ATHLETICS "AS A DUTY"

Brown university will continue athletics in the next college term "as a duty to her students, to herself and to her country." The athletic season of 1917-18 resulted in a loss of more than $10,000. But it is felt that this loss and further losses can be written off the books as incurred in carrying on a course which is not only worth while but essential.

The football season will begin on October 5 with a game against Rhode Island State. October 12 is open. October 19 Vermont university will be met at Providence and Colgate on October 26. Syracuse will be played on November 2; Swarthmore, November 9; Colby, November 16, and Dartmouth, November 23.

PROVE PATRIOTS OF THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Captain Huston and Jim Dunn Outrank Rival Magnates.

Owner of New York Yankees Was First Man Financially Interested in Game to Enlist—Cleveland Gates Ordered Closed.

When the baseball history of the stirring times of war is written two names will stand out above all others in the magnate end of the game as having 1,000 per cent patriotism.

They will be the names of Capt. T. L. Huston, half owner of the New York Yankees, and Jim Dunn, owner of the Cleveland Indians.

Captain Huston was the first man financially interested in baseball to enlist in his country's service. An engineer of great ability and a veteran of the Spanish-American war. Huston joined the colors soon after war was declared.

Jim Dunn was the first magnate to order his ball park closed under the work-or-flight order. The day after Secretary Baker announced that ball players must either don a uniform or go to work in some essential occupation Dunn wired his business manager to close shop and to disband the ball club.

There was no quibbling on Dunn's part. Although his club was in second place and had excellent chances of coping a pennant this year, he didn't hesitate.

"If the government needs my men it can have them."

That was Dunn's philosophy.

Dunn offered the use of his great construction organization to the government early in the war.

"If they want me," he said, "I'll go along and run it."

The government decided that the Dunn construction forces would be more use at home.

Baseball was more or less of a mania with Dunn. He had owned several minor league clubs before he decided to get into the major game and bought the Cleveland club. He never got his money out of the investment and never realized his ambition of winning a pennant, which to him meant a great deal more than the mere money involved.

But when the time came he gave up ambition, investment and all.

Dunn can well be rated side by side with Captain Huston.

HARRY HEITMAN IS IN NAVY

Rochester and Brooklyn Clubs Given Hard Jolt When Pitcher Enlists With the Jackies.

Not only Rochester of the International but Brooklyn of the National as well, was hit a blow when Pitcher Harry Heitman enlisted in the navy.

Heitman, who was with Rochester under option from Brooklyn, had been the big sensation of the International league this year. He was picked up from a high school team by Brooklyn by Elberts and later sent to Rochester for seasoning.

Recently Elberts tried to get him back for the Dodgers, but the Rochester club would not let him go. He settled the controversy for himself by deciding to go to war.

Pennant for New London.

New London won the pennant in the Eastern league, which prematurely ended its season, with 46 games won and 12 lost. Bridgeport, with 44 and 12, was second.

BILL JAMES, FORMER BOSTON HURLER, IS NOW PITCHING FOR UNCLE SAM'S BRAVES

"Bill" James, formerly pitching for the Boston Braves, has changed his uniform for that of Uncle Sam's crack team of scrappers.

He intends to strike out every Hun who faces him and not one is going to walk except back to the bench at Berlin.

In this photo "Bill" is showing his fellow troopers how to hurl the newest thing in bombs, and his unerring aim due to his practiced eye and arm has placed him in advance of his brethren in arms at a training camp, where he has been appointed drill instructor.

MIKE McNALLY NOW IN NAVY

Former Boston Red Sox Player Will Be Perfectly Happy if He Can Bag Submarine.

One by one ball players, recently famous in the major leagues are appearing in army and navy circles. The latest to gain notice in England is Mike McNally, former Boston Red Sox player, whose speed boosted the bean eaters to a world's flag. The British king recently watched two teams from the United States play a game of baseball. One was a navy team and the other a nine from the army. The sailors won and after the game the king, who enjoyed the pastime, strolled up and congratulated the captain of the winning club. The man congratulated proved to be Mike McNally. Mike is captain of the navy nine. McNally was noted for his speed and helped win a world's series game when put on second to run for a slow-footed athlete. Next to winning this great game, Mike prizes his meeting with the king. He hopes to bag a German submarine and then he'll be perfectly happy, says Mike.

FOUR RUNS SCORED ON FOUR PITCHED BALLS.

Chick Hartley, an old-time ball player, who is now a cop in Philadelphia, knows of a game in which four runs were scored on four pitched balls. He played in the contest, which took place in the New York State league in 1913, between Troy and Syracuse. Owens pitched for Syracuse. Cranston hit the first ball pitched for a home run. Mowe, the second batter, smote the first ball delivered to him for a single. Lumley did the same thing on the first pitch to him. Hartley himself came to the bat next and swatted the first ball for a homer, making a total of four runs. Burchell then relieved Owens. Troy won the game, 5 to 4, in 13 innings. Hartley says this is a record.

Wilson Collins Promoted.

Wilson Collins, former star athlete of Vanderbilt university and later an outfielder with the Boston Braves, has written home from France that he has been promoted a lieutenant in the 321st machine gun company.

CREDIT LOST FOR HOME RUN

Batsman Winning Game by Knocking Ball Out of Park Should Be Given Home Run Hit.

When the baseball rules are getting their next revision, whenever that may be, an effort will be made to change the present interpretation in regard to home runs which decide ball games.

Under the system now in vogue a batsman may hit the ball outside a park, but if the runners on bases settle the game the hitter does not get credit for his home run, and it does not go into the records as such. This is an injustice to the batsman, says a writer in an exchange. While the run does not score in the game, since it is not necessary, there is no reason why it should not go into the summary of the game and into the official records as a home run. It is the most timely of hits and important enough to settle a game. Babe Ruth recently hit into the stands at Boston, one of his longest hits of the year, yet it does not show in his record of home runs. Pipp hit into the stands at the Polo grounds recently and broke up a ball game, yet is not credited with a home run. This feature should be changed so as to give the batsman credit.

NAVY SEEKS CRACK PLAYERS

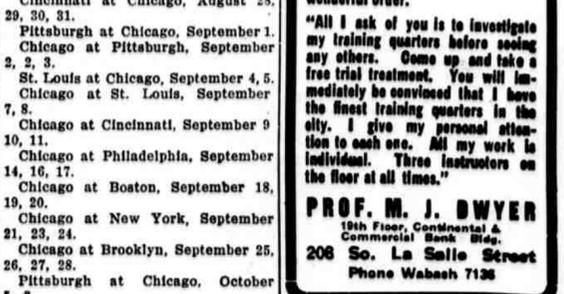

Every Big League Athlete Will Be Asked to Join, but No Special Ratings Offered.

Every big league baseball player in the country is to be invited to join the navy at once, according to letters prepared by Eustig W. I. Denny, recruiting officer at the Great Lakes Training station, under the direction of Capt. William A. Moffett, commandant.

"We are asking them to join the navy because we want the best men we can get," Captain Moffett declared. "However, there will be no special rating for them, but we will give them the best ratings for which they can qualify."

Captain Moffett also intimated there would be no permanent "shore duty," but that the baseball men enlisting would be prepared for sea service as fast as possible.

Prof. Dwyer Makes You Physically Fit

Professor Dwyer put the fighting spirit in Theodore Roosevelt. He can do the same thing for you, for $5.00 a month. Don't pay $50.00 for 25 treatments when you can get 12 months' training for $60.00, and come as often as you like.

Professor Dwyer says: "I'll make your brain work faster and produce more than it ever did before. I'll make you feel physically fit. I'll create more energy, vitality and stamina in that body of yours than you ever dreamed of having, and all because I will keep your muscles, vital organs and blood in such wonderful order."

"All I ask of you is to investigate my training quarters before seeing any others. Come up and take a free trial treatment. You will immediately be convinced that I have the finest training quarters in the city. I give my personal attention to each one. All my work is individual. Three instructors on the floor at all times."
