James V. O'Donnell, the popular Master-in-Chancery, is in line for a seat on the bench.

Edgar B. Tolman, who made one of the best Corporation Counsels Chicago ever had, is talked of for a place on the Federal bench.

No member of the Legislature stands higher in the estimation of their constituents than Benjamin M. Mitchell.

Spencer Ward, the able and well known lawyer and Democrat, would make a splendid District Attorney for Northern Illinois.

Thirty-third warders can be proud of Alderman Irwin R. Hazen. He is one of the best and hardest working members of the City Council.

Andrew J. Ryan, the well-known and highly respected lawyer, who made one of the best city attorneys Chicago has ever had, would make a fine Federal Judge.

In James Hamilton Lewis Illinois has a representative in the United States Senate that she can always point to with pride.

As a member of the Federal bench, Judge Edward Osgood Brown would serve the people with credit to himself and to Illinois.

Stephen A. Malato is making a splendid record as Assistant State's Attorney. He is a man of high character, able and forceful. He would make a fine Judge.

P. J. Hamler, the popular and well-known boiler manufacturer, is talked of for Sheriff by many Democrats.

Judge Harry P. Dolan is making the fine record to the Municipal Court bench that every one of his friends knew he would make. He is a fair-minded and conscientious Judge.

Alderman William J. Healy is making an excellent record in the City Council. The Eighteenth ward can be proud of him.

Richard J. Finn, the able and popular attorney, would make a fine Municipal Judge.

John C. Werdell, the popular Twenty-second ward Democratic leader, is in line for election to the County Board.

The next campaign will be the big primary battle of 1914. The different leaders are already scurrying around looking after their political fences. Watch out for surprises.

Charles C. Breyer, the well-known plumber and West Side Democrat, is being talked of by many for County Commissioner.

John C. Paul, the well-known business man and North Side Democrat, is strongly talked of for member of the Board of Review.

Clayton E. Crafts would grace a seat on the Federal bench.

M. M. Connerly has established a garage at 2630 Wabash avenue which is one of the finest in the city. It will take good care of all kinds of automobiles and is fully equipped to charge electric trucks.

People who are looking for first-class truck storage or automobile space, will do well to patronize Mr. Connerly. Mr. Connerly is a brother of John T. Connerly, the well-known coal merchant, and of Frank D. Connerly, the city clerk. He is a life-long resident of Chicago and has hosts of friends in all walks of life.

No imported beer on the market today has met with greater success than that handled by August Luchow. The Original Pilsener, from Pilsen, Bohemia, is sold by this big concern, as is also the famous Wursburger Heubrau from Wursburg, Bavaria. These beers are the favorites at Chicago's leading clubs, restaurants and buffets. They are without a peer. The Chicago offices of August Luchow are located in the Stock Exchange building, 26 North LaSalle street and are under the management of Hans Luchow. Mr. Luchow has made a splendid record for the business in the West and he enjoys a widespread popularity among Chicago's leading business men and citizens.—Advertisement.

The Home Brewery is not only Chicago's youngest brewery, but it is one of her most successful. No brewery in the United States ever achieved success in such a short time as the Home Brewery. Its beer already has a reputation among the lovers of good beer as being par excellence. The Home Brewery also bottles its beer and a case can be had by calling up Humboldt 2210.—Advertisement.
