REPUBLICAN LEGALS—June 7—noah IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE State of Washington, in the County of King. In Probate. Order fixing time to hear final account and to show cause why distribution should not be made.

In the Matter of the Estate of Everett Smith, deceased.—No. 13245.

Chas. S. Follett, administrator of the estate of Everett Smith, deceased, having filed in this court his final account and petition setting forth that said estate is now in a condition to be closed and is ready for distribution of the residue thereof among persons entitled by law thereto, and it appearing to the court that said petition sets forth facts sufficient to authorize a distribution of the residue of said estate:

It is therefore ordered by the court that all persons interested in the estate of the said Everett Smith, deceased, be and appear before the said Superior Court of King County, State of Washington; at the court room of the Probate Department of said court in Seattle, King County, Washington, on the 15th day of July, 1912, at the hour of 9:30 o'clock a. m. of said day, then and there to show cause, if any they have, why said final account should not be allowed and an order of distribution be made of the residue of said estate among the heirs and persons in said petition mentioned, according to law.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order be posted in three of the most public places in King County, for a period of four weeks prior to said hearing and published once a week for four consecutive weeks before the said 15th day of July, 1912, in The Seattle Republican, a newspaper printed and published in said King County and of general circulation therein.

Done in open court this 6th day of June, 1912.

A. W. FRATER,
Judge.

FRED L. RICE,
Attorney for Administrator.
