IGNORED NAVY TEAM TO PLAY FOR YANKS

Bob Shawkey Made Mistake by Pitching for Old Team.

Offer of $100 Per Game From New York American Leaguers Proves Too Strong for Hurler and He Is Transferred.

Yeoman Robert W. Shawkey, U. S. N., is now at sea, having been transferred from the League Island navy yard at Philadelphia, where he was an accountant, to a transport.

According to statements made to the writer by a certain Philadelphiaan, Bob's sea trip followed his decision to pitch for the Yankees when his services were desired by the League Island team, writes John W. Lawrence in New York Mail.

Shawkey pitched several games for the Yankees in Philadelphia and Washington after he entered the navy, joining the team while he was on furlough.

It happened that on one or two of these occasions the League Island team put in a bid for Shawkey's services. He was a member of this team at the time and had pitched several games for it.

Bob didn't know just what to do, but an offer of $100 a game from the Yanks assisted him materially in making up his mind.

The League Island team played without Shawkey and lost. Bob pitched winning ball for his old teammates against the Athletics and the Senators.

This, according to our informant, had an altogether retrogressive effect on the great twirler's popularity in Philadelphia naval circles.

Shawkey discovered that he'd made a diplomatic blunder that even his winning personality couldn't wipe out. He found that he was politically in wrong.

A few days ago Bob received orders transferring him to sea duty and he is now on an eastward-bound transport.

FAREWELL TO ESBETTS FIELD AS UNCLE SAM TAKES IT FOR COLD STORAGE PLANT

No more will the bleachers roar at the umpire or go wild over a home run at Ebbetts field, the big baseball diamond of the Brooklyn Nationals, as the government has commandeered it as a cold storage plant. According to Charles P. Ebbetts, owner of the club, Uncle Sam will try to make good use of it for the army and navy. Other famous ball fields, including the Polo grounds, home of the New York Giants, may also be taken over for similar purposes. It is heart-breaking to the fans, of course, but they realize that it is not a good-bye, but an au revoir, to baseball.

LONG DRIVE WON HIM FIFTY

But Ray Schmandt's Check Covered Many Miles Before Reaching Him at Camp Pike.

Ray Schmandt, the former Brooklyn second baseman, is at last to receive his check for $50 for hitting the "tall" sign in Philadelphia last April. Schmandt posted the sign with a fine drive and earned the bonus, and his check was soon ready, but it has had a hard time catching up with him.

The check was forwarded to Brooklyn and was to have been presented to Schmandt with much pomp and circumstance at Ebbetts field, but before it arrived he had been called by his draft board and had gone to St. Louis to see his family. The check was forwarded to St. Louis, but he had left for Camp Pike, Ark., in the meantime. His family forwarded it to Camp Pike, where he is a member of the Tenth training battalion.

TRUISM ON BASEBALL GAME

Pitched Balls That Are Near Enough to Be Called Strikes Are Good Enough to Hit At.

Major league batsmen who made a practice of heckling the umpires for doubtful balls and strikes never found any sympathy with Fred Clarke. The ex-Pirate leader once expressed a truism which should be drilled into every boy who gets into the national pastime.

Wilbur Cooper brought out Clarke's little line following an argument in one of the games played by the Pirates at Jacksonville. Several of the Pittsburgh batters were complaining that the umpire "missed" some that were an inch or two from the corner of the plate.

"Well, boys," remarked Cooper, "I feel the same as Cup Clarke on pitched balls. If they're close enough to be called strikes, they're good enough to hit."

COLLEGE PLAYERS IN FAVOR

Team at Fields Point, R. I., Made Up Almost Entirely of Men From Brown University.

The Bethlehem Steel company is not confining its enlistments of ball players to the professional ranks. The team that represents its plant at Fields Point, R. I., is made up almost entirely of college men, most of them from Brown university. They may know little about building ships, but they can play a pretty good brand of baseball, which seems to be the main item.

POSTWAR SPORT BOOM SEEN BY PILKINGTON

Jim Pilkington, president of the Association of Amateur Oarsmen, sees a brilliant prospect for all athletic sports when peace is declared, says the Great Lakes Bulletin, official naval station publication. Pilkington, whose active association with the government body in rowing goes back to 1876—within a decade of the end of the Civil war—believes that conditions following the great war will be much the same as those which were experienced here in the reconstruction period.

"The Civil war, or rather the ending of it, gave sport its impetus in this country," said Pilkington.

"Because Uncle Sam is practically making athletics compulsory in the land and naval forces, hundreds and thousands of young men who never before engaged in sport have become active and enthusiastic athletes. It is easy to see what the result will be when the war ends."

DICK RUDOLPH BEEN PITCHING 14 YEARS

Passing of Time Doesn't Seem to Feaze Boston Star.

Started Twirling for Fordham College in 1905 and Rose Rapidly—Manager McGraw Once Sent Him Back to Minors.

Dick Rudolph, star heaver of the Boston Braves, has been pitching for 14 years, but the passing of time doesn't seem to feaze him.

He started pitching for Fordham college back in 1905, and two years later he was on his way to stardom as a member of the Toronto club of the old Eastern league, after having had a bit of additional seasoning with a semi-professional club at Rutland, Vt., and with New Haven in the Connecticut league.

His first full season with Toronto was a busy one, for he took part in 31 games, winning 13 and losing eight. After that he developed rapidly, and on three occasions won more than 20 games a season for the Maple Leafs.

In 1911 Rudolph was given a trial by the Giants, but John McGraw did not believe he was ready for the big show and sent him back to the Toronto club. That decision was one of the mistakes McGraw has made in judging players, and he has regretted it ever since, for in 1913 Rudolph was traded to the Boston club, and what he has done in the way of standing National league batters on their heads is too well known to repeat here.

Rudolph was a holdout this season until late in May, when he finally came to terms with the Braves and signed his contract. In his first start of the season he beat the Reds, letting Matty's team down with one hit, and he proved conclusively that he has lost none of his cunning in the box.

Early in the spring he tried to purchase his release from the Braves for $10,000, but could not put the deal over. Manager Stallings knows well what he is worth.

Prof. Dwyer Makes You Physically Fit

Professor Dwyer put the fighting spirit in Theodore Roosevelt. He can do the same thing for you. For $5.00 a month. Don't pay $50.00 for 25 treatments when you can get 12 months' training for $50.00, and come as often as you like.

Professor Dwyer says: "I'll make your brain work faster and produce more than it ever did before. I'll make you feel physically fit. I'll create more energy, vitality and stamina in that body of yours than you ever dreamed of having, and all because I will keep your muscles, vital organs and blood in such wonderful order."

"All I ask of you is to investigate my training quarters before seeing any others. Come up and take a free trial treatment. You will immediately be convinced that I have the finest training quarters in the city. I give my personal attention to each one. All my work is individual. Three instructors on the floor at all times."
