

GOVERNOR EDWARD F. DUNNE,
Popular Choice of Democrats for Renomination.

PEOPLE ARE WITH HOYNE

State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne is out with a statement announcing his candidacy for re-election. His platform is to be, he asserts, the record of his achievements during the last four years, and on this record he asks the voters to assist him. His statement follows:

"I have decided to be a candidate for re-election as state's attorney, and to that end shall seek a renomination from the Democratic party at the September primary.

"This conclusion results chiefly from the advice and assurances of support I have received from over 1,000 citizens of different political parties, who are leaders in business, labor, professional and civic affairs. They inform me they will soon elect officers and organize for an energetic campaign.

"I regret that the existing election laws make it necessary for candidates for State's Attorney and other municipal offices to seek a partisan nomination. National politics and policies, and politics generally, should have not the slightest connection with the office of State's Attorney and such offices. Since the election in 1912 I have conducted the State's Attorney's office on this theory. Upon the record made during this period I stand.

"I ask the aid and votes of the voters of the Democratic party at the September primary upon that record, regardless of their previous factional connections, sympathies or activities.

"My determination to be a candidate is and will remain, unaffected by the action, desires or wishes of any individual, or group of individuals, assuming to give orders to the mass of the party voters of this county or to myself.

"I feel it necessary to say this because of silly newspaper articles to the effect that certain Democratic leaders were organizing a local 'Tammany,' and that candidates for party this record is not one of drastic, harsh and relentless prosecutions. No public official or private citizen, minister, priest or rabbi ever asked leniency or mercy for the young, ignorant, poor or misguided first offender in vain. It is to the habitual criminal and betrayer of public trust alone that a deaf ear has been turned."

RE-NOMINATE DUNNE

Democrats All Over Illinois Demand the Renomination of Governor as the Strongest Man in the Party.

Governor Edward F. Dunne will be renominated by the Democrats. In an address to the public just issued, the Governor says:

"During the Forty-eighth general assembly, notwithstanding the fact that the Democratic members of both houses were in a minority, I had the satisfaction of seeing twelve of the eighteen measures recommended by me placed upon the statute books," the Governor declared.

Following is the list of twelve measures which the Governor says were placed on the statute books during his administration:

Ratification of amendment to Federal constitution providing for election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

The Public Utilities Commission law.

The law empowering all cities in the State to own and operate public utilities.

The law authorizing employment of convicts on roads.

The law establishing an epileptic colony.

The law providing for rotation of names of candidates for state offices on ballots.

The law creating the legislative reference bureau.

The law creating efficiency and economy committee.

The law amending the 2-cent railroad.

RE-ELECT HOYNE

People Should Rally for the Re-election of Our Courageous and Honest States Attorney.

Crooked Policemen, Crooked Office Holders and Crooked Politicians Are Out to Beat Him.

Every crooked office holder in Chicago is against State's Attorney Hoyne for re-election.

Every crooked policeman is against State's Attorney Hoyne for re-election.

Every crooked public contractor is against State's Attorney Hoyne for re-election.

Every job holder who has ever robbed the public by splitting public money for public supplies with men who furnished them is against State's Attorney Hoyne.

Mr. Hoyne has proven himself worthy of his great public trust.

The people will stand by him.

GRACELAND LOT OWNER INDIGNANT

To the Editor:

At an election a few years ago lot owners in Graceland cemetery were in receipt of circulars asking them to vote for some men for office because they were connected with the cemetery. I was told the other day that I ought to vote for an alleged Democrat who is running for office this year because he is "connected with the cemetery." Isn't this thing of carrying politics into the cemetery going a little too far? Graceland lot owners pay a good round price for everything they get and there is still much room for improvement. nomination in this county would be compelled by a pledge to turn over the power of appointment and other patronage of the offices they sought to some committee or group of leaders.

"I never have nor will I ever sign, give or make such a pledge, or any pledge whatever other than that I make in public to the voters of Cook County. I disclaim any intention or desire, singly or jointly, to Tammanyize any official or private citizen, and I know that I will permit no one to familiarize me or any office I ever hold or hope to hold."

"I recognize," he said, "under the existing election laws, the legality and propriety of each political party choosing a county central committee, and that committees have certain powers and duties to perform."

"Although the nomination of candidates for State's Attorney and county officers generally is not one of the functions of the county central committee, and although its indorsement or failure to indorse binds neither the voters of the party nor the candidate, I realize the county central committee, through its reorganization, can give greatest aid to a candidate for nomination."

"Having this in mind, and subject to what has been said above, I shall seek the aid and indorsement of my candidacy for nomination from the present duly elected county central committee of the Democratic party, and hope, upon my record in office, I may receive it."

Health Commissioner Robertson Will Investigate Reports That City Doctors Are Charging Public for Inspection Work.

Despite protestations of civil service physicians employed by the health department to watch for incoming cases of infantile paralysis that they have not attempted to collect fees from any of the cases inspected on trains coming into Chicago, Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner, declared that he will investigate rumors that such attempts have been made.

"In this connection I wish emphatically to state that no physician employed by the city in this fight to prevent an infantile paralysis epidemic here is entitled to charge a penny for his services.

"Furthermore, every physician so employed, when asked his name by a patient, is required to give it, and not a number.

"I shall also investigate the report of Conductor H. F. Sell of the Wabash Railroad, who said that an inspector boarded his train, which arrived in Chicago from New York, and made no inspection at all."
