The Chicago City Council owes it to the million of people who attend moving picture theaters in Chicago to put a curb on the people who disturb others in the audience by carrying on conversations while the play is on the screen.

These know-it-alls and leather-lunged idiots are to be found in every theater in Chicago, to the annoyance of everybody else.

The Chicago City Council 20 years ago, on the initiative of Alderman N. M. Plotke, passed an ordinance prohibiting women from wearing hats in theaters and thus obstructing the view of other people.

The smart Alecks laughed at this ordinance at first—especially the smart Aleck daily press—but the city enforced it and today it is the rule in every theater in America.

A good healthy fine for talkers during acts in movie theaters would conserve much wind that is used now to annoy respectable theater patrons.

John W. Eckhart, the popular Democratic leader would make a good governor of Illinois.

R. C. McWhorter, the popular president of the Acme Box Company, has a host of friends in Chicago who would like a chance to vote for him for Mayor or some good office, where his splendid executive abilities could be of service to the people.

Richard Francis Condon, the popular chairman of the Elks Membership Committee is confident of adding 3000 new members to the rolls of the organization this year.

The Home Brewery is not only Chicago's youngest brewery, but it is one of her most successful. No brewery in the United States ever achieved success in such a short time as the Home Brewery. Its beer already has a reputation among the lovers of good beer as being par excellence. The Home Brewery also bottles its beer and a case can be had by calling up Humboldt 9310.—Advertisement.

William O. Hawkins, manager for the big coal company of Richards & Sons, is one of the most popular and wide awake business men of the city. He is a leader in the trade and all who have had business dealings with him respect him.

Ascher Brothers, the well known moving picture theater owners, have purchased the old Inter-Ocean building at Dearborn and Monroe streets and will erect a magnificent theater on the site. It will seat 3,000 people and will be the second largest theater in Chicago—the Auditorium alone exceeding it in size.

George W. Paulin, the great furrier, has made a business record for honesty and integrity that wins for him hosts of friends.

Adolph Kraus is always in the lead of every movement for the betterment of conditions in Chicago.

Judge D. E. Sullivan has made an honest, dignified and able record on the bench.

Alfred B. Horder, the well known stationer, is a veteran of the Spanish-American war and one of the veterans of Chicago's crack First Regiment. He is popular in the business world.

Gustave Pollack, the popular general manager of the Stock Yards Packing Company, is winning wide fame as a philanthropist. As a helper of friendless boys he is doing great work in Chicago.

Samuel R. Kaufman the popular president of the famous Congress Hotel Company and head of the great Congress Hotel, is one of the most public spirited citizens of Chicago who is always keenly alive on everything uplifting the city and a broad minded man of affairs who makes everyone who patronizes his hotel happy.

William H. Reid, the City Smoke Inspector, is one of the most popular men in public life. He has a big following and is coming to the front rapidly in Republican politics.

The Geller Dairy Company's famous dairy on North Oakley, near Division street is popular with everybody and has a fine line of customers. Louis Geller is very popular with political leaders of all parties.
