

E. G. AMES.

General manager of the Puget Mill Company and its associate institutions, one of the vice presidents of the Seattle National Bank and connected with many of the industrial concerns of the city and the Northwest.