

at every performance and the crime of crowding the aisles should be punished by a severe enforcement of the law against this practice.

Chicago Eagle, October 17, 1906: Is the fire escape and elevated enclosure ordinance to be enforced on now? This is a matter of grave importance to every citizen and one which calls for immediate action. No "pull" should be strong enough to delay action on this matter.

As a business man and a public official Mr. Frederick Schultz, of the well-known firm of Schultz & Hirsch, has proven himself upright, capable and successful. He is one of the most useful members of the West Park Board.

Hon. Edwin K. Walker is a distinguished lawyer and a valuable public official. As a member of the Board of County Commissioners he is bright, energetic and ever on the alert in the interests of the people.

Hon. John R. Caverly is making a first-class record as justice of the peace and police magistrate.

Hon. Thomas M. Hoyle is a great lawyer and a highly respected citizen. He is favored by lending Democrats for a nomination to the Superior Court bench. No more popular candidate could be named by that party.

Hon. Andrew J. Ryan holds a leading position at the bar of Cook county. As city attorney he proved himself an able and upright official. He would make a model Superior Court judge.

Hon. Miles Kehoe is one of our ablest and most conscientious justices of the peace.

There is no better police official than Inspector Nicholas Hunt. He is both capable and indefatigable in the performance of his duties.

Hon. Charles Werno is one of the most useful members of the City Council. His record as an Alderman as well as a lawyer is without a flaw.

Mr. P. C. Haley, the distinguished special counsel for the Drainage Board, is one of the greatest lawyers in the State of Illinois. He has a splendid record of victories in the courts to his credit, and his services have proven invaluable to the Board of Sanitary Trustees and to the taxpayers.

Hon. William F. Maloney has the confidence and support of the people of the Eighth Congressional district. As a member of the National Legislature he has reflected credit upon his constituents and the people of Illinois.

Hon. George Mills Rogers is a lawyer who would grace the bench. He commands the confidence and respect of every member of the bar.

Hon. William Hale Thompson has a splendid record as a citizen and a public official. In the Council he was a leader for the right invariably, and he has proven just as capable and conscientious as a member of the Board of County Commissioners. Many Republican leaders favor him for President of the County Board.

In the world of business there is no citizen of Chicago who holds a higher place in the estimation of the community than Dr. V. C. Price, the famous leader of the pure food movement in America. He is the head of one of the greatest business concerns in Chicago.

Hon. Joseph A. O'Donnell is one of the most brilliant lawyers at the Cook County bar, and is in addition a most respected citizen. No better man could be named for the Superior Court.

Hon. George K. Schmidt has a splendid record as an Alderman. The people of the Twenty-fourth ward never had a better representative in the City Council.

Among the great business concerns of which Chicago is proud and which have contributed to her commercial greatness is the Independent Brewing Company.

Hon. W. W. Wheelock, the excellent counsel of the Board of Election Commissioners, is one of the best men mentioned for the Republican nomination for State's Attorney.

Hon. Cyril R. Jandus, who made such a fine record as a member of the State Senate, will probably be given the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fifth district. Mr. Jandus is an excellent lawyer, a loyal Democrat, and a model citizen. The best citizens of the district, irrespective of party, will support him if nominated.

Hon. William Prentiss is among the most honored members of the bar. He is a high-minded, public spirited citizen and a profound and brilliant lawyer.

Hon. Alfred E. Barr, the well-known and popular lawyer is the choice of the Republicans of the Thirteenth Ward for Alderman. He would make a first-class member of the Council and if he makes the race will receive the support of the best citizens of all party denominations.

Hon. Philip Stein is one of the greatest judges on the Cook County bench. His decisions have been always just and invariably upheld. A marked compliment has been paid him by his appointment as a member of the Branch Appellate Court, where he is

ALD. WILLIAM MAVOR,

Said to Be the Builder of the Cleveland Theater and Appointed by the Mayor to Examine Into the Condition of the Theaters, Chairman of the Finance Committee, and Hence with Great Influence in the Building Department.

at present, Judge Stein is a Democrat, and his renomination by that party is assured. This will be equivalent to re-election, as the able jurist has the confidence of the entire community.

Mr. Virgil M. Brand, of the great Brand Brewing Company, stands high in the business community. He is one of the most honored and honorable citizens of Chicago.

Mr. Stillman B. Jamieson is one of the rising and most successful lawyers in Chicago. He gives universal satisfaction as a Master in Chancery.

Gustavus J. Tatge, the popular Democratic lawyer, will probably be one of the Democratic nominees for Superior Court judge. He would make a great judge, and as a candidate his name would add strength to the ticket.

Hon. Edward Muelhoefer, well known and highly respected as a North Side business man, and who made such a good record as a member of the City Council, is much favored for the Republican nomination for county coroner. In his case nomination would be equivalent to election.

It is the opinion of many people that anyone who lost a relative in the Iroquois Theater fire, should sue the city for damages. A city which will elect and re-elect such a non-law-enforcing mayor as Harrison, must and should pay the penalty.

The Lange Brothers' popular shoe store at 149 Dearborn street, is enjoying a season of unprecedented prosperity. This is because of the excellence of the goods supplied. The Lange Brothers are upright, popular gentlemen, who have the respect and good will of all who have business relations with them.

Tom Murray's gents' furnishing establishment at Clark street and Jackson boulevard, is one of the best of its kind in Chicago. It is up to date in every respect, and the shirts which are of Tom Murray's own make have made the place famous.

The Stenben Wine Company, at 210 and 212 Madison street, furnishes the finest brand of goods at the most reasonable prices. Its wines are choice and its liquors of high grade. The growth in its volume of business is steady and ever increasing, as it ought to be.

In the line of glass sign manufacturing, the firm of Tweed & Rau, 298 and 300 West Madison street, are easily in the lead. An entire floor of the spacious building has been devoted to the manufacture of frame work, which is a specialty. Its signs are the most attractive and carefully turned out by any firm in any city in the world, and its supplies reach all lines of business and are of the best quality and finish.

A sound lawyer, courteous and considerate in his treatment of lawyers from the youngest to the oldest member of the bar, eminently fair in all his decisions, Hon. Lockwood Honors is one of the best and most popular judges who ever presided on the Cook County bench.

The Brand Brewing Company is one of the greatest and most prosperous business concerns in Chicago.

We are pleased to note that the Hon. Oliver H. Hart, who made such a splendid record on the Circuit Court bench, has recently been appointed to some important responsibilities. He is the kind of man the public wants to see appointed to re-appoints, a man of legal ability, experience and knowledge. Judge Horton is a good lawyer, a man of broad mind, profound knowledge of the law, possessed of a good heart, and a practicing attorney is one that reflects credit not alone upon himself, but upon the entire bench and bar.

Mr. John Dudge, well known and respected in the business world as secretary and treasurer of the William J. Moxley Company, is one of the most respected citizens in Chicago.

Thomas F. Dunning is strongly backed for the Democratic aldermanic nomination in the Thirteenth Ward. He has opened headquarters at the corner of Hamilton avenue and Lake street.

Hon. John J. Hanberg is making a splendid record as County Treasurer. The affairs of that department of the public service are being conducted under his direction to the entire satisfaction of the public. In every office which he has held Mr. Hanberg has been capable, honest and in every way faithful to his trust.

The Chicago Mortgage & Loan Company is one of the most useful and reliable business concerns in Chicago. Its affairs have been conducted on strictly up-to-date methods, and the ever-increasing volume of its business is the strongest testimony to its worth.

Hon. Walter S. Bogle, president of the Crescent Coal & Mining Company, is among the most honorable and respected citizens of Chicago. He is a business man of great ability and stands high in the estimation of the entire commercial community. Mr. Bogle is a man who has always taken a good citizen's part in the public affairs and the general welfare of the city. Under his guidance the great Crescent Coal & Mining Company continues to enjoy an uninterrupted flow of prosperity.

Chicago has no able or more successful lawyer than Hon. Elbridge Haney. In honoring him by tendering him the appointment to the vacancy now existing on the Superior Court bench Governor Yates has fittingly recognized the great legal ability, both as a lawyer and a jurist, of Judge Haney.

Hon. B. A. Eckhart, head of the great milling firm of Eckhart & Swan, is a typical Chicagoan. As a business man and a man of affairs both in commercial and public life, he has proven himself honorable, capable and reliable. The success which under his management has met him in all his business undertakings has also distinguished his career in public office. As a member of the Drainage Board he rendered invaluable service to the public and taxpayers. Mr. Eckhart is a Republican of whom his party is proud. He has the esteem and good will of citizens irrespective of party, and if nominated for Governor would carry this State by one of the largest majorities ever given a candidate for that office. A man of great executive ability he would make an ideal Governor of Illinois.

Hon. William Eisfeldt holds a high place in the business community, and is one of the most respected citizens on the North Side. Mr. Eisfeldt made a fine record as a member of the Council where he always stood for the interests of the people.

Hon. John C. Fetzer, is proving himself one of the best men who ever acted in the capacity of member of the Board of Education. Mr. Fetzer has brought to the duties of the office the splendid ability which has distinguished his successful career in business. Trustee Fetzer is the man who started the movement to have the school buildings put in a good fire-proof condition, and for this he deserves the thanks of school teachers, pupils, and the entire community.

Mr. C. L. Caswell, Jr., commands the respect of the entire bar of which he is one of the brightest and ablest members. As a lawyer he has few equals and no superiors in Chicago, and he is a man who would do honor to the bench.

There is no man more popular in the business world or more esteemed generally as a progressive and useful citizen than Mr. L. Rosenzweig, the prosperous wholesale and retail liquor dealer. The firm of which Mr. Rosenzweig is the head is one of the most substantial in the city and supplies goods of the very finest quality.

The South Chicago Brewing Company is one of our greatest business concerns and is continually increasing in prosperity. Its brewery is one of the greatest in the country and supplies beer of a quality that cannot be excelled.

Mr. F. M. McCarten, the well-known and popular North Side business man who is favored by a number of leading Democrats of the Twenty-first Ward for Alderman, is gaining strength every day. His excellent record as a business man, a citizen and a resident of the ward would bring to his support the best elements of the ward, irrespective of party.

He is a man of strictly honorable business methods, upright in all his dealings and a man who in office can always be relied upon to do his duty by the public and the taxpayers. From every point of view he would make an ideal member of the City Council, and a most useful representative of the Twenty-first Ward. From his long residence in the ward he is thoroughly acquainted with its needs, and being a man of first-class education in graduate of Toronto College, class course five years, he will be able on all occasions to maintain and advocate them.

Mr. McCarten was born in Michigan thirty-four years ago and is in the prime of life. He has lived in Chicago for over fourteen years, and his home during all of these years has been in the Twenty-first Ward, the honor of representing which in the Council he now seeks. Mr. McCarten has been all his life a loyal Democrat. He has never held office, nor has he ever sought it before the present aldermanic campaign, when he has been induced to become a candidate by his many influential friends of the Twenty-first Ward. While loyal both to party and to personal friends, Mr. McCarten has never affiliated with any wing or section of the local Democracy. Being, as has been said, a business man of high standing, with the ability as well as the desire to work hard and earnestly for the welfare of the people, he will, if elected representative of the Twenty-first Ward, attend faithfully to the interests of its citizens in the City Council.

Hon. Abner Smith during his term on the Circuit Court bench made a record unsurpassed for ability as a lawyer and sound judgment and impartiality as a jurist. As a practicing lawyer he is meeting with well deserved success. Judge Smith has been always a staunch Republican, and if the leaders of that party desire to strengthen their judicial ticket next year they will place his name on it.

Mr. B. J. Glaser, the well-known and popular West Side business man, will in all probability be the Democratic candidate for Alderman of the Thirty-fourth Ward next spring. He is beyond question one of the most popular men ever mentioned for the office in the Thirty-fourth Ward, and if he receives the nomination, which now seems certain, he will be elected. He is well known throughout the ward and all who know him respect and like him. Courteous and obliging, he has made hosts of friends, irrespective of party considerations.

Mr. Glaser has been always a loyal Democrat, and a faithful and consistent worker for his party. His politics, have been of a high order, and his methods there as in every other walk of life honorable and upright. He is a substantial property owner in the ward, and is the proprietor of the well-known Glaser Safety Deposit Vaults, 1573 Ogden avenue. He is also engaged in an extensive real estate and insurance business at the same place.

Mr. Glaser was born in San Jose, Ill., and is now 32 years of age. He has resided in the Thirty-fourth Ward over eight years and is thoroughly posted on all its needs. Since being a voter he has served as judge or clerk of election in whatever particular district he has resided, but has never held or sought elective office until now. He was, by the way, a member of the last grand jury, which rendered such excellent service in the cause of good government. There as elsewhere he stood firmly for the labor interests and for the demands of labor whenever they were in the right.

Mr. Glaser is a member of the Knights of Pythias, Royal Arcanum, and Knights of the Maccabees, and is secretary of the Ogden Avenue Building and Loan Association, and the Ogden Avenue Improvement Club.

Having so many interests in the ward, its welfare would mean his own, and being bright, intelligent and industrious, he would therefore make a model representative in the Council of the people and the taxpayers of the Thirty-fourth Ward.

As a business man and a public official Hon. Ernst Hummel is honored by all. He has shown his great business capacity by the ability with which he has handled the affairs of the great concerns with which he has been connected, while as Alderman and as City Treasurer for two terms, he has discharged his duty to the entire satisfaction of the public.

For glass signs of all descriptions go to Tweed & Rau, 298 and 300 West Madison street. This is one of the most extensive establishments in this line of business in the country. The firm manufactures every kind of glass sign and supplies all lines of business. The greatest variety of design and every kind of work can be had there at prices that are sure to please. A specialty is the manufacture of frames to which an entire section of the establishment is given over. Messrs. Tweed & Rau are among the most substantial business men and respected citizens of Chicago.

J. J. Geraghty is the greatest button, ledge and campaign device maker in the world. His place of business is at 61 La Salle street, where much of the campaign paraphernalia that have made campaigns lively and candidates famous has been turned out. Mr. Geraghty's business in this line of work is constantly increasing both in scope and volume. The latest specialty of Geraghty & Co. is a device for the protection of the mouth and the preservation of the respiratory organs which is said to be wonderfully effective.

Mr. Charles C. Broyer holds a high and honorable place in the estimation of the public and particularly of the business element of the West Side. He is the proprietor of the great plumbing establishment at 187 West Division street, and is one of the most successful men in the business. He is mentioned for a county commissionership.

Captain Daniel Gleason, one of the best known and most popular citizens of the West Side, and who once ran for Congress in the old Second District, coming within six votes of defeating the then incumbent, the late Frank Lawler, lies at the point of death at his home 411 South Robey street.

Captain Gleason has long been a sufferer from rheumatism, which of late has taken an acute form, completely crippling him and finally confining him to bed. In addition to this he has had the misfortune to lose his sight and is now completely blind. Everybody who knows Daniel Gleason knows him to be an honest, honorable, industrious man. Of a genial, kindly disposition, he has made hosts of friends, all of whom will be sorry to learn of his misfortune. As Mr. Gleason is the only support of his family, his being incapacitated for work causes an added hardship.

The Lange Brothers, proprietors of the popular and prosperous shoe store at 149 Dearborn street, are among the most respected and upright business men in Chicago.

For wines and liquors of the very highest quality at the most reasonable prices, the Stenben Wine Company, 210 and 212 Madison street, is unexcelled; it enjoys great and well deserved prosperity and its business is continually growing.

Mr. Paul Pohl, the leading weiss beer brewer of the United States, is one of the most popular citizens of Chicago. He is affable in his manners, square in his dealings and punctual in his appointments. He has repeatedly declined political honors, being content with his rapidly growing business.

"Old Cascade" is in good hands. Thompson Brothers, the popular turf men, have it on the market, and that means success.

It is the opinion of many people that anyone who lost a relative in the Iroquois Theater fire, should sue the city for damages. A city which will elect and re-elect such a non-law-enforcing mayor as Harrison, must and should pay the penalty.
