

PERSONAL

Rev. F. T. Walker has moved his residence to 216 Twenty-sixth Avenue south.

Mr. Charlie Bailey has returned to the city after spending a few weeks at Green River Hot Springs.

The Young Ladies' Soiree Club met at the home of Miss Luetta Smith, the president, last Thursday evening.

A Musicale will be given by the young people of the A. M. E. church next Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the trustee board.

The Silverleaf Musical club, has which is an adjunct to the Mt. Zion Baptist church, gave a most successful concert Thursday evening, February 4th, which was very generally attended.

Mr. Andrew R. Black and Mr. John F. Cragwell spent last Sunday in Bremerton, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Myer. Mrs. Myer, who has been in bad health for the past six weeks is much improved.

The Unique Social Club met last Wednesday at the residence of Mr. Gayton, and out of respect to the death of Mrs. W. S. Murray, did not hold its usual social hop. The next meeting will be a St. Valentine social, only it will be held Wednesday instead of St. Valentine's Day, which comes on Sunday.

The Booker T. Washington Literary Society held its regular meeting last Wednesday, which, on account of the stormy weather, was not so well attended as on previous occasions. Rev. Walker gave a short but impressive talk before the Society which was well received. Mrs. J. Woodson sang a solo; Miss Collins and Mr. Holland favored the Society with a vocal duet; Miss Gay recited, and Miss Freeman favored those present with a piano solo. The meeting was highly enjoyed by those present.

The many friends of Mrs. W. S. Murray will regret to learn of her death, which occurred at the hospital last Tuesday evening. She underwent a surgical operation the day prior, and for a time seemed to be rallying from the effects very nicely, but late in the evening she took a turn for the worse and died before day. Mr. and Mrs. Murray have been residents of Seattle for a number of years, and own valuable property in the city. He is at present steward of a Jewish club on Broadway. She was buried Thursday from the Bonney-Watson undertaking parlors, Rev. S. S. Freeman officiating.

Lost hope is a fatal disease, and he who has it should lose no time or money with doctors.

Find the man who is exceedingly anxious to go to heaven and you will find one who will never be admitted into heaven.

To go out of your way to make one single sad heart happy is more valuable than five hundred prayers offered on bended knees.

When men get too old to do wrong and grow good and virtuous in old age, they are only offering God the devil's leavings.

It might improve our social condition some if each of us kept a good-sized cemetery in which to bury the faults of our friends.

You are free to do everything but interfere with the rights, liberty and comfort of the other fellow. Your liberty ceases where his begins.
