PEARY'S GREAT ACHIEVEMENT.

Eclipses All Explorers on the East Coast of Greenland.

The stars and stripes have been planted at the two points nearest the north pole yet reached by civilized man. The Navy Department has received the following telegram from Lieutenant Peary, at St. Johns, Newfoundland: 'The United States navy claims the highest discoveries on the Greenland east coast. Independence Bay, 82 degrees north latitude, 34 degrees west longitude, was discovered July 4, 1892. The Greenland ice caps end south of Victoria inlet. The highest point heretofore attained on the east coast is about 75 or 77 degrees and was made by Holdenby, a German. The highest point on the west coast was 83 degrees and was by Lockwood and Brainerd, of the Greely expedition. Naval officers are delighted at the success of Lieutenant Peary, and his telegram was received with much pleasure.'

JUMPED FOR THEIR LIVES.

Three Persons Burned to Death in Chaunby's Hotel at Montreal.

At an early hour Monday morning fire broke out in the Chaunby Hotel, situated on Jacques Cartier square, Montreal. The boarders on the third floor had to jump from the windows, and in so doing Maxime Fitzahault, aged 35, Baptiste Charbonneau, and Julius Comery sustained injuries more or less severe. When the fire was got under control, which was not before the whole building had been gutted, a search was made among the charred remains of two men were found. One was a sewing-machine agent named Turcotte and the other a stableman. A medical student named Cidale was found so badly burned that he died on reaching the hospital.

EIGHT THOUSAND MEN STRIKE.

Miners of the Pittsburg District Resist a Reduction of Wages.

Eight thousand coal miners, employees of the river operators in the Pittsburg district, are on strike. The great strike anticipated for several weeks past was inaugurated Monday morning, and the operators started out on what promises to be one of the most prolonged idle spells in the history of coal mining. The entire second and third pools are now idle and there is no prospect of an early re-umption. The miners are determined to resist the reduction of their rate of wages from 3 1/2 to 3 cents a bushel and the operators seem just as obstinate in their refusal to pay more than the last named figure.

Killed on a Toboggan Slide.

Near Lincoln, Neb., an accident resulting fatally occurred at the Burlington Beach bathing resort. A number of women were using the toboggan slide, while workmen were putting up a wire from the slide to the pavilion for a walking performance. The wire was allowed to hang slack and lay across the toboggan slide. Mrs. Nina Crox, unaware of its presence, started on the descent. The wire caught her under the neck and threw her down with great force, fracturing her skull. She was removed to Lincoln and died two hours afterward.

Christians Blamed.

A mob in northwest Ore. Chuen, attributing a severe drought which was prevailing there to the alleged evil influence of the Christian missions, grievously assaulted a missionary named Turner and his wife. The couple fared very badly at the hands of the infuriated crowd of ignorant natives and would very likely have been put to death if the officials of the place had not interfered and rescued them from the hands of their murderous assailants.

CAUGHT BY BANDITS.

Cuban Planter Kidnaped and Sent Home to Secure $1,000 Ransom.

Dispatches from Matanzas say that on Aug. 30, Senor Vega, colonist of the 'Nena' estate, was kidnaped by five mounted and armed men, who led him to the woods and demanded that he should pay $1,000 for his liberty. The prisoner under threats of vengeance in the event of his playing them false, was released on his promise to procure the sum demanded and to return with it to the bandits. Vega informed the authorities of his adventure, and he was instructed to go back where the bandits were waiting and to allow their suspicions so that a force of soldiers who would be secretly dispatched to the scene could surprise and capture the outlaws. He provided himself with the money required, and arriving at the bandits' rendezvous was engaged in counting out the ransom when the outlaws discovered the approaching guards and fled. The guards fired on them and pursued them for some distance, but all succeeded in making their escape.

GROWS IN QUARANTINE.

Patients on Swinburne Island Succumb to the Dread Malady.

The death record from cholera at the New York lower quarantine was increased by four Thursday. All these deaths occurred on Swinburne Island, where the sick from the cholera-infected ships are taken as soon as they show the first symptoms of the plague. In addition to the deaths, ten new cases were reported among the crew of the Normannia and the steamer passengers on her and on the Regis.
