Says:

The traveler, who was asked by a clerical-looking fellow-passenger—whether or not he drank, may have been justified, before answering, in asking whether the question was an inquiry or an invitation. But my advice to you, son, is "Let not opportunity slip between your fingers." Take it, whenever such a query is put to you, as a pressing invitation, provided, son, that there is within convenient reach a supply of

Mess. Fr. Hollender & Co.,

28 W. Illinois St. Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:—
I am instructed to DETAIN AS MISBRANDED all shipments of beer consigned AFTER DECEMBER 1, 1911, labeled "PILSENER" which DO NOT COME FROM the town of Pilsen, Austria. The attention of Shippers, Importers and Brokers is called to this decision in order that they may act accordingly.

Respectfully,

C. L. Winton,
Chief of Chicago Laboratory.

A similar letter has been issued and forwarded to the trade by the New York office of the above department signed by

A. W. Ogden,
Acting Chief.

We call the attention of the public to this letter, which we received from the DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE and would advise the public, in as much as they pay for PILSENER BEER, to insist upon getting our GENUINE ARTICLE, which is BREWED in PILSEN, Bohemia.

FR. HOLLENDER, THE PIONEER BEER IMPORTERS of the U. S.

BAGLETS.

John C. Werdell and Victor Shaeffer have announced themselves as candidates for the Democratic nomination for alderman in the Twenty-second ward to succeed the late Herman J. Bauer. Mr. Werdell is well known as a member of the legislature from the Thirty-first District and a leader in the party. Mr. Shaeffer was private secretary to Alderman Bauer for many years.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis has always been a loyal member of the Democratic party and has always worked hard for its success. His candidacy for United States Senator deserves and it will get him the vote of every honest Illinois Democrat.

No imported beer on the market today has met with greater success than that handled by August Luchow, The Original Pilsener, from Pilsen, Bohemia, is sold by this big concern, as is also the famous Würzburger Hofbräu from Würzburg, Bavaria. These beers are the favorites at Chicago's leading clubs, restaurants and buffets. They are without a peer. The Chicago offices of August Luchow are located in the Stock Exchange building, 30 North LaSalle street and are under the management of Hans Luchow. Mr. Luchow has made a splendid record for the business in the West and he enjoys a widespread popularity among Chicago's leading business men and citizens.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis will have no trouble in winning the Democratic nomination for United States senator. All factions are with him.

The lead-pipe cinch, drop-a-nickel-first scheme is a sure thing for the telephone company.

Francis W. Taylor, the popular former alderman and now secretary to Franklin MacVeagh, Secretary of the Treasury, is being strongly urged to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in the Ninth district.

If the Democrats nominate a good municipal ticket they will have little trouble in electing it.

Oscar F. Mayer would prove a winner as the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer.

Alderman James R. Buckley will be re-nominated and re-elected by the voters of the Thirtieth ward. Alderman Buckley is one of the best men in the city council, as his clean and able record will readily show.

Edward F. Dunne is the choice of the Democratic rank and file for governor.

John J. Geraghty is preparing to make an energetic campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Eighth District, and his army of friends can see nothing but victory for him.

The people of the Thirty-fifth ward have in Alderman Irwin R. Hasen a conscientious, energetic and wide-awake representative in the city council.

John Kjellander, former city sealer, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for alderman in the new Twenty-third ward. Other candidates are springing up also.

Andrew J. Ryan, the well-known lawyer and former city attorney, stands high in the estimation of all Chicagoans both as a lawyer and as a citizen.

Cyril R. Jandus' friends are working hard for his nomination for state's attorney on the Democratic ticket, and they feel confident of him winning.

President of the Sanitary District Thomas A. Smyth can feel confident that his honest and fearless record has won for him the confidence of the people irrespective of party affiliation.

Alderman Fred A. Britton, once from the Twenty-third ward but now from the Twenty-first, will announce his candidacy for re-election to the council providing he does not run for Congress.

County Judge John E. Owens continues to serve the people in the same able, honest and fearless manner he started in to.

Thomas W. Gilmore, the well-known coal merchant, would prove a worthy representative of the new Twenty-fifth ward in the city council.

Alderman John Haderlein is all prepared to make a vigorous campaign for re-nomination by the Democrats of the Twenty-fourth ward, and from all indications he has the people with him from the start.

The fight for seats in Congress this year is bringing out many strong men on both sides.
