FRANK O. LOWDEN

WHAT HE IS
 He is big enough to be Governor.
 His experience fits him for the office.
 His character is without blemish.
 His position is known on public questions.
 He does not dodge or trim.
 He is not raising false issues.
 He aspires to be Governor—not a party boss.
 His campaign is constructive.
 He is advocating measures—not throwing mud.

HE STANDS FOR
 Business methods in state affairs.
 Practical men in state positions.
 Ten state departments in place of one hundred.
 A revision of our tax laws.
 Fewer state jobs and lower taxes.
 The development of our farms and live stock interests.
 Protection of industrial workers.
 Enforcement of the civil service law.
 Full suffrage for women.

He is presenting his arguments to the voters. He believes they will weigh the issues, consider the merits of the several candidates and judge fairly when they vote at the primary, Wednesday, September 13.
