The following Afro-Americans were selected as alternates to the state convention: Dr. Samuel Burdett, W. P. Morris and D. W. Griffin, editor of the Bee.

Rev. George H. Thomas, of Koslyn, was the only regularly elected delegate to the late state convention at Ellensburg from the Afro-American Washington family.

Charley Edmonds, well known hereabouts, was dangerously injured in the mines at Roslyn last Wednesday. It is said that he cannot survive.

Among the delegates to the county convention from Franklin were to be found: Dr. J. J. Smith, Messrs. H. B. Jones, George W. Johnson, W. P. Morris and others. Dr. Smith was sent to the state convention as delegate and Mr. Morris his alternate.

Mr. John T. Gayton, who has been head waiter at the Ranier club for the past six years or more, has been promoted to the stewardship of the club. He thoroughly understands every detail about the club and has the absolute respect and confidence of its entire membership. Slowly but surely, has he worked himself up from position to position until he now stands at its head, in which position he will prove an ideal man. Mr. Aus Anderson succeeds Mr. Gayton as head waiter and Mr. Will H. Taylor takes Anderson's place.

Amusements.

SEATTLE THEATRE.
Paderewski, the World's Greatest Pianist, will appear at the Seattle Theatre for one night only, Friday, April 13th. So many vague and misleading statements have recently been made in regard to the present physical condition and future plans of the eminent pianist, Paderewski, that an authentic statement will surely be welcomed by the many in this country who have listened to his delightful music and who have since then been disturbed at times by the many contradictory rumors in regard to him.

Such a statement is now forthcoming from one of Paderewski's friends, who visited him a short time ago and who learned from him much that will be of general interest.

Direction: S. H. FRIEDLANDER & CO.

THIRD AVENUE THEATRE.
The attraction at the Third Avenue theatre during the past week, which will close Saturday night with the usual Saturday afternoon matinee, has proven the best of the season. "Coontown 400," is a very clever travesty and the artists presenting it are all good actors. Adgie and her lions and the Leander brothers make up a combination worth much higher prices than are being charged at the Third Avenue.

Next week the attraction at the Third Avenue will be Edwin R. Lang's company in Queen's Evidence and Rip Van Winkle. A benefit will be given for the aid of the female auxiliary of the Woodmen of the World next Wednesday evening.

Hundreds of Miles
Of stone ballasted or clean gravelled track for the Northern Pacific's North Coast Limited to run over, when it starts, on April 29. The absence of dust will make that Observation Car a thing of beauty and a joy forever.
