Harry M. Grut, cashier of the Mercantile Trust & Savings Bank, at Jackson boulevard and Clinton streets, is one of the rising young men of Chicago. Before accepting his present responsible position, Mr. Grut was connected with the Continental & Commercial National Bank. He is respected by the business community and by all with whom he has come in contact.

Judge John A. Mahoney of the Municipal court is very popular with the people because of the good, common sense he displays on the bench.

W. S. Tothill, the great manufacturer of gymnasium and playground apparatus, at 1815 Webster avenue, has a national reputation because of the excellence and reliability of his products.

Q. J. Chott, the well known lawyer, who made a good record on the justice bench, would make a good Municipal Judge.

Harrison B. Riley, president of the Chicago Title & Trust Company, is one of the foremost citizens of Chicago; always progressive and patriotic.

Alderman Walter P. Steffen is doing great work as head of the council police committee.

Timothy J. Crowe, for many years chief clerk in the county clerk's office, has been made chief clerk in the county treasurer's office. He is an able man and is popular with everybody.

Otto Rueter, the head of the big real estate firm which bears his name, is one of the upbuilders of Chicago. The office of his company on the ground floor of 32 North Dearborn street is one of the finest in the city.

Judge John Steik is making a great record in the speeders' court.

Amos C. Ryan, the popular president of the Central Transfer company, stands high with the theatrical profession. The prosperous company, of which he is the head, does virtually all of the theatrical transfer work in Chicago and you never hear a kick about a lost trunk or any other article of baggage.

W. S. Tothill is in great favor with park officials and the general public on account of the uniform satisfaction that the big concern of which he is the head, renders in their supply of playground apparatus. Tothill's output is certainly up-to-date and of the best in every particular as the happy children who use it can testify.

Charles Hasterik, the well known brewer and president of the Best Brewing Company, has a host of friends in the business world.

Benjamin F. Richardson, the well known lawyer, has met with deserved success and has a host of friends.

Dixon C. Williams, the well known manufacturer and democratic orator and leader, has hosts of friends among the business men of Chicago.

Albert J. Hopkins, who made one of the best United States senators Illinois ever had, would make a great governor.

F. H. Seubold, D. C., one of the most prominent chiropractors in Chicago, offers to treat all soldiers and sailors suffering from sciatica, rheumatism, or kindred ailments free of charge. His office is in the Stevens building, 17 North State street.

Robert H. Taft, the popular President of the Lawrence Ice Cream Company is one of the live wires of the Chicago business world. Interested in many active enterprises he is an up-builder of the city and a man who stands for the encouragement of prosperity.
