The Big Presidential Campaign and the Important Places to Be Filled Attract the Attention of the Voters of Illinois.

The Democratic ticket for the judicial election June 5 is as follows: For full term Superior Court Judge: Judge Richard E. Burke, Thirtieth ward. Judge Martin M. Gridley, Evanston. Judge William E. Dever, Twenty-fifth ward. Judge William F. Cooper, Twenty-first ward. Judge Charles A. McDonald, Twenty-fifth ward. Municipal Judge John J. Sullivan, Thirtieth ward. For short term: Joseph B. David, Third ward.

WOMEN LOSE VOTE

Can No Longer Decide the Election of Judges of the Municipal Court.

County Judge Thomas F. Scully of Cook County, head of the election machinery in Chicago, took cognizance of the decision of the Supreme Court in the Macomb case taking away the right of women to vote for judges of the Municipal Court. Judge Scully, who was in Springfield to attend the Democratic state convention, held a conference with Justice George A. Cooke of the Supreme Court. Justice Cooke told Judge Scully that the decision applies to Chicago Municipal Judges as well as to those of downstate city courts. "Justice Cooke told me that the Municipal Court of Chicago was especially considered by the justices, and that their decision absolutely prevents women of Chicago from exercising this right of franchise, which they have had for the last three years," said Judge Scully. "In the decision the Supreme Court held that judges of all courts are constitutional officers, although not specifically created by the constitution. "The decision means that women will not be able to vote for the ten judges of the Municipal Court to be elected in Chicago this fall. "I am of the opinion that women may vote for the chief bailiff and chief clerk of the Municipal Court. I asked Justice Cooke about this. He said the point was not considered by the Supreme Court, but that he thought the bailiff and clerk probably were not constitutional officers within the meaning of the decision."

HARRISON'S SHRIEK

Five-time Mayor of Chicago Emits a Howl of Agony Over New Postmaster.

"I have lived in Chicago for fifty-six years," said former Mayor Harrison, "and I have been informed regarding every movement of importance in the city during that time. Many of these movements have been big enough and great enough to enlist the support of every good citizen. But I never heard the name of Dixon Williams associated with any of them. I never saw the man or heard of him except once, when, as president of the Southern Club, he presided in a bare hall where a meeting was being held to further Mr. Wilson's campaign for the presidency. "I never heard whether he was a Socialist, Republican or Democrat. I never heard anything about him until he became a candidate for the postmastership. If that's good politics, I must say my hands are up. It's time to say good night!"

MONROE STREET HAPPY

It Is Going to Have a Bridge and the Brightest Lights in the City.

Construction of the new Monroe street bridge and turning of Monroe street, from the lake front to the river, into the "Broadway of Chicago," is scheduled to begin at once, following the decision of the Appellate Court setting aside the injunction restraining the city from carrying out this work. The injunction was obtained by S. D. Childs & Co.

"Unless we encounter new obstacles the bridge should be in operation by Christmas," said City Engineer John Ericson. "The Union Station is building the bridge and paying for it. It will cost $450,000 and is to be built according to plans made by the city. As soon as this bridge is completed we will start on the Madison street bridge." Members of the Monroe Street Improvement Association were jubilant.

THE NEW COMBINE

Public Men and Public Conditions as They Are Seen by the People in the Light of Their Performances.

General Information of a Public and Political Nature From All Parts of the State and All Parties In It.

As The Eagle said the week before last, Thompson is on top. The following tentative slate was reported likely to be supported by the new organization: For national committeeman—Mayor William H. Thompson of Chicago. For governor—Frank O. Lowden of Ogle county. For lieutenant governor—John G. Oglesby of Elkhart. For state treasurer—Len Small of Kankakee.

THE NEW ALDERMEN

List of City Council Committees to Which They Have Been Assigned.

Following are the assignments given the new members of the Chicago City Council: Schwartz—Harbors, wharves and bridges, health, railway terminals. Krundick—Harbors, license, schools, fire, police and civil service. Novak—License, health, local industries. Horne—License, harbors, City Hall and buildings. Franz—Health, buildings, track elevation. Walker—Harbors, buildings, judiciary. Adamowski—Buildings, streets and alleys, parks, playgrounds and beaches. Byrne—License, judiciary, terminals. Pegram—Health, schools, buildings.

HEALEY IS CHIEF

Faddists and Would-be Reformers Are Mistaken as to Who Heads Police Department.

Chief Healey is either at the head of the Police Department or he isn't. Most people think that he is. The Fad Promoters think otherwise. But Corporation Counsel Ertelson rules that Chief Healey is running the police. "There is nothing revolutionary in our opinion that final authority rests in the chief," Corporation Counsel Ertelson said. "It seemed to be taken for granted, however, that Maj. Funkhouser's decisions were final and un-reversible. If the chief so desires he can appoint a representative to censor the pictures and can act on the recommendations of his representative rather than on those of Maj. Funkhouser."

MIKE KNOCKED OUT

Revised Returns Remove Mr. Zimmer's Name from List of Democratic Delegates at Large.

Warden Michael Zimmer of the Joliet penitentiary will not sit in the Democratic national convention as a delegate from Illinois. Official returns from all downstate counties, tabulated in the office of Secretary of State Stevenson, show Jackson R. Pearce of Quincy, one of the Sullivan candidates, to have defeated Zimmer for delegate at large, as did also Reed Green of Cairo. Green, however, finished in ninth place, just outside the dead line, while Zimmer was tenth on the final list. Pearce's total vote in the state, including Cook county, was $2,616, as against $0,500 for Zimmer.

MORE WARDS, FEWER ALDERMEN

Alderman Captain of the Twenty-fifth Ward Believes the City Council Too Large and Unwieldy and Advocates a Change.

Because he believes the present city council composed of seventy members too unwieldy, and also that two aldermen from a ward causes duplication of effort, Alderman Henry D. Captain of the Twenty-fifth ward announced that he will ask the council itself to recommend a change. "It would enable the city to redistrict itself into fifty districts, each to be represented by one alderman with at least $4,000 salary," said the alderman.

BODINE PRAISED

As Superintendent of the School Census He Does Good Work in Everybody's Opinion.

W. L. Bodine, who is directing the biennial school census, made a preliminary report to President Jacob M. Loeb Tuesday. He says the field work has cost $23,442, compared with $24,385 for the same work in 1912, when the same kind of a census was taken. Two years ago the work covered a wider scope and cost more. This is the fourth census of which Mr. Bodine has been the director, and he says the present one will be the first in ten years which has been taken without a request for additional funds. Out of his force of employees, he says, it has been necessary to discharge for the good of the service two supervisors and twenty enumerators.

PIKE RULES RIGHTLY

City Comptroller Holds That the New Municipal Pier is for the Public Only.

The new municipal pier at the foot of East Grand avenue is not to be used for private recreational purposes if Comptroller Eugene R. Pike has his way. He declared that several requests had been received from private organizations to hold dances and other functions on the pier, but that he would recommend that the harbor and subway commission, of which he is a member, prohibit such functions. "All Chicago is paying for the pier and all Chicago should have the use of it," he said.

DONAHOE BEATS HEAP

Former Alderman James Donahoe Takes Place of Heap on Supreme Court Decision.

At the November, 1914, election James Donahoe received more men votes than Judge Heap. Three others also ran ahead of Judge Heap in the number of male votes garnered in, but of those in this class Donahoe topped the list. Judge Heap got the office because he outclassed these close rivals in the number of women votes. A comparison of the vote of the five is as follows:

Candidate.	Men.	Women.	Total.
Arnold Heap	115,579	45,447	161,026
James Donahoe	119,443	40,089	159,532
M. E. Maher	118,781	41,172	159,953
J. M. Slattery	117,676	39,345	157,021
Thos. J. O'Hare	116,234	39,425	155,659

Counting only the votes of men, Donahoe has 3,864 more votes than Judge Heap.

LOWDEN'S RECORD

Ogle County Farmer Who is Seeking the Republican Nomination for Governor and His Career.

Here are the facts about Frank O. Lowden: Born January 26, 1861, Sunrise, Minnesota. Moved to Hardin County, Iowa, 1868. Taught school from 15 to 20. Valedictorian '85 class, Iowa State University. Lowden Hall was named after him for his services. Elected lieutenant colonel, First Regiment, Illinois National Guard. 1900—Delegate to Republican national convention. 1904—Candidate for Republican nomination for governor. Defeated by combination of Yates-Deneen forces on 79th ballot, on which Mr. Deneen was nominated. 1904-1912—Republican national committeeman for Illinois and member of executive body of national committee. 1906—Member of Congress from the 12th district until March, 1911. 1900—Purchased Hemenway Farm, near Oregon, Illinois. Devoted past fifteen years to development of farm along practical lines, dairying, live stock breeding, general farming and tree culture.

when they heard of the decision of the Appellate Court. "It is great news to us," said Russell Tyson, president of the association. "Within three weeks Monroe street, from Michigan avenue to Franklin street, will be the most brilliantly lighted thoroughfare in Chicago. The contract for the lights has already been let. The South Park commissioners have approved the plans of the Illinois Central Railroad for a new station at Monroe street and work on this will start in the near future." For state treasurer—E. J. Brundage of Chicago or Richard J. Barr of Joliet. For secretary of state—Louis L. Emerson of Mount Vernon. For state auditor—Homer J. Tice of Greenview. The present and rising generation might just as well throw away ambition. The Trust Press has it all fixed. Once in office, always in office, is its motto. Lawyers, doctors, business men, who
