BAD ROADS PHOTOGRAPHS.

$125 in Prizes Offered By the L. A. W.
 One hundred and twenty-five dollars in cash is offered in prizes by the League of American Wheelmen for photographs of bad country roads. The competition for these prizes remains open until June 1, 1908; it is not limited to members of the L. A. W., but is open to all alike. A first prize has been set aside of $50, a second prize of $25, a third prize of $15, a fourth of $10, and five prizes of $5 each. The League of American Wheelmen has published extensive literature on Good Roads, and the best of the pictures received under this prize competition are to be used in illustrating articles and pamphlets on that subject. It is expected that members of the L. A. W., and wheelmen generally, who are able to use the camera, will assist in this work, by sending in pictures of bad roads, and incidentally taking part in the competition for these cash prizes.
 Photographs should be sent to Otto Dorrer, chairman National Committee for Highway Improvement, L. A. W., P. O. Box 153, Milwaukee, Wis.

Blue Ribbon of the Turf.
 The author of this phrase, so frequently used in reference to the Derby, the great race in England, was Lord Beaconsfield. He gives an account of its origin in his "Biography of Lord George Bentinck." This nobleman had given up racing to become the leader of the Conservative party in Parliament. But Bentinck was defeated at the election, while his horse, Surplice, which he had sold, won the greatly coveted prize. He was very greatly troubled. Disraeli said, "It was in vain to offer solace." "All my life," half-sobbed Bentinck, "I have been trying for this, and for what have I sacrificed it? You do not know what the Derby is," he moaned out. "Yes I do," said Beaconsfield; "it is the Blue Ribbon of the Turf." It is the Blue Ribbon of the Turf," he slowly repeated, and sitting down at a table, he buried himself in a folio of statistics.

A full-grown man exhales seventeen ounces of carbonic acid gas every twenty-four hours.
