WIFE GETS DIVORCE ON HIS CHARGE; IS A SERIOUS AFFAIR

At the end of the primrose path lay marital disruption and divorce.

In the courts of Mohave county this week the case of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cook came up for consideration from two different angles. The first case was wherein R. R. Cook, an attorney of Chloride, sought to obtain a divorce from Mrs. Cook. The latter, upon presentation of the case, was given the divorce on her answer and cross-complaint.

The testimony in the divorce proceedings was of such a nature that a charge of pandering on a state warrant was brought against Cook, and it was announced by the prosecution that federal charges under the Mann act would be brought. Mrs. Cook was the only witness in this action, Cook's attorney waiving cross-examination and presentation of the case for the defense at the preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace J. H. Smith Wednesday afternoon. Cook was bound over to the superior court under bond of $2000, which was furnished and the defendant given his liberty.

Mrs. Cook testified in both proceedings that she had supported Cook for more than two years by leading a life of prostitution. Cook himself, testifying in the divorce proceedings, admitted that he had traveled in various states with the defendant and had received money earned by her while leading this kind of life.

Cook declares that the charges are the result of a "frame-up," and asserts that he will be able to clear himself of them.

AVOID USELESS XMAS PRESENTS THIS YEAR

"Join the Spugs" is the latest economy movement that is spreading over the entire United States. The Spugs in its initials stands for the Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving, probably one of the greatest extravagances of the American people today.

One hundred million dollars are spent annually in the giving of Christmas presents when a card would serve the same purpose. One hundred million dollars are also spent in giving Christmas presents in a reciprocal attitude, and joining the Spugs means nothing more than the proper economy in the distribution of Christmas gifts.

By the elimination of useless Christmas giving nothing will be lost and much will be gained, and it is a movement which should be widespread in Europe.

LANGS THEATER

"Mother of Mine," a screen version of one of the most beautiful and heart-appealing stories ever written. This story will pull at your heart as no other story will. It is powerful in its moral and will make us all think of mother and you will leave pleased and delighted, and you will be a much better man after having seen this wonderful picture.

Shooting Good on Colo. River

Duck shooting on the Colorado river west of Oatman is good, according to Dr. H. R. Shannon, who spent last Sunday and Monday on the river. Dr. Shannon, S. D. Stewart and Dave Nash, with their families, formed a camping party and report having had a splendid outing. The only trouble about shooting this year, according to Dr. Shannon, is the poor ammunition. "One would imagine that we were having a sham battle," said Dr. Shannon. "But we didn't bag many ducks until we bought a few old boxes of shells at Fort Mohave." The poor ammunition is attributed to war conditions.

LANGS THEATER

Thursday, November 8, will be the favorite day again, because Mary Pickford is coming in her masterpiece, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." This production wherever shown in cities where they run them a week, has turned people away every day. It has had a bigger drawing power than any other production within the last year. This even drew bigger crowds than the "Little American," so there is no use for further comment.

Two shows, 6:30 and 8 p. m.

OATMAN RED CROSS WOMEN VERY BUSY

Red Cross workers are active at Oatman, according to a party of Kingman women who visited the work room at that camp last Thursday. Mrs. J. E. Perry, chairman of the organization committee of the Mohave County Red Cross chapter, accompanied by Miss Kathleen Kehoe, secretary; Mrs. David Collier and Mrs. S. S. Jones, spent Thursday afternoon assisting the ladies of the Oatman branch get their organization perfected and in giving such advice as they were able to give by reason of their experience in the work room here.

The Oatman ladies agreed to assume the responsibility for preparing one-third of the 100 Christmas boxes the Mohave county chapter has been called upon to ship to headquarters. Most of the time of the Oatman branch is taken up now in knitting. They expect, however, later to be doing general Red Cross work.
