

FRANK McDERMOTT.

President of the Bon Marche Company, which is the largest Department Store west of the Mississippi river. He is interested in the various charity organizations of the city and responds to every meritorious call that is put up to him. He is truly a builder and promoter of Seattle.