HENRY F. DONOVAN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as Second Class Matter October 11, 1889, at the Post Office at Chicago, Illinois, under Act of March 3, 1879.

ESTABLISHED OCTOBER 5, 1889.

By Henry F. Donovan.

The Chicago Eagle numbers among its subscribers the most influential, most prosperous and most respected men in Chicago.

It reaches nearly every man of standing in the community and all men who are molders of public opinion or directors of public affairs.

It is the guide, mentor and friend of every political leader of every shade of opinion.

It is read by Government, State, County and City Officials.

It is read by a big percentage of the legal fraternity, including bench and bar.

It is the favorite of Chicago's leading business men.

It reaches all classes in their homes.

It is read by the Fire Department.

It is read by the Police Department.

It is in every public office and every public library.

It is not controlled by any cheap, cheap or crooked advertising agency.

In the twenty-one years of its existence it has managed to build up a large circulation and great business without the aid of professional advertising agents.

That is why it is so independent, so popular and so strong.

The Chicago Eagle is one paper that has never depended upon advertising agents for a circulation. It has one of its own.

As was expected, Chicago had little trouble in landing the Republican National convention for next year. That she will take care of her distinguished visitors in a royal manner is certain. Great credit must be given Fred W. Upham for his tireless work in getting the convention for Chicago.

The record made by Adam Ortsel, president of the McAvoy and Wacker & Burke Brewing Companies, both as a business man and as a public official is without spot or blemish. Mr. Ortsel stands high in the estimation of all Chicagoans.

Edwin Bluthardt, the able young manager for the United States Brewing Company, has made a splendid record of business for his great concern during the year now closing.

Phillip R. Brand, secretary and treasurer of the Brand Brewing Company, makes friends and holds them with the same easy and genial faculty with which he handles so well the large and growing business of his great firm.

William Legner, vice president and manager of the West Side Brewing Company, has won, by his record as a business man, a public official and a citizen, the highest esteem of all Chicagoans.

The Conrad Seipp Brewing Company maintains its high reputation with the business public and its customers. Every man connected with it from the president down, is laboring to please those who do business with the brewery. Its products are pure and high class.

Thomas A. Breen, secretary of the great firm of Breen & Kennedy, stands in the front ranks of Chicago's leading business men and citizens.

Ernst Hummel, president of the South Chicago Brewing Company would prove a strong candidate for state treasurer on the Democratic ticket next year.

Edward F. Dunne is the first choice of the Democratic rank and file for governor and don't you forget it.

Percy Andrae, president of the Conrad Seipp Brewing Company, has the best wishes of his many friends for continued prosperity during the new year for himself and for the great concern he is at the head of.

Alderman John Haderlein is preparing to make a red hot campaign for re-election in the Twenty-fourth ward. That he will win is almost a certainty, for he has made a grand record and is deservedly popular with all classes throughout the ward.

The City Council received the annual departmental and comptroller's estimates from Comptroller John E. Traeger at the meeting Monday night.

Departmental demands totaling $29,571,880.41 have been cut by the comptroller to $23,805,385.43. The matter was referred to the finance committee. It probably will take about three weeks before the budget finally is adopted by the Council.

Mr. Traeger upholds the police department in its demand for an increase in salaries for first grade policemen. Increases for commanding officers, as asked for in the department estimate, are denied by the comptroller.

The Department of Health, Department of Public Works, Bureau of Streets, Wards, Building Department, Board of Road Improvements, Department of Electricity and the Bureau of Bridges and Harbors also are allowed increases in the comptroller's estimates.

Other matters considered by the Council were:

Referred to the committee on streets and alleys, south, a report from Mayor Harrison showing that streets in the downtown district are rapidly being encroached upon by business interests.

Amended the saloon license ordinance and gave the Mayor power to restore licenses which have been revoked for cause.

Passed Alderman McInerney's resolution asking that the Mayor appoint a commission of ten to inquire into facilities for caring for homeless children.

Referred to the finance committee Alderman Captain's resolution asking for the establishment of a police life-saving patrol service for bathing beaches.

Referred to the finance committee Alderman Clettenberg's request that no appropriation be made in the annual budget for salaries for police inspectors.

An ordinance introduced several months ago by the Alderman Murray, regulating the sale of firearms, was recommended for passage by the Judiciary committee. The ordinance provides that dealers in firearms shall make daily reports to the police department of persons to whom they sell weapons.

Judge William Fenimore Cooper is making the splendid record on the Superior Court bench that everyone of his big army of friends knew he would make. He is an able, energetic and conscientious judge.

The fine record that Judge John R. Caverly is making on the Municipal Court bench shows that the people need more men like him there.

Albert G. Wheeler has gained his splendid reputation as a financier and business man by a long record of honorable dealings.

James S. Hopkins deserves the popularity he enjoys as a lawyer and a citizen. He would do credit to any office within the gift of the people.

The Thirty-third Ward Democratic Club was organized Tuesday night at a meeting held in the office of J. D. Cuttridge, 403 North Fifty-second avenue, Austin, and officers were elected. A resolution was introduced and passed extending a vote of thanks to Mayor Harrison for his warfare against vice. The following officers were chosen: President, John Law; first vice president, M. J. O'Brien; second vice president, E. J. Kelly; third vice president, Henry Wagner; secretary, J. D. Cuttridge; and treasurer, Claude Dyckman.

The friends of Woodrow Wilson in Illinois have started a campaign in earnest to boost his presidential aspirations. A committee on organization has been formed.

William C. Niblack, vice president of the Chicago Title and Trust Company, is chairman of the organization committee, and Frank H. Jones, former assistant postmaster general, is at the head of the finance committee. The treasurer is William Brown, Jr., and the secretary is Morgan L. Davies.

There is also an advisory committee, its members being John Barton Payne, Calvin Pentress, Julius F. Smietanka, Roswell B. Mason, Dr. Franklin H.

Martin, James W. Thorne, Fred Greisheimer, Thomas O'Hearne, Raymond Robbins, Russell Whitman, William H. Brown, Uri B. Grannis, Fred A. Stowe, John P. Byrne, William S. Miller, Harry H. Hollis, Francis Borrelli, Dr. Alfred C. Croftan, John J. Sullivan, Dr. William H. Fussy, Richard C. Lake, Rivers McNeil, George Sheehan, Charles S. Schoenemann, Robert S. Shanklin and Stephen S. Riordan.

Cook County never had a better public official than County Judge John E. Owens. He is working at all times in the best interests of the people.

That plan for a Chicago beautiful got a big boost Monday night.

Benjamin M. Mitchell has made a splendid record in the legislature. He has faithfully represented his district and done much for Chicago.

The many friends of Judge Max Eberhardt are pleased to know that he is rapidly recovering from his illness and that he expects to be back on the bench next week.

County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer will not let the employees in his office spend their money for a Christmas present for him.

Learning that the office men had collected almost $700 for that purpose, he called them together yesterday and gracefully declined in advance. He urged his employees to use the money in making a merry Christmas at their homes.

Virgil M. Brand, president of the well known Brand Brewing Company, holds the esteem of all good citizens for his clean and able record as a business man and a citizen.

Rudolph Brand, president of the United States Brewing Company, ranks as one of Chicago's ablest and most progressive business men and most highly esteemed citizens.

Peter Fortune, head of the famous Fortune Bros. Brewing Company, is justly esteemed as a leader among Chicago's most useful and progressive citizens.

H. N. Clausen, Chicago manager for the A. H. Meyer Company, the well known importers of beer, is to be congratulated upon the splendid success the company has met with here. Continued success during the new year is the wish of all his friends.

Aroused by a number of murders and "gun crimes" which have occurred in Chicago recently, a number of prominent Chicagoans have decided to ask the State Legislature to pass a stringent bill relating to the carrying of concealed weapons.

A bill has been drafted by Attorney Joseph B. David, for presentation to the Legislature at the next session. In addition to making the carrying of concealed weapons a prison offense, the bill makes it a prison offense for anyone to sell a revolver, brass knuckles or any other weapon to a minor.

The principal purpose of the bill, as explained by its author, is to give the courts an opportunity to inflict proper punishment for the carrying of concealed weapons or for improper traffic in the same.

Carl Trick, vice president of the Wacker & Birk Brewing Company, commands the highest respect of all who know him.

The Home Brewery, under the able management of its president, Matt Aller, continues to enjoy an uninterrupted flow of business prosperity, and enters upon a still higher tide of success with the coming year.

Charles J. Vopicka, president of the successful Atlas Brewing Company, holds the esteem of all good citizens for his sturdy and honorable citizenship and his splendid reputation as a business man.

The annual election of the Chicago Association of Commerce held on Tuesday resulted in the election of the following officers and new directors: President, Eugene O. Kimbark; vice president for interstate division, Howard Eiting; vice president for civic industrial division, W. W. Buchanan; vice president for local division, William Reiss; vice president for foreign trade division, James S. Agar; general secretary, Robert E. Kenyon; general treasurer, Frank R. McMullin.

Directors: At large, W. P. Dunn, O. T. McClurg, John F. Smulski and Harry A. Wheeler; foreign trade division, William H. Bush, Francis T. Simmons and G. K. Saxe; interstate division, A. L. Stone, John P. Mann and T. Edward Wilder; local division, Elmer H. Adams, George H. Gately and Harrison B. Riley; civic industrial division, Arthur O. Sullivan, A. R. Barnes and William A. Gardner.

Leo Ernst, president of the well known Independent Brewery Association, is a man whose record as a business man and a citizen has won for him the confidence and respect of the entire public.

Hans Luchow, Chicago manager for August Luchow, has earned a high place in the estimation of Chicagoans by his high and honorable business methods and his record as a citizen.

Edward G. Uihlein, Chicago manager for the famous Schlitz Brewing Company, has the best wishes of his many friends for continued business prosperity at the opening and throughout the new year.

Charles Pies of Chicago was elected president of the Illinois Manufacturers' association at its annual banquet Tuesday night at the Congress hotel. H. C. Herget of Pekin was chosen vice president; E. N. Hurley, Chicago, second vice president, and S. M. Hastings, Chicago, George P. Blow, La Salle, W. S. Frazier, Aurora, Emil J. Rose, Chicago, Howard Conroy, Clyde, C. J. Vopicka, Chicago, and P. A. Peterson, Rockford, John M. Glenn of Chicago is the secretary of the organization.

A. N. Rosenegk, Chicago manager for the great Faber Brewing Company, deserves the high place he holds in the estimation of the people both as a business man and a citizen.

The Best Brewing Company, under the able management of its popular president, Charles Hasterlik, is finishing one of the most prosperous years of its existence. It is one of Chicago's leading breweries.

Otto Tosetti, vice president of the well known Ernest Tosetti Brewing Company, would make a splendid state treasurer of Illinois.

William Schumacher can well feel proud of the splendid success the big concern he is Chicago manager for, Rudolph Oelsner, is meeting with every day. No imported beer in the market is more popular.

The state tax commission, composed of Governor Deneen, State Treasurer Mitchell and State Auditor McCullough, has fixed the state tax rate at 35 cents on the hundred dollar valuation. The rate is an increase of 5 cents over last year, caused by the increased appropriations by the State Legislature. The tax rate in 1909 was 35 cents, in 1910 30 cents. The rate will be sent to county clerks to enable them to extend the rates on county taxes.

The first step in the Chicago Beautiful plan was made on Monday and presented to the city council.

Transformation of Chicago will begin within sixty days, according to announcement made by John Payne, president of the south park board. It is made possible by an agreement reached yesterday by the Illinois Central railroad and the south park board. By the contract the city regains the lake front, a Grant Park site for the Field Museum of Natural History is finally secured and the Chicago plan brought nearer realization.

Announcement of this agreement was followed by one that the contracts for work on the Field Museum have already been let and that work upon it will begin in the spring.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown would prove a worthy successor to Judge Grosscup on the Federal bench.

Albert J. Hopkins' clean, able and fearless record in the United States Senate and in Congress is well known to the people of Illinois. They are with him now just as they were with him when they endorsed him by such a rousing plurality at the primary in 1905.

Why are the elevated platforms littered up with weighing machines and gum machines that are invariably out of order?

James S. Hopkins has earned by his able and clean record as a lawyer the highest esteem of both bench and bar in Cook County.

It is men like Albert G. Wheeler who have helped give Chicago the great reputation she has in the financial and business world.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown has earned, by his long and honorable service, the confidence and highest esteem of all Chicagoans.

Watch what your alderman does on the telephone question.

Col. James Hamilton-Lewis will have no trouble in winning the Democratic nomination for United States senator. All factions are with him.

Thomas A. Smyth is making an honest record as President of the Sanitary Board and the people know it.

Albert J. Hopkins will be Illinois' choice for vice president in 1912.

Just keep tab on the aldermen who are working overtime for the telephone company.

A cleanup on the municipal bench next year is a certainty.
