a contractor of Flagstaff, Arizona, was in Kingman several days this week looking into the proposition of building a new jail for this county. He was accompanied by C. M. Funston, the goldbug editor of the Occocono Sun.

San Diego will celebrate July 4th in great shape. The feature will be the water carnival on the evening of the 4th, when the bay will be illuminated by miles of boats and floats with band and colored light. One fare on all railroads for round trip.

The Tyrolien Operetta has been thoroughly rehearsed by the company and when it is given to the public on the evening of July 5th it will be in the nature of a great musical treat. It will be interluded with many new features in the nature of solos, dances, etc.

The impression has been given out that T. J. Eaman has purchased all the purchasable cattle in northern Arizona. This is not so. There are thousands of cattle yet in the market and intending purchasers are hereby notified to that effect.

Sheriff Potts Thursday afternoon arrested a Mexican on a charge of horse-stealing. The animal was in his possession. Deputy Munds, of Yavapai county, came down Thursday night and took the Mexican to Prescott. It is thought he has been doing an extensive business in the horsestealing line.

Francisco Tapia, of Signal, arrived in Kingman Tuesday evening in search of a doctor. The day before while riding over the range for Koshland and Levy his horse fell, throwing him violently to the ground. One of the bones in his shoulder was broken and he was otherwise shaken up. Dr. Knight reduced the fracture, but it will be a long time before Mr. Tapia will be able to ride a broncho again.

One of Wallapai Charley's boys died Tuesday night and the remains were quietly buried according to the ceremonies of the white brethren. The young fellow had been sick for many months past with a complication of diseases and his death was expected daily. The Indians have been doing a big cry for weeks past and will wind up on July 4th with a cry to be participated in by the whole tribe.

A laughable incident occurred in Kingman a few days ago. A Dutchman came to town and boasted himself the possessor of a fifty-dollar nugget from the Chemehuevis mountain, and so aroused the cupidity of another Dutchman, that he proceeded to fill the nugget man up on beer, with the evident intention of "rolling" him for the gold when he fell by the wayside. He miscalculated the capacity of the Chemehuevis man and fell from overindulgence himself long before the other had got a good start. After sleeping off the effects of the liquor he hunted up his man again and proceeded to fix him for a certainty. Again he failed to drink the other fellow down. The boys were onto the proceedings and had lots of sport. It transpired that the man from the placer mines had no nugget but was just simply out for beer.

The Gem of Otero flour beats all other brands. For sale only by GADDIS & PERRY.

Many other purses will be given that are not herein enumerated.

The San Francisco papers tell of a laughable incident in a department of the superior court a few days ago. J. H. Berry, whom nearly everybody in this vicinity knows, had sued a jeweler of San Francisco for a diamond which he claimed was very valuable. The jeweler said the alleged diamond was a valueless crystal, and that it had been lost by one of the boys in the store. Berry claimed that he had many other diamonds in 'the rough, and the court ordered him to produce one, which he refused to do. The court then dismissed the case, after which Berry threatened to bring the matter before the grand jury. The court intimated that Berry was insane. While the judge was talking Berry placed his hand on his hip pocket, and thinking he was about to pull a gun, the honorable court jumped on a chair, calling wildly for some one to give him a gun. The court clerk and bailiff jumped on Berry, throwing him to the floor, where he was roughly handled, and then he was hustled off to a cell in the city prison. He was searched, but no weapon of any kind was found on him. He explained that he was simply reaching for his papers to show that he was all that he claimed to be. Arizonans should stay at home. San Francisco is too gay and startling a place for us.

Removal Sale.

We have a miscellaneous stock of shoes, boots, hats, dry goods, furnishing goods and notions, that we desire to close out before moving into our new quarters, to make room for the new and excellent line that we propose to carry. And in order to do this we now offer everything at reduced prices and we trust the general public will take advantage of this opportunity. Our new building will be the most modern and commodious of any in the northern part of the territory and we intend to carry a general assortment of goods that will be pleasing to all. These reductions are offered on a cash basis.

Come, come all, come every body and see us. GADDIS & PERRY.
