TO VALUE THE "L" ROADS

City Traction and Subway Commission Appoints Real Estate Men to Do Work.

Three Chicago real estate men were appointed by the Chicago Traction and Subway Commission to make a valuation of the elevated railroad properties. The appointees are: Wyllys W. Baird of Baird & Warner, former president of the Chicago Real Estate Board; William A. Bond of William A. Bond & Co., also an ex-president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, and Mark Levy, a member of the valuation committee of the Cook County Real Estate Board.

SHOUTING FOR ROGER

Democratic Marching Club, One Thousand Strong, Makes All Arrangements for St. Louis Trip—Enthusiastic for Sullivan for Vice-President.

Final arrangements for awakening the echoes at St. Louis June 14 were made at a meeting of the Cook county Democratic managing committee. Two brass bands and a contingent of nattly attired marchers estimated at 1,000 in number, will represent Cook county in the noise-making outside the convention hall, according to the reports presented. Each of the paraders will wear a white striped blue serge suit, a sailor straw hat and will flourish a cane.

The ward workers who will make up the party have been practicing military steps and formations for several weeks and expect to furnish good examples of preparedness for parading when they reach St. Louis. They will leave for St. Louis at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, June 13, and will leave the Missouri city on the return trip the following Friday afternoon.

ALDERMANIC WASPS

Hungry Reformers in the City Council Great on the Sting, But Poor on Results.

What good have the college professors, ex-reporters, tooth carpenters and missing links who are howling for reform in the City Council ever done for the city?

No good. They stand for prohibition, not because they think prohibition or local option does any good, but because they are afraid that an open town would give somebody pleasure.

They are as opposed to giving the public any pleasure as some of them are to paying taxes. The reform aldermen play to the gallery occupied by the daily press. The public is too vulgar for their highly cultivated intellects and enormous appetites to cater to.

HARDING WILL OPEN

"Standpat" Republican Chosen for Temporary Chairman of National Convention.

United States Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio was named as the temporary chairman of the Republican national convention, which meets in the Coliseum June 7. He is to be the official "keynote" for the 1916 national battle of Republicanism. He was selected on the first ballot by unanimous consent when the national committeemen making the convention arrangements gathered in the Congress Hotel. His selection is taken to mean that the "old guard," who controlled the 1912 convention, are going to direct the movements on the 1916 nomination body. Senator Harding it was who placed William Howard Taft in nomination in the Coliseum in 1912 when the progressive split came about.

THE WOMEN WILL MARCH

Suffragettes Will Parade to Show Republicans and Progressives They Mean Business.

Three thousand women, each one bent on demonstrating to the delegates attending the two great national conventions to be held in Chicago in June that as voters they stand for righteous government, are expected to respond to the call to march in the suffrage parade of June 7, issued by Miss Agnes Foreman, chairman of the parade organization committee of the Woman's City Club.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Shortage of Tickets Reported in St. Louis and Great Preparations for Big Crowd.

Preparations are under way at St. Louis for the Democratic convention, which opens there on June 14. A shortage of tickets so great that many of the contributors to the guaranty fund may not be able to get in is reported by the committee in charge of the local arrangements.

Extensive alterations in the St. Louis Coliseum will be made to make it ready for the crowds. Among the

FOR FIFTY WARDS

Alderman Captain Starts the Ball Rolling for Fewer Aldermen and Less Wards.

Before the council judiciary committee Ald. Henry D. Captain urged the preparation of legislation to re-district the city into fifty wards, allowing one alderman from each ward. He also suggested that a city manager should be appointed by the city council, thus practically eliminating the office of mayor. The subject matter was referred to a sub-committee composed of Ald. Kjelander, McCormick, Rodriguez, Walker, and Coughlin.

Ald. John C. Kennedy was unsuccessful in an effort to have the committee recommend a resolution calling on the president and congress to "use all reasonable means to avoid a diplomatic break with Germany." The sentiment of the majority was that such a matter is outside the province of the city council.

Those who voted against the resolution were Norris, Werner, Kimball, McCormick, Bauer, Kjelander, Hrubec, W. J. Lynch, Buck, and Blaha. Ald. Coughlin, Rodriguez, Miller, and Walker, who favored the resolution, said they would bring in a minority report.

THE NEW ALDERMEN

List of City Council Committees to Which They Have Been Assigned.

Following are the assignments given the new members of the Chicago City Council: Schwartz—Harbors, wharves and bridges, health, railway terminals. Krumdick—Harbors, license, schools, fire, police and civil service. Novak—License, health, local industries. Horne—License, harbors, City Hall and buildings. Franz—Health, buildings, track elevation. Walker—Harbors, buildings, judiciary. Adamowski—Buildings, streets and alleys, parks, playgrounds and beaches. Byrne—License, judiciary, terminals. Pegram—Health, schools, buildings.
