

JACOB A. HEY,
Probable Progressive Candidate for Mayor.

for mayor by his many friends in the Republican party.

Judge John A. Mahoney's record on the municipal bench is unexcelled.

Judge William E. Dever is making a good record in the Superior Court.

Judge John Gibbons has made a good record in the Circuit Court.

C. McWhinney, the well known ice man, would make a good alderman.

Ald. Thomas D. Nash has made a good record.

Walter Clyde Jones made an honorable and useful record in the State Senate. He would make a good judge.

Trustee Edward Kane of the Sanitary District is one of the hardest working officials in the state. He is always alive to the public's interest.

Judge R. W. Clifford, who made a great record as Circuit Judge, would make a good member of the Supreme Court.

Collin C. H. Fyfe, the well known lawyer, is one of the best of authorities on municipal and corporation law.

William Eisfeldt, who made a good council record, is again talked of for Alderman of the 24th Ward.

Judge Lockwood Honore will be re-nominated and re-elected.

Jacob A. Hey is an Alderman who is not afraid to fight the enemies of the people.

Dennis J. Egan is generally understood to be in line for appointment as chief clerk of the Board of Election Commissioners to succeed William H. Stuart.

James C. McShane, the able lawyer, is frequently mentioned for mayor.

Edward J. Brundage is frequently mentioned for Mayor by Republicans.

Thomas Carey is frequently mentioned for Mayor.

Robert S. Iles was one of the best County Attorneys that Cook County ever had. He saved millions for the taxpayers.

Many friends of Judge Henry C. Bettler of the Municipal bench would like to see him elected a judge of the Circuit court next year.

President Thomas A. Smyth, of the Sanitary District, has increased the efficiency of the service one hundred per cent since he took office.

Judge Charles A. Williams has pleased his friends by his fine record on the Municipal bench.

Charles B. Fawcett has a record as a lawyer and a public official that is above reproach.

Judge James C. Martin of the Municipal court has made a dignified and honest public record.

Joseph F. Haas, the popular former County Clerk, is one of the most valuable and clear sighted of Republican leaders.

Electrication of the railroad means loss of employment to the majority of railroad employees.

Charles C. Breyer is one of the best liked men on the Northwest Side. He is noted for his public spirit and devotion to the interests of his fellow citizens.

Granville W. Browning would make a good member of the Circuit Court bench.

Dennis J. Egan has always been pitted against the very strongest men in the Republican party. He ran against Peter M. Hoffman for Coroner and Adam Wolf for Assessor. A man who could do that and hold his own as well as Egan did certainly could beat any of the others.

L. D. Condee, the well known lawyer, would make a good judge.

William A. Birk of the Birk Brothers Brewing Company, is one of the best liked business men in Chicago. He could get almost any political nomination he sought if his tastes ran that way.

Theodore Brentano deserves re-election to the Superior Court bench.

Richard J. Finn, the able and popular lawyer, would make a good judge.

Frank S. Ryan will make a good record on the Board of evilew.

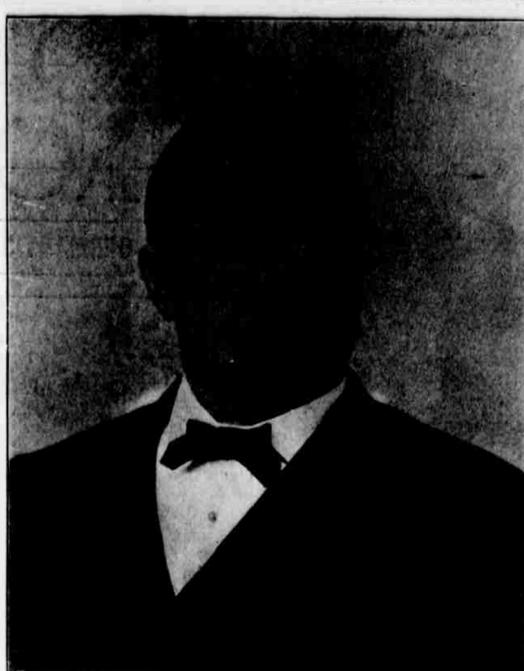

James Maher, the popular lawyer, who has frequently refused to become a candidate for the bench, has built up a large practice.

George W. O'Neil of the Eleventh Senatorial district would make a good alderman.

Thomas A. Smyth, the able and honest president of the Sanitary District of Chicago, has nothing to fear from attacks made upon him by spollmen. His record is above reproach and the saving he has made for the taxpayers is appreciated by them.

Judge George Kersten has made a splendid record on the bench.

Frank J. Hogan has made a great record as attorney for the Fire Department. He is always looking after the interest of the people.

ERNST HUMMEL,
Popular Brewer and Former City Treasurer.

Clarence S. Darrow, always the friend of the down-trodden, is often mentioned for Mayor.

Francis W. Walker, the eminent lawyer, is a Chicago product. He has lived in this city all of his life.

Judge R. S. Tutill grows in popularity as the years roll by.

Investigate the service on the Northwestern L.

Judge Charles A. McDonald is making a splendid record on the Superior Court bench. He is a conscientious and fair-minded judge.

Sidney Adler, the well known lawyer, is in the front rank of boomers of his native city—Chicago.

Harry L. Shaver, the able lawyer, who made a good record in the legislature is talked of for Circuit Judge.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown's appointment to the Federal bench would please everybody.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown would be a valuable addition to the Federal bench.

Harry Rubens, who was corporation counsel under Mayor Hopkins, is often mentioned for mayor himself.

William Hale Thompson would make a big, liberal go-ahead Mayor for big, liberal go-ahead Chicago.

Judge Joseph Sanata is making a splendid record on the Municipal bench. His decisions are always just, merciful and full of common sense.

Peter Reinberg is the right man in the right place as president of the county board.

August C. Reinhardt of Webster avenue and Burling street has a fine business and a host of friends.

William J. O'Brien, former senator and alderman, is making a wonderful success in his theatrical business.

John F. Clare has thousands of friends who would like to see him elected judge.

Thomas J. Webb is respected in business and public life. He is an ideal member of the Board of Review.

Charles Gastfeld, now chief examiner of the city civil service commission, who organized the county civil service, has always made a good public record.

Justin F. McCarty, the popular Assistant Corporation Counsel, is making a fine public record.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown of the Circuit Court deserves re-nomination on his record.

Frank McDermott's record in the city council will long be remembered for its usefulness to the public.

Charles F. Gunther is often mentioned for mayor.

William Pugh is one of the honored veterans of the U. S. postal service.

Chicago needs a new City Hall. The new one will probably be built in Union Park on the West Side.

Jacob A. Hey, the efficient twenty-third ward alderman, would make a great mayor.

Thomas F. Keeley is in the front rank of every movement for the betterment of Chicago and the brightening of its future.

Edward W. Cribben, of the big Cribben & Sexton stove concern, is one of the active young men with a big political future.

George W. Paullin, the great furrier, has made a business record for honesty and integrity that wins for him hosts of friends.

Have you ever tried DOBBIN'S ELECTRIC SOAP? It don't cost much for you to get one bar of your grocer, and see for yourself why it is praised by so many, after 50 years' steady sale. Be sure to get no imitation. There are lots of them.—Adv.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

JOHN E. OWENS
Attorney and Counsellor
at Law
CONWAY BUILDING
111 West Washington Street

William D. Munhall
ATTORNEY AT LAW
1616 Ashland Block
Clark and Randolph Sts.
CHICAGO
Telephone Randolph 2325

Phone Central 2918
Lowes & Richards
Attorneys at Law
127 N. Dearborn St.
CHICAGO

A. A. Woraley
Attorney and Counsellor
at Law
Suite 1010
No. 170 West Washington Street
CHICAGO
Telephone 3720 Main

Telephone (Main 55, Main 424, Auto. 31-201)
Coburn & Bentley
Attorneys and Counsellors
at Law
Suite 58
108 North La Salle Street
CHICAGO

Rayton E. Crafts Geo. H. Stevens
Crafts & Stevens
Attorneys and Counsellors
at Law
Rooms 917, 918 and 919
STOCK EXCHANGE BLDG.
Telephone Main 1625

MUNICIPAL NEWS

Some Items of Interest From the Public Offices About Occurrences of the Week.

Meeting hours for City Council committees are as follows:

Monday—Streets and alleys, 9 o'clock; buildings, 3:30 o'clock.

Tuesday—Schools and police, 11 o'clock; harbors, wharves and bridges, 2 o'clock; local industries, 2 o'clock.

Wednesday—Special park commission, 10:30 o'clock; health, 2 o'clock; local transportation, 2 o'clock; track elevation, 3:30 o'clock.

Thursday—Gas, oil and electric light, 2 o'clock; license, 3:30 o'clock; water, 3:30 o'clock.

Friday—Compensation, 11 o'clock; judiciary, 2 o'clock; finance, 2 o'clock; bathing beaches, 3:30 o'clock.

Following is the proposed ordinance which will make so much trouble for householders:

"The owner or occupant of each building adjoining any street, and the owner or person in charge of any unoccupied building or vacant lot so fronting shall clean the sidewalk adjoining of snow and ice by 12 o'clock noon of each day, and cause the same to be kept clear; provided that when ice has so formed that it cannot be removed it shall be sprinkled with ashes, sawdust or sand; provided, also, that in case snow shall fall for some time it shall be removed immediately after it stops falling.

"Any person who fails to comply shall forfeit for each offense not less than $1 nor more than $5, an $5 for each day such violation is continued. Where premises are occupied the occupant or person in charge shall be the person whose duty it is to comply with this ordinance."

A. C. Clark, who made such a good record in the state senate, is being much talked of by Republicans for city treasurer.

D. R. Cameron, many times the honored President of the Board of Education, is living at his palatial home at Altadena, Cal.

E. Raymond Bliss, the eminent lawyer, is frequently mentioned for Circuit Judge.

Judge William E. Dever has fulfilled the expectations of his friends by his fine record on the bench.

Adam Wolf, the popular Republican, who always runs ahead of his ticket, has a big boom on for Mayor.

The Factory is the Place to Buy

FURS

OF Every Description

Fur Repairing and Remodeling at Most Reasonable Prices

GEORGE W. PAULLIN
Fourth Floor Stewart Bldg. Fourth Floor
N. W. Corner State and Washington St.

Professional Cards

Telephone Central 966.
L. D. Condee
ATTORNEY
and
COUNSELOR AT LAW
35 North Dearborn St.

ARTHUR W. FULTON
Lawyer
1103 ASHLAND BLOCK
Residence 3343 Monroe Street
CHICAGO
Telephone: Office, Central 4368
Residence, Kedzie 6480

Stillman B. Jamieson
Attorney at Law
ASHLAND BLOCK
Telephone Central 1607

James C. McShane
Attorney and Counselor
Suite 822, New York Life Building
39 So. La Salle St.
CHICAGO
Telephone Central 515
Automatic 33099

Telephone (Main 1912, Automatic 33-037)
Girard A. Ellingson
LAWYER
1001 Home Insurance Bldg.
CHICAGO
Telephone 2510 Randolph

Morton T. Culver
Attorney at Law
829-831 Stock Exchange Building
CHICAGO
Residence, Glenwood, Ill.

Telephone Central 618
Spencer Ward
LAWYER
Rector Building
Clark and Monroe Streets
CHICAGO
Telephone Central 4381

Asa G. Adams
LAWYER
76 West Monroe Street
CHICAGO

EAGLETS.

Major Edgar B. Tolman, former corporation counsel, would make a good judge.

John M. Jamm of North Clark and Belden avenue, has many friends who would like to boost him for City Clerk.

John E. Traeger will make a good sheriff.

Ross C. Hall, the able lawyer, is doing good work for the legal department of the Sanitary District.

Judge Joseph E. LaBuy has made a grand record as judge of the Municipal court.

C. A. Smith, the veteran pianist, is respected by all who know him.

William Duff Haynie is popular with railroad men, lawyers and the general public.

Paul Redieske made a good public record and is a valued Republican leader.

James A. Quinn, the hustling chief of the Twenty-first, is getting ready for the next battle.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown's good record in the Circuit Court entitles him to re-election at the hands of the people.

John Gowan-Stobo, the famous expert accountant, is largely interested in western mines.

James S. McInerney will make a good record as clerk of the Appellate Court.

John D. Gallivan, the veteran letter carrier, is one of the most popular men in the service of Uncle Sam.

Judge M. L. McKinley of the Superior Court is making a fine record.

James R. Buckley, Chief Clerk in the Criminal Court Clerk's office, is always adding to the efficiency of the public service.

James T. Patterson has made a good record as president of the Illinois Labor Commission.

Judge Edward T. Glennon, the well known lawyer, is respected by bench, bar and public.

Alderman John Powers is invincible in the Nineteenth.

F. Emil Gasch, a well known resident, is talked of for alderman of the 23rd ward.

Patrick H. O'Donnell, able lawyer, popular orator and patriotic citizen, is always in the front rank of upbuilders of Chicago.

William Best, the famous tobaccoist, who gave such splendid service as South Park Commissioner, is talked of for Mayor.

Chicago will never stand for Blue Laws.

George E. Brennan, the popular political leader, never wants anything for himself. He is always helping his friends.

Addison street, one of the widest and longest east and west streets on the north and west sides, should be made a boulevard.

Francis J. Houlihan is one of the most highly respected lawyers at the Chicago bar.

Martin B. Madden serves Chicago well in Congress.

Alderman T. K. Long of the Sixth won't run for re-election.

Peter M. Hoffman, the efficient corner, is an official who grows more popular with the public every year. He is the greatest vote getter in the Republican party.

Judge Elbridge Haney is one of the sprightliest men at the bar, notwithstanding his long service on the bench and in the legal battle lines.

Callistus S. Ennis, the president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, is always in the lead of every movement for the betterment of Chicago.

Rivers McNeill is making a good record as collector of customs and reflecting credit on President Wilson.

Otto Reese, the popular former alderman, of Lincoln and Garfield avenues, is talked of for alderman of the 23rd.

Alderman Jacob A. Hey is always looking after the interests of his constituents. His fight against the boulevard link outrage pleases everybody.

Judge John R. Lavery is daily adding to his popularity in Chicago by his splendid record on the Municipal Court bench.

John Mack Glenn, the able secretary of the Illinois Manufacturing Association, is one of Chicago's live wires.

William F. Quinlan, "the father of Edgewater," has a host of friends all over Chicago.

Adam Ortsifen, who was one of the best city treasurers that Chicago ever had, would make a good Mayor himself.

It is singular that the only people assailed by our so-called "reform" associations are men who are known to be opposed to government by public service corporations.

Patrons of the Northwestern L. complain of bad service. It is getting worse every day.

Judge Harry P. Dolan has made a grand record as Municipal Judge.

John Z. Vogelsang, the great restaurateur, deservedly stands in the front rank of the restaurant and hotel men of Chicago.

Charles H. Lamson of the R. F. Conway Co., is one of the best paving experts in the country.

Joseph A. O'Donnell, former legislator and park commissioner, is one of the most popular members of the Chicago bar.

R. McDonald of Clinton and Adams streets is popular with printers, manufacturers and everybody else.

Judge Adolor J. Pettit has made a good record on the Circuit bench.

Benjamin F. Richardson, the well known lawyer, has met with deserved success and has a host of friends.

Judge Harry P. Dolan has made a good record in the Municipal Court.

Samuel W. Jackson, the well known lawyer, who was one of the best Presidents the Law Institute ever had, is frequently mentioned for judge.

Leo N. Alt, the well known druggist, is talked of for Alderman of the 24th Ward.

President Wilson has the confidence of the whole people.

Peter Reinberg will be president of the County Board for the whole people. Not for any one class or clique.

The fellows who bought up "forest" land in Cook County before election will now get their preserves.

Frank H. Jones is not only a democrat of national reputation, but a financier who is respected by everybody.

John L. Forch, the highly esteemed business man, is frequently mentioned