THE ROOKERY CHICAGO

Five was held in reserve or "suppressed" on orders of the "man higher up," and relates to and discusses these three propositions, and only these three:

First—What was the cause in March, 1904, and about that time for the unusually large margin between the price of cattle and dressed beef for market?

Second—Was that wide margin the result of a combination by the packers in violation of the Sherman law?

Third—Was the injunction against the packers being then violated?

All of these questions are answered affirmatively in chapter 5 of the report of Mr. Garfield. The facts on which he arrived at his conclusions were not furnished by the beef packers but on suggestions to witnesses, etc., furnished by Representative Martin of South Dakota.

Chapter 5 was held in reserve because the case against the packers had been decided upon, and if the chapter had been known to Congress the packers would have known the complete result of the Garfield investigation under the resolution of Representative Martin which was passed by the House in January, 1904.

In his resolution Representative Martin asked that Garfield determine if the wide difference between the price of cattle and dressed beef proved a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

According to the resolution Mr. Garfield, if he found such violation, was to report on the capitalization of the packers' combine, their organization, profits, etc.

Mr. Garfield DID REPORT on this latter phase of the resolution, and it is to be found in his report. This fact is stated merely as corroborating the statement that Garfield found that the illegal combination existed.

It is not generally known that Representative Martin, who introduced the beef trust resolution on which Garfield reported, saw Mr. Garfield many times after the passage of the resolution and furnished the Department of Commerce and Labor with facts and the names of witnesses. Mr. Martin in fact saw Mr. Garfield only a short time ago.

There is very little surprise expressed here that chapter 5 of the Garfield report was withheld from publication. It can be stated, however, that there should have been not the slightest impropriety in handing it to the Attorney General for use in the case against the packers.

Representative Martin would not and did not furnish to Mr. Garfield the names of any of the beef packers. Mr. Martin mentioned, as one witness for instance, a man who sold a carload of cattle in Chicago one day and had the good sense to wait and see what became of it. He found that the cattle were divided among seven concerns that night, although there was only one bid for the cattle that day. This was a violation of the injunction then supposed to be in force, and it is known that there were other witnesses and ample witnesses to prove the violation.

It can be stated on authority that chapter 5 of the Garfield report is not to remain unpublished. It will, however, not be sent to Congress until the conclusion of the cases against the beef trust.

JAMES O. DOOLEY, Popular Democratic Nominee for Municipal Judge, Who Should Be Elected.

County Assessor Adam Wolf has made a clean and honest record, and he deserves to be re-elected.

No better man can be elected to the Municipal Court this fall than Cyril R. Jandus, whose clean and able record as a lawyer and as a State Senator has made him popular with all classes of Chicagoans.

County Commissioner Walter Schrojda has made an honest and clean record on the County Board and he deserves a re-election.

No member of the Drainage Board served the people better than did William Legner when he was a member of that body, and every citizen who believes in electing honest and capable men to office should vote for him for Sanitary Trustee next November.

Personal liberty is the issue that will not down in Chicago.

It is progressive, able and successful business men like George W. Paullin that are needed in public office, and his re-election as Sanitary Trustee, in which office he has served so well for three years, is desired in the best interests of the people at large.

Cyril R. Jandus has always served the people faithfully in every office he has held, and his election as Municipal Judge will insure to the new court an honest and upright jurist.

Prohibition cranks are in a minority in this big town.

No public official in Illinois has a better record to his credit than Sanitary Trustee George W. Paullin, and the people of Chicago should show their appreciation of his good services by re-electing him by a big majority.

The re-election of County Recorder Abel Davis is desired in the best interests of Cook County. He is a progressive, industrious and conscientious official and should be kept where he has served so well.

Chicago voters are opposed to summary legislation.

Judge Max Eberhardt, as was expected, has proven himself to be by his two years' service on the Municipal Court bench, an upright, conscientious and just jurist. It is men like him that are needed on the bench, and he deserves a re-election.

William Legner will be elected Sanitary Trustee by a good majority. He is popular with all classes of people and this, coupled with his well-known business ability and honest record as a member of the Drainage Board before, makes him one of the strongest candidates before the people.

County Commissioner Walter Schrojda has shown himself to be a capable and hardworking public official and he deserves a re-election.

If you see it in The Eagle you may be sure that it will be copied.

No better man can be elected to the Municipal Court bench than Cyril R. Jandus. An honest public official, an able lawyer and a public spirited citizen, Senator Jandus is entitled to the votes of all honest citizens at the polls next November.

County Recorder Abel Davis has administered the affairs of his office in a clean, progressive and able manner, and the leading real estate men and lawyers of Chicago are unanimous in their desire for his re-election.

Chicago wants no blue laws.

George W. Paullin has earned by his grand record as Sanitary Trustee a re-election to that office. He has proven himself a faithful, conscientious and capable public servant and such good services should be rewarded.

Sunday closing is a dead issue in Chicago.

Judge Max Eberhardt's good record as Judge of the Municipal Court has gained for him the confidence and highest admiration of the people of Chicago and his election next November will be a well-deserved tribute to an honest and upright man.

County Commissioner Walter Schrojda has made a good, clean record on the County Board and he deserves to be re-elected.

Personal liberty will carry Chicago whenever it is an issue.

Joseph E. Flanagan is the right man to elect Sanitary Trustee. As a business man, a public official and a citizen, his career has been a forceful, clean and honest one, and the people will never regret having elected him next November.

Cyril R. Jandus' splendid record as State Senator and as a member of the Board of Local Improvements under Mayor Dunne, commends him to the people of Chicago as the right man to place on the Municipal Court bench.

Imitation is the sincerest flattery. When you see it in The Eagle you may be sure that it will be copied.
