

MASONS IN SESSION

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Washington and Oregon has been in session in this city since last Monday and has done a vast amount of routine work. Chief among the things it did was to incorporate as the Grand Lodge of Washington, with jurisdiction over Oregon. By this move it is hoped that the two factions heretofore existing in this state will be united into one sovereign lodge.

The installation of new officers and the laying of the corner stone of Mt. Zion Baptist church are the plans for today (Friday), with a grand ball tonight.

The delegates present are: Crockett Ross, C. S. Parker, J. B. Hogan, William Scott, F. A. Stokes, C. S. Ryan, J. B. Beckham and E. Petway, of Spokane; S. C. Logan, W. D. Allen, G. W. Kinney and J. W. Payne, of Portland; C. C. Crowley, Henry Berry and Gordon Solomon, of Everett; H. J. Asberry, D. W. Frye and S. S. Freeman, of Tacoma.

There are two fraternal delegates from California present, in the persons of C. H. Tinsley of San Francisco, and W. T. Asberry of Oakland.

PERSONAL

In deference to ceremonies at the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon, the regular meeting of The Sunday Forum will be deferred until the following Sunday, June 29. A musical program has been arranged for the occasion, which will be found in the next issue of The Seattle Republican.

Joe Gans and Dave Holly, two of Uncle Sam's dusky sons, will battle in the fistic arena next Monday evening at Pleasant Beach. Joe has played long and well in the fistic arena and if he, himself, tells the truth, has made about $100,000 out of the game, most of which, he says, he has "blowed in on sure tips" in horse-racing; which reminds us of the old adage: "a fool and his money soon part."

On Thursday evening, July 5, before her departure for an extensive trip through Alaska, Mrs. J. H. Mann gave a reception and lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Clark, in honor of Miss Amy Bedell of Sunnyside, and Miss Alma Clark, at which [nearly fifty friends were present.] The house was decorated in evergreens and flowers of the season, and the yard beautifully illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Games on the lawn and music were the principal amusements of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. C. I. Reams has resigned from the Country Golf Club and has been succeeded by Mr. Jackson. Mr. Reams leaves for the East next week on a visit, but will return by September 1, and says he will open an establishment of his own.

Mr. Charles S. Parker of Spokane and Mr. J. C. Logan have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hawkins for the past week.

Mrs. Henry J. Asberry of Tacoma is visiting Seattle this week. Mrs. Asberry is one of Tacoma's most talented music teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Gayton will pitch tent on Lake Washington next week for a month's outing.

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION.

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington, for King County. Della Moore, plaintiff, vs. Daniel Moore, defendant. No. 51993.

The State of Washington to Daniel Moore, defendant:

In the name of the State of Washington, you are hereby summoned to appear within sixty (60) days after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within sixty (60) days after the 13th day of July, 1906, and defend the above entitled action in the above entitled Court and answer the complaint of the plaintiff and serve a copy of your answer upon the undersigned, the Attorney for the plaintiff, at his offices below stated; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint which has been filed with the Clerk of said Court. The object of the said action set forth in the complaint is as follows: To secure in favor of plaintiff and from defendant an absolute and unconditional decree of divorce absolutely and unconditionally dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, and that the name of plaintiff be changed to Della Druin and for other proper relief in the premises. This divorce is sought upon the grounds of failure to provide and the desertion of the plaintiff by the defendant for more than one year's time last past.

FRANK B. WIESTLING, Attorney for Plaintiff, Postoffice Address 421-423 Boston Block, Seattle, King County, Washington. IN PROBATE.
