Dick Cleve is in from the C. O. D. mine.

W. B. Ridenour is down from Hackberry.

John St. Charles is in from the Red Gap mine.

Walter Fellows came up from Needles Thursday.

Dick Eshom is here from his ranch near Cedar.

J. E. Russell, a prescott attorney, had business here Thursday.

Ed Gooding was up from Needles a few days this week.

Ed Haskins, cowman from Hackberry, was here this week.

Jas. Uncapher, after a weeks' stay in Kingman, returned to Mineral Park today.

Assemblyman S. W. Tobey, and his clerk J. H. Rosenberger, returned from Phoenix Tuesday.

Frank Meredith came over from Chloride to meet Mrs. Meredith, who came from Los Angeles.

Jas. Irwin, who is clerking in Lovin & Withers store at Oatman, paid Kingman a visit this week.

M. Force, who has had a long siege of typhoid fever, has recovered and is again able to be on the street.

The Santa Fe has gotten out some bird's eye views of Kingman and railway approaches.

A. H. Rhodes, not being able to get a house to live in in Kingman has taken his family to Needles.

Bob Irving, who makes regular trips to Kingman, was interviewing people this week.

There will be a dance at the Elks' Hall tonight, given under the auspices of Kingman society young men.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manship have gone to housekeeping in the building recently vacated by F. E. Bennett.

Fred W. Morrison had legal business here this week. He will return to be in attendance at court in April.

Two automobiles are now in commission, prepared to take passengers from Kingman to any portion of the county.

Mrs. Ida Crozier has returned from Shasta county, California, where she has been visiting for the past few weeks.

Ira M. George is going to purchase an auto-truck of a ton and a half capacity for use between his slaughter house and city market.

Eight new windows have been put in the Methodist church, replacing the old ones and much improving the light of the interior.

Wm. Nelson was showing his property on Stockton Hill to a Tonopah man by the name of Lathan this week. Mr. Nelson has some good property that has produced well in the past.

Rev. T. R. Ragsdale held services in Ash Fork, Seligman and Hackberry this week, and will preach at the Methodist church to morrow. To fill the pulpits of these outlying towns he travels 230 miles.

Mrs. Carl Rummich and little daughter, are visiting friends in Kingman. Mrs. Rummich was a former resident of this place, but has resided for a number of years at Barstow, where Mr. Rummich has charge of the Harvey House.

A party of six men, who made a balloon ascension from Pasadena, were lost in a blizzard in the mountains for several days. One of them, Lane C. Gilliam is well known in Mohave county, having been connected with the Cedar mines a few years ago.

An Unnecessary Expense.

There is no need of being to the expense of sending for a doctor in any case of pain in the stomach, or colic when a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. No physician can prescribe a better medicine. For sale by H. H. Watkins.

Fred Stull is in from Chloride. Steve Tyler has found some good ore in a claim he is working above the C. O. D. mine.

Mrs. George Dinely and young son, arrived from San Diego Thursday night. They will reside in the home Mr. Dinely recently purchased from Joe Carrow.

P. McCardell has returned from a surveying trip in the country north of Kingman. He surveyed the Goldconda group for patent and ran the lines on the Ithica mine at Mineral Park.

A force of men is at work on the Windy Point mine at Mineral Park, driving a drift and using a box electric drill, said to be the largest ever brought to the country. A 25-h. p. engine furnishes the power.

W. C. Merry, who is postmaster at and has general charge of the Cedar mines, was a visitor to Kingman this week. Mr. Merry brings the news that the company will resume operations about the first of May.

A heavy rain fell on this section of the country during the week. In the mountains near Kingman the snow lies four feet deep. The streams in the canyons leading from the Wallapas are raging torrents that would float a boat.

At the recall election, held in Los Angeles yesterday, George Alexander was elected mayor. Samuel Schenck, police commissioner under the Harper administration, has been indicted for attempted bribery in protection of the "redlight" district, and the work of purification goes bravely on.

A ferocious looking dog, known as "Indian," proved that he was as dangerous as he appeared when he bit young Wesley Harris in the hand and leg. Even the family dog, instead of protecting his young master ably assisted the outsider, so the injured boy's father, by a few well directed shots sent them both into good-dog land.

There has been quite a stir in town property this week. Although prices have advanced since the first of the year fifty per cent, all inside lots are being snatched up by parties who wish to build. Seventy-five feet, east of the Miner office, was sold to A. Erickson for 400$. Henry Lovin bought three lots on Beale street and Wm. Studley purchased two on Park street, on which he will move a building from Chloride. Jas. Rank bought another lot adjoining the ones he owns on I e le street. H. Spellman purchased one on Pine street, west of Jos. Goodwin's residence, on which he is erecting a building. E. F. Thompson purchased 187 feet on Oak street, east of Mrs. J. N. Wilson's property. John Hughes and Louis Strzel secured lots east of Ira George's residence and will proceed to erect bachelor's quarters. Tom Devine has provided a home by buying acreage of Mrs. M. E. Cohenor north of Lake Villa. This is only a forerunner of the building boom which is to follow.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.

"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ills it is intended." For sale by H. H. Watkins.
