EAGLETS.

The mention of Alderman William R. Peltzer for higher honors has started a boom for that popular man. His thousands of friends would like to see him elected State's Attorney.

McKenzie Cleland, the able former judge, is a man who is never afraid to stand up for what he believes to be right.

Joseph A. O'Donnell, former legislator and park commissioner, is one of the most popular members of the Chicago Bar.

John W. Eckhart, the popular Democratic leader would make a good governor of Illinois.

R. C. McWhorter, the popular president of the Acme Box Company, has a host of friends in Chicago who would like a chance to vote for him for Mayor or some good office, where his splendid executive abilities could be of service to the people.

Richard Francis Condon, the popular chairman of the Elks Membership Committee is confident of adding 3000 new members to the rolls of the organization this year.

Charles E. Ummach, president of the well known R. Williamson Company, is one of Chicago's progressive citizens who is always working hard for the upbuilding of the city, and the advancement of its interests. He stands high with everybody who knows him.

Charles Krutek, always made a good public record.

William O. Hawkins, manager for the big coal company of Richards & Sons, is one of the most popular and wide awake business men of the city. He is a leader in the trade and all who have had business dealings with him respect him.

George W. Puffin, the great furrier, has made a business record for honesty and integrity that wins for him hosts of friends.

William H. Baker made a good record on the Sanitary Board.

Alfred B. Horder, the well known stationer, is a veteran of the Spanish-American war and one of the veterans of Chicago's crack First Regiment. He is popular in the business world.
