SPECIAL EDITION
ANNOUNCEMENT

The special edition of The Seattle Republican, which had been planned to be issued January 1st last, for reasons over which the management had no control, could not materialize at the appointed time, but will come out later in the shape of an anniversary number of the establishing of The Seattle Republican fourteen years ago. In the meantime the work is being vigorously prosecuted and when issued it will be a thing of beauty.

Arrangements are being made to have a large number of copies distributed in the Negro building at the Jamestown exposition, which opens next June. The number will contain pictures of no less than 500 homes and persons in the Northwest, and also contain accurate facts and figures of the progress of the Negro in the Northwest. It means much to get these statistics, hence we had to make haste slowly in the publication of the Magazine.

SUNDAY FORUM.

Those of our race who failed to attend the Forum last Sunday missed an opportunity to hear an important subject ably discussed.

Mr. Gustave B. Aldrich, of Tacoma, lectured before the Forum taking for his subject "American Politics." The speaker gave a very graphic account of the origin of government and the changes and developments that the idea has undergone since its inception to its present development. His explanation of the Democratic idea that was the foundation of all governments was clear and most instructive. He admonished us as a race to let the idea obtain to a greater extent. We must learn to stick to a "brother of the blood." We must lay aside all petty or imaginary grievances and unite to defend, protect and advance a "brother of the blood." He said most emphatically that until this idea obtained to a greater extent than at present among our people on the coast, we would always be imposed upon, legislated and discriminated against by those races that protect and respect the principles of "a brother of the blood."

The Forum extended Mr. Aldrich a rising vote of thanks for his able and instructive lecture.

The musical part of the program was also interesting: Mr. Byron Clark was heard in a solo; Miss Stone rendered two instrumental selections that were greatly enjoyed by the audience. The solo by Miss Neta Bennett was well rendered.

The subject of next Sunday's program will be Crispus Attucks and it will be discussed by Mr. W. L. Presto, with open discussion by the audience. Appropriate music will be rendered.

Let everybody come early and enjoy a literary feast.
