

JACOB FURTH.

President of the Seattle Electric Company, the Tacoma and Everett Interurban railway systems, president of the board of directors of the Seattle National Bank and interested in many other smaller financial and industrial institutions of the city. He has resided in Seattle for the past thirty years.